NEW MANAGER AT CINDERELLA SHOP IN MEDFORD LAUNCHING SALE OF FINE READY-TO-WEAR

A remarkable sale, featuring fine spring apparel is being launched at the Cinderella Shop in Medford this week-end by Mrs. Della Swasey who is succeeding Miss Bureau as manager of the shop which is located on South Central.

Mrs. Swasey, for 14 years, buyer for Rhodes Bros., Seattle, has also, prior to that time, had six years experience with various womens specialty shops.

The sale which she is instituting, in connection with her introduction to Medford shoppers brings to this district a new price scale. Details may be found in an advertisement elsewhere. Mrs. Swasey also announces that The Cinderella shop will feature particularly, from now on, youthful styles for the mature woman and larger figures.

Women and girls of this community are invited to call, and give Mrs. Swasey the opportunity to take care of their apparel wants.

BAND BOX AND SHOE BOX MAKES SECOND ADDITION

Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Carpenter, proprietors of the Band Box and Shoe Box in Medford, have just completed the second enlargement of their store in three months. The new space, necessitated by their steadily increasing business in ladies' dresses, shoes and hats, is gained by moving the east partition several feet, to take in part of the quarters formerly occupied by the Harwood Photo service.

This adds 250 square feet of floor space and another front display window and will provide more convenience in showing their up-to-the-minute stocks. Two new fitting rooms will be constructed to better accommodate the ready-to-wear patrons. This department was only recently added to the store, and has proved its popularity, not only among Medford women, but also in the surrounding vicinity, including Gold Hill and Jacksonville, and the entire trade territory.
