Does Your Skin Shun Light?

IN THE subdued lights of the restaurant she seemed pretty and for a while he thought her lovelier than a year before. But as they emerged into the bright ballroom he was amazed. He lost the thread of their conversation, he wondered what had happened to mar her beauty to such an alarming extent and whether men usually observed complexion imperfections.

Her skin was rough, pores too obviously enlarged, black dots on nose and chin and cheeks. Did she think that layer of dead white powder concealed the blemishes? Why, it only accentuated them.

Ballroom lights have quite the same effect as bright sunlight in "X-raying" the skin that is unkempt and badly groomed. It is easy enough to pass as fairly good looking under the kindly light of dim, softened, diffused lamp shades.

Examine your skin closely. If you are satisfied that it can stand close scrutiny in the bright light of day you are indeed fortunate for when eyes are drawn to your loveliness you can feel content in the consciousness that it is admiration you are attracting.

For instance—your skin may be sallow, muddy, pasty looking. Many skins are that way. You will have to give thought to your diet, get out in the open more than you have of late, exercise and build up your health in general.

If your skin, like the subject of our story, is spotted with blackheads, if it wears enlarged pores, or is excessively oily—you can be sure that such blemishes will show up glaringly in sunlight or bright artificial lights. People will either pity you or be impatient with your carelessness.

Beauty Accessories

MANY women think of beauty accessories as expensive luxuries. Time was when every cleansing cream, skin tonic and nourishing cream were regarded as extravagances.

And even the more luxurious accessories such as exquisite evening compacts are being adopted more and more as vital parts of the ensemble—just as jewelry and kerchiefs and trinkets have long ago been adopted as very necessary accessories to the perfect ensemble in clothes.

But it is not of the luxurious accessories I am going to tell you, but rather of a few inexpensive and effective beauty helps which are really helps and which will not make a dent in any purse.

I am especially enthusiastic about a rubberized headband. Every woman who has ever creamed her face knows that she can work more smoothly when her hair is tucked under a protective band—be it a towel, piece of gauze or cap.

Another inexpensive item which I feel that all readers will be interested in is the new type of tissue. These little tissues are daintily assembled with a little hemstitching, to look for all the world like a dainty handkerchief.

Something that has been sorely needed for some time and is at last on the market is a new nail white in the form of a pencil. It is very easy to use and is effective when used dry, or slightly moistened.

TINY THE CIRCUS ELEPHANT

(The numbers tell part of the adventures of Tiny. They correspond to letters of the alphabet. Substitute the letters for the numbers and read the words they spell.)

Tiny was a new arrival. She did not know the ways of the circus and she was a very independent elephant too. One morning when her 11-5-5-16-5-18 came to get her ready for the day, she was quite happy even to be 12-5-4 into the back of the circus encampment and be fastened to a 16-5-7 for she liked the 19-22-14 on her back.

By and by, however, she decided that she did not care for this 20-18-5-1-20-13-5-14-20. She stamped until she had tangled herself all up and had only about five inches of rope as a leash. This made her 1-14-7-18-9-5-18. She started pulling and at last the rope gave way and off she trotted down the road.

Four New Craters in Andes Talca, Chile.—The recent volcanic disturbances in the Andes are continuing. Four large craters have opened in the sides of the volcano Descabezado.

up to a fruitstand and helped herself to some delicious 1-16-16-12-5-19. One after the other she ate until the shopkeeper wrung his hands in despair. But nothing could 6-18-9-7-8-20-5-14 Tiny today. She saw peanuts galore and began to crackle one after the other. My, they were delicious. She might have gone on eating these the rest of the day had not a small 4-15-7 come to her heels to annoy her.

A CIRCUS MEMENTO

By cutting out around the pattern given here and pasting the ends together, you will make a lampshade large enough for a candlestick. If you wish a larger one, cut out the four clowns and paste them further apart than they are here, on a wider and longer strip of paper the same shape as that shown on which they are here. You can also use the clowns for patterns and make from them enough to make a number of lampshades of different sizes.

SAUCES AND THINGS

TODAY with the relish dishes, with their divisions one may serve the ravigote which is minced parsley, tarragon, chervil, chives and parsley served with a salad, all the herbs being kept separate. Ravigote butter is made by adding the four herbs, pepper and salt to butter with a little lemon juice.

curry powder, add three cupfuls of white stock and one cupful of white sauce. Season with salt and half a teaspoonful of sugar, boil for one-fourth of an hour, adding more white stock if necessary. Strain, reheat and serve with rice and mutton or veal.

