

British Demand Indemnity for Jap Bombs

Demand for full satisfaction for the bombing of H. M. S. Ladybird, British gunboat which was damaged during the Japanese airplane bombardment of the U. S. S. Panay, has been made by the British government. Photograph shows the shrapnel-scarred vessel. An earlier "explanation" was rejected by the British cabinet and a blunt demand was made that a full explanation and indemnity be forthcoming.

Score One for Poland's Prexy

President Ignacy Mosicki of Poland is shown here with the giant lynx he shot during a hunting trip in the Bielowieza state forest. The lynx was the largest ever brought to gun in Poland. Despite his seventy years, President Mosicki is one of the country's most ardent hunting enthusiasts and an excellent shot.

HOW to SEW

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

Whether you line your new draperies or not will depend on how heavy the material is. It is important, however, that the top of draperies be stiffened when a French heading is used. A soft canvas which may be purchased in drapery departments is generally used for this purpose. From four to six inches is a good depth to cut the heading canvas. Turn the top of the curtain material over it and sew as at A.

Start to sew the plait about an inch down from the top of the drapery and sew it the depth of the stiffening, as shown here at B. Pinch this plait into three small plaits and, starting two inches down from the top, sew through as at C. Sew these plaits the depth of the stiffening, so that they appear as shown here at D. Now turn to the wrong side and sew a ring to the back of each plait as at E.

Every Homemaker should have a copy of Mrs. Spears' new book, SEWING. Forty-eight pages of step-by-step directions for making slipcovers and dressing tables; restoring and upholstering chairs, couches; making curtains for every type of room and purpose. Making lampshades, rugs, ottomans and other useful articles for the home. Readers wishing a copy should send name and address, enclosing 25 cents, to Mrs. Spears, 210 South Desplaines St., Chicago, Illinois.

Yessir, We Have It—Hold Everything but

"What's yours?"
"Ham sandwich."
"No got. Try a Sunset Special?"
"What's that?"
"A triple decker with ham, cheese, tongue, baloney, tomato, lettuce, onion, pickle and mayonnaise on raisin bread, toasted, with cole slaw on the side."
"Nope. You've got ham. Can't cha gimme a ham on white?"
"I'll try. Oh, George! One Sunset Special. Make it on one deck. Hold the cheese, tongue, baloney, tomato, lettuce, onion, pickle, mayonnaise, and cold slaw, and make the raisin bread white, untoasted . . . Right?"

Our Presidents

ZACHARY TAYLOR never stayed in one place long enough to qualify as a voter. During the panic of 1837 Martin Van Buren could not always get his salary. Woodrow Wilson and his wife slept in Buckingham palace. Theodore Roosevelt, in commenting on living in the White House, said: "You don't live there. You're only 'Exhibit A' to the country." Andrew Jackson was the first territorial governor of Florida. Warren G. Harding went directly from the United States senate to the White House.

Uncle Phil Says:

There's No Escape

The question is not is life worth living, but how best to go through with it. If people had acquired a taste for apple seeds, by this time apple seeds would be as big as filberts.

Which gets the most enjoyment out of "I told you so"? The optimist or the pessimist?

When unskillful people try to employ tact it turns out to be flattery. Saying a wise thing is useless if the listeners are not wise.

A Psychic Secret?

What is the secret of riding in an automobile making one (we'll admit) feel important? Pessimists are persistent deflators; and sometimes deflation is needed badly.

Dame Nature provides the materials for the world's progress, but man has to make the combinations.

Men who don't know what the word "friend" means, may use it too freely.

Hopeful Impulse

Every heart that has beat strong and cheerfully, has left a hopeful impulse behind it in the world, and bettered the tradition of mankind. — Robert Louis Stevenson.
