

FOOTS CREEK NEWS

(By Mrs. Marion Lance)

The meeting date of the extension unit held at the community hall at Rogue River for the ladies of the entire community has been changed to the second Tuesday of each month beginning September 11. Mrs. Azalea Sager, sewing expert of Corvallis, will be present and give a lesson on guide patterns. Miss Alice Malin of Oregon City is taking Mrs. Mabel Mack's place during her absence in Corvallis where she is filling Miss Claribel Nye's place. Miss Nye is in Washington, D. C., having been called there by the federal relief administration to serve as technical advisor on home economic projects. Mrs. Mack will serve as acting state leader of home economic extension work until Miss Nye returns in October. The meeting will be an all day meeting beginning at ten o'clock. It is hoped there will be a good attendance to meet Mrs. Sager and Miss Malin. Mrs. Victor Birdseye and Mrs. Marion Lance will act as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Stephenson who have lived here for the past two years on what is known as the Dick Richman place are disposing of their things and are leaving for San Francisco, California, to live. They have sold their place to parties from Klamath Falls.

Marie Biles who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Biles, for some time left Thursday for Los Angeles, California, for an extended visit with her sister, Lulu who operates a beauty shop in the southern city.

Mrs. Lou Miller and son Danny left for their home at Fairbanks, Iowa, Saturday morning after a two months visit with her mother, Mrs. Pauline Wahl and other relatives.

Miss Alice Jacobson of Corvallis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jacobson, who were former teachers in the Rogue River school, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Victor Birdseye. On Wednesday of last week Mrs. Lester Boling and family were dinner guests at the Birdseye home visiting Mr. Boling's mother, Mrs. Bertha Poyer.

Clarence and Homer Harrison who have spent the past two months at Myrtle Point where Clarence has been employed at a mine returned home last week to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Harrison.

Harry Linn of Oregon City has been camped above the Anderson ranch for over two weeks, having been stationed on Graves Creek before coming here.

Mrs. Charles McMerrick received word last week that her brother, Bobby Loveless, of Williams creek had been a patient at the Josephine General hospital at Grants Pass, due to a skull fracture received while swimming a week ago Sunday. Last reports stated he had been moved home and was improving.

Beth Meissner of Glendale, Oregon, spent the week end at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, returning to her home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Young and daughters, Irene and Beverly of Medford were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gutzlaff.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bowers and M. C. Boomsuiter made a trip to Talent Sunday where Mr. Bowers went on business.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Beswick and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ranger of Los Angeles, California, arrived recently to spend a two weeks vacation with their former friend Louis Druff at Pickett's Auto camp. Mr. and Mrs. Moynon left for their home Tuesday.

Mrs. Helen Hobbs and daughter Helen Bess were dinner guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Lance having returned Thursday evening from a visit at Bellingham, Washington; Vancouver; Victoria, and Sidney, B. C.

They left Monday morning from Medford for their home at Los Angeles after spending the past six weeks visiting here.

Mrs. Charles McMerrick received an announcement last week of the birth of a daughter July 29, to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hughes of South Gate, California, who spent the winter at the Anderson ranch about three years ago.

A weiner roast was held Saturday evening on Evans Creek by members of the Birdseye family, also Alice Jacobson, Bobby Cameron, Loretta, Lorraine and LeRoy Tompkins, Dorothy Heap, Edsel White, Ralph Biles, Kenneth Ward, Mrs. Tom Knox, Sybil Walker, and Phyllis and Rowland Miller.

John Ferry has as his guest for a few days William Poynter of San Francisco who arrived Saturday.

May Biles returned Saturday from a week spent visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hunsley and family near Table Rock.

A fire in the Foots creek district which started last Tuesday destroyed several hundred dollars worth of wood, quite a bit of fencing and swept the mountain side damaging a good deal of timber.

The Grey Eagle mine in the Sardine creek district is showing up well and a mill is now on the way to be placed on the property. The owners are very much encouraged by the outlook and will do consid-

In nine hours, Wes Green of Medford accompanied by several California friends put his Chalmers-Detroit "30" over the road from that city to the rim of Crater Lake last week. To Wes goes the distinction of driving the first car to the rim of the lake this season. During the trip he burned 12 gallons of gasoline and suffered no mishaps.

Ralph Darling, Sam Hodges, R. H. Moore and L. C. Applegate left Thursday morning via auto for Crater Lake. They expect to make the round trip in three days.

Fair Entries Way
Ahead of Last Year

Entries in all departments of the state fair are far in advance of last year, with entries up to Monday of this week greater than had been received the last week of the fair a year ago. Everything points to the greatest and largest Oregon state fair, both in number of exhibits and in attendance. The fair opens at Salem on Labor day.

Complete rejuvenation of the grounds and buildings is the drawing card that has placed new vigor in exhibitors and brought a lot of new inquiries. Max Gehlhar, director, states that almost daily he is in receipt of letters from groups such as pigeon fanciers, poultry men, dairymen, horse breeders and prospective exhibitors in the Art department and dairy products show, just to mention a few.

Law Experts to Meet at U. O.

The Oregon State Bar association and the Pacific Coast Institute of Law and Administration of Justice will meet in Eugene September 6, 7 and 8 at a joint session which will draw leading legal authorities not only from Oregon and the Northwest, but from all over the United States, it was announced today by Wayne L. Morse, dean of the University of Oregon school of law, who with Ralph H. King, president of the state bar association, has just completed the program for the event.

California's 136,000 acres of walnuts will make an estimated 45,000 tons this year with a market value of about $9,000,000. A nutty state so to speak.