My Neighbor Says:

TO REMOVE oil stains from wall paper make a stiff paste of cold water and pipe clay. Spread on the stain and let stand overnight. In the morning brush off with a clean, stiff brush.

When pickling be sure to use the best pure cider vinegar. It is the safest and best. Do not mix, under any circumstances, two kinds of vinegar.

Coffee will taste "just right" all the time if you thoroughly clean the pot once a week. Make a solution of soda and water and boil this in the pot for half an hour. Then wash as usual.

To prevent discoloration, all large fruit should, after being peeled, be put at once into cold water until needed.

LIGHTS OF NEW YORK by WALTER TRUMBULL

At his home in the East Fifties, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has a truly magnificent pipe organ. He is a pretty fair amateur organist himself, but frequently he calls in a blind man to play for his family and friends.

In these troublous times, members of the senate and house are getting the largest mail in history. Letters and telegrams from constituents pour in Washington in a never ending stream. One day, by two o'clock in the afternoon, 3,000 telegrams had been delivered to the office of Royal Copeland, senator from New York.

Before his death, Coleman Du Pont owned a number of New York hotels, as well as hotels in other parts of the country. He used to stay at his suite in the McAlpin when he was in Manhattan, but he also kept a suite at the old Waldorf, and it was there that he used to give some of his famous dinners. The Empire State skyscraper is many stories taller than the old Waldorf, but it never will have the atmosphere of the building it replaced.

Collecting watches is a fad with several rich men, but there is one extremely wealthy gentleman who goes further. He not only collects watches; he repairs them. For some reason he never is so happy as when operating on a watch or a clock. It is his relaxation and he spends hours at it.

Florenz Ziegfeld is continually being asked by coeducational universities to act as a judge in beauty contests. Some of the girl undergraduates probably believe that Ziegfeld has only to see them to offer them a leading part in one of his shows.

I still think the prettiest "Miss America" I ever saw was the little Campbell girl, from Columbus, Ohio. She married an Ohio State football player and retired from the professional beauty business.

The prettiest Italian woman I ever saw was in Naples; the prettiest French woman was in Aix les Bains; the prettiest English woman was in London; the prettiest Scotch woman was in Chicago; the prettiest daughter of Sweden was in New York. The loveliest Russian woman I ever saw was in Paris. But walk up and down Fifth avenue and you will see as beautiful women as there are anywhere in the world.

Loses Foot, Saves Life Armstrong, Mo.—James Widaman, walking along the Alton tracks near here, got his right foot wedged in a switch frog. From near at hand around a bend, a train whistled. Widaman untied his shoe, strained in vain to release his foot, threw his body to one side as the train thundered by, saved his life, but lost his foot.

"Holmes is taking boxing lessons." "Getting ready to fire the cook, guess."

Armored Tank That Is "At Home" in the Air

How It Started By Jean Newton

"An Abomination of Desolation" HERE is a phrase which very properly has come to signify any object that is hateful in the extreme, that is damaging to the degree of devastation.

The expression itself is a direct allusion to the Roman standard, referred to in the Bible in Matthew 24:15. In this reference, the Roman standard was set up in the Holy of Holies and it was considered as an abomination, bringing destruction and desolation.

The expression is of interesting historical significance, as portraying the attitude of the rest of the world toward the Romans, during the era of their imperialistic aspirations.

Library Gets Relics of Noted Mexican General

Austin, Texas.—Epaulets worn by Gen. Santa Anna at the battle of San Jacinto have been presented to the University of Texas library here and will be exhibited along with Santa Anna's saddle and other historic relics. The epaulets were the property of the late John N. Riley of New Orleans, La.

Newborn Babe Given Intelligence Test

Iowa City, Iowa.—Dr. Orvis C. Irwin of the University of Iowa believes that it is never too young for an infant to start to learn.

Acting upon this theory, the psychologist has begun a series of experiments with babies who are less than 15 minutes old, and expects to begin educating children when they are still in the crib.

A stabilimeter, attached to the child's crib in a cabinet in the University hospital, obtains a perfect record of the child's every movement. The breathing also is recorded. These records are supplemented by pictures taken with high-speed cameras.

Doctor Irwin believes that the scientific studies will enable children to be taught self-feeding, walking and talking at a very early age.

Kittens Lack Tails

Kelso, Wash.—A Persian cat owned by P. J. Blanchard gave birth to three tailless kittens. The kittens were normal otherwise.
