SAMS VALLEY NEWS

Friday will be the busiest school day of the year when Sams Valley plays host to Antioch, Meadows and Table Rock schools for the annual May Day Festival. A full days program has been arranged starting with the crowning of queen Ruth at 10:15 Friday morning. Many parents are planning on attending.

The senior class of 1937 will hold their baccalaureate services Sunday evening, May 16 with commencement exercises to take place the following Thursday evening, May 20. Prof. Empey has secured excellent speakers for both evenings and everyone is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Empey spent the week end in Eugene visiting his parents and attending to business in connection with his school for next year.

Dick and Albert Straus spent a few days in Salem last week where they attended the first annual state sale of purebred Guernsey and Holstein cattle. They purchased several registered dairy cows while there.

Fate Rowe returned home from the hospital Monday after spending a few days there under a doctors care.

Mrs. Glen Spurlin left Thursday for Denver, Colorado to visit her husband. He has been confined in the hospital there for several months. She expects to be gone about three weeks and stated she hopes to bring him home with her when she returns.

R. M. Conley and Mrs. Wm. Straus were both patients of a Medford dentist Tuesday for tooth extractions.

Jerome Fitzgerald spent the week end visiting friends in Eugene.

The senior class held their annual "sneak day" Thursday with Miss Corthell as chaperon. They went to Ashland, played tennis etc., and enjoyed a picnic lunch. The afternoon was spent in swimming and visiting students at the normal school. On the way home they attended a show in Medford.

Thursday evening a group of students enjoyed a card and game party at the home of Miss Jean Fredenburg. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and her mother.

Everyone enjoyed the dance at Beagle immensely Saturday night with lots of fun for everyone when the cowboys started to act up and entertain. The next dance which promises to be better than ever was announced for Saturday night, May 22.

Steve Wilson and Albert Straus returned Monday evening from Portland after taking a truckload of hogs to market there. They stopped in Salem on the way back and picked up the cows which Mr. Straus purchased there last week.

Wm. Duggan and the McDonough boys both purchased new tractors last week. Mr. Duggan has been plowing nights for Louis Kinne.

The girls from the Gold Hill troop enjoying the trip were Carol and Edith Ham, Norma Lee Ward, Leona Holderness, Rae Clements, Virginia Centers and Beth Reed.

The Girl Scouts are planning a party for their mothers, May 19.

FOOTS CREEK NEWS

(By Mrs. Marion Lance)

M. L. Mitchell from Napa, California and associates from Medford have taken an option on the M. S. Johnson quartz mine on the right fork of Foots Creek, once belonging to Mr. Eberlee of near Gold Hill. The new owners have built a road up Long Gulch and are installing a Chilian mill. They have established a camp and plan to spend some time here. Claire Stumbo was employed to do the hauling.

Mrs. Fred Wahl and daughter Betty Joan and other Mrs. Roe of Medford called at the home of Mrs. Pauline Wahl Thursday while on their way to Eugene to visit Mrs. Wahl's brother Dr. Roe.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Sieds who formerly owned the California Sandwich Shop on the highway and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Dauga before making a business trip to Seattle, Washington where they own property, have returned to the Dauga home. They report the weather at Seattle very disagreeable with almost continual rain.

The R. L. Miller family were dinner guests Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Gilchrist at Gold Hill. It was given in honor of Mrs. Gilchrist's birthday.

Mrs. Louis Druff, Mrs. M. C. Boomsluiter, Mrs. Pauline Wahl and Alexander Smith from here were shopping in Medford during the past week.

Mrs. A. W. Anderson who with her husband are spending some time at their Auto Park while making improvements, fell one day last week injuring her back.

Charles McMerriek and friend Mrs. Kraft from Klamath Falls spent part of Sunday at his place above the Lance mine, having driven over hoping to be able to do considerable burning.

Mrs. Melissa Chamberlain, age 86, mother of Mrs. Ed Woodcock, who formerly lived on the left fork of Foots Creek passed away at the Josephine General Hospital at Grants Pass Thursday evening at 6:30. She had been taken from her home at 622 South Seventh Street to the hospital about a week before her passing. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Minnie Wind of Grants Pass and Mrs. Elnora Woodcock of Takilma near Kerby. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Christian church.

Near Capacity Crowd Sees Wrestling Matches

The Medford armory was filled practically to capacity Monday night to see the card on which Pete Belcastro, the mad Italian meaney was re-matched with Alvin Britt, former Junior Heavyweight Champion who lost to Belcastro two weeks ago on a technicality.

Pete began a campaign of varied fouling with the first bell and eventually took the match with falls taken by bringing his knee into sharp contact with Britt's chest, time and again in a clinch, and later with jabs to the body. Britt took one fall with his reverse body slams. While the match was unequal throughout, because of Pete's constant fouling, it was intensely interesting and the fans hope to see another re-matching at an early date.
