

Local Happenings

BY LUCILLE SMITH

The members of the Women's Relief corps met for their regular meeting last Wednesday afternoon. They made plans for the reception of the school teachers to be held this Friday. The next meeting will be November 8 when initiation for a new member will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Beck and daughter Ellen of Grants Pass were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Drake.

Mrs. Deios Walker and baby daughter, Dixie Lee returned to their home here from the Sacred Heart hospital on Sunday.

Mesdames Mary Mattson, Florence Howes, Jean Gray, and Minnie Fiene spent a day in the Ashland park recently. They cooked a venison dinner in the park and the gardener showed them the choice shrubs and flowers. On the way home they visited the Carlton and Ashland Greenhouse and called on Mrs. Maust, who showed them over the county home.

Mrs. R. L. Miller spent last week at Eugene where she appeared as a witness for the Pacific Greyhound stage lines. While in the north she also drove over to Corvallis where she visited her daughter Phyllis and Millie and Sybil Walker.

Joe Woodcock of Fern Valley and Jim Cornutt of old stage road have rented the Sleepy Hollow ranch and will farm it the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smith of Medford visited friends in this city Saturday evening.

Miss Millie Rains of Central Point visited Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dorman and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Rosecrans and family of Hill, California, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Bozy Tepovac. Mr. Rosecrans came to help build the new garage and woodshed for the Tepovac's.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dusenberry and son Donald who have been living in the Auto park moved Monday into the house recently vacated by the Floyd Lance family.

Bert Evans left the first of the week for Toledo, Oregon where he will visit his sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Willis of Rogue River were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Delos Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hayes were business visitors in Jacksonville and Medford on Tuesday.

Harry Harnut who has been maling here the past summer, left the first of the week for Yreka, California.

Mrs. Milton Steinmetz and Mrs. John Cook visited Sunday with Mrs. Minnie Webber of Sams Valley.

Dwight Mott of Aberdeen, Washington came Monday for a ten day visit with his sister Mrs. Earl Coss Sr.

Mrs. Cora Buncrot and son Herb moved Wednesday from the Hi-Way Inn to the W. E. Ross house by the schoolhouse.

Mrs. Bozy Tepovac has been quite ill for the past two or three weeks and is under the doctor's care.

Miss Ailene Inlow and Mrs. Tom Smith and daughter Jerauldine were guests at a Halloween party given by Miss Gladys Smith at the home of her sister Mrs. George Brown of Medford Tuesday evening.

The Misses June and Janet Mullin, Ruel Rians and Bruce Metzger of Jacksonville visited Tuesday with the Misses Mullin's parents Mr. and Mrs. Art Mullin and family.

Mrs. Cleo Swindler was hostess Monday evening in honor of her brother Jerry and sister Jerauldine's eleventh birthday. Games were played and refreshments enjoyed. Both received several nice gifts. The decorations were Halloween motifs and all wished Jerry and Jerauldine many more happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Frank Childers of Eureka, California and Mrs. E. M. Richardson of Grants Pass spent the day Wednesday, November 1 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Richardson helping "Dad" Richardson celebrate his 87th birthday.

Miss Angela Mazzocco of Portland came Wednesday for an indefinite visit with her sister Mrs. D. Desimini.

Pinky Milspaugh of Portland came this week for a visit with his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bornaman.

Miss Elsie Strauss left Monday evening for Cd. Obregon, Mexico where she will teach the Leroy Byerly children.

The Associated Motor-Check Service was at the Associated Station Wednesday, November 1. A number of cars were taking advantage of it and getting a motor analysis.

Miss Ailene Inlow and Miss Madge Mitchell spent the week end with their parents in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thorson of Medford visited Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis and family. Other guests Sunday were Mrs. George Davis of Klamath Falls and her sister-in-law and Ober Brown of Fort Klamath.

Guy Desimini of Portland will spend the week end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Desimini.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Miller entertained Sunday at a birthday dinner in honor of their son Rowland. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Gilchrist and Charles, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Yordon and Patricia and Wanda Dimmick of Grants Pass. Rowland returned to his work at the Benton mine near Glendale that same day and was taken there by Mrs. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lance.

WEEKLY WISDOM

(Conducted by S. M. Miller)

A bright boy heard and was deeply impressed by a sermon on the text, "Sop give me thy heart." Prov. 23:26. Satan whispered, "Time enough yet," and he put it off.

Ten years later a brilliant collegian heard the same text under circumstances which seemed to make that the time of his salvation. Again the tempter whispered successfully, "Time enough yet." Twenty years later a statesman listened to the same text from the lips of an aged bishop, and felt it was a message for him. This time the tempter said, "Visit foreign countries before you decide."

A traveler in Paris was stricken with cholera. But his greatest suffering was agony of soul because he was not prepared to die. His last words were, "Too late." The boy, the collegian, the statesman were one.

"Boast not thyself of tomorrow." "Today if you will hear his voice harden not your heart." Psalm.
