14 Graduates Given Diplomas

The fourteen seniors graduating from Gold Hill high school received their diplemas at impressive graduation exercises held Wednesday evening, May 28 in the school auditorium. The students and the large crowd which had assembled to honor them, heard Dr. J. R. Jewell of the University of Oregon give a very interesting address. The theme of his talk was built on the subject that each senior should do his own individual thinking.

As salutatorian of the class Valentine Cook welcomed the guests and Winona Dungey, valedictorian, bid them farewell for the class members.

D. H. McGuire presented the awards as follows: outstanding senior boy in scholarship, Delmar Chapman; outstanding senior gir! in scholarship, Winona Dungey; outstanding boy in activities, Bill Force; outstanding girl in activities, Edith Howes; senior outstanding in athletics, Kelly Clement; outstanding freshman student, Leona Holderness and the outstanding class during the past year in scholarship, attendance and activities, the senior class. In winning the scholarship Miss Dungey has made straight I's during her four years of high school work.

Wm. Autenrieth, chairman of the board of directors presented the seniors their diplomas.

The auditorium had been attractively decorated with greenery and spring flowers by the members of the junior class.

CLOCK STOPS WHEN IT IS TALKED ABOUT

An unusual incident happened during the past week at the Wil liam Autenreith home.

It seems that Bill has an old family clock that has been handed down for years. Recently the clock has been bothering some and Bil' has had to work on it to keep it running. He fixed it about two weeks ago and it had not stopped during that time. One day last week the family was eating dinner and Bill looked up at the clock and said "You know the old clock is ticking it off pretty regular". The clock stopped just that instant!

School Board Here Has Made Good Record

At this time of the year when interest is centered in school activities it is well to pause and think of the guiding force behind the students and faculty that helps keep the school up to its standard. This is the board of directors which is composed this year of William Autenreith, chairman, Mrs. Paul Throne, W. S. Ross and clerk Letsy Miller.

The board has seen to it that Gold Hill has an excellent staff of teachers and has made various improvements in the school system without raising the tax levy one cent. All members of the board seem to be continually on the alert to make improvements

In recent years the new tennis new rooms have been completed to take care of the over-crowded condition and many improvements have been made in school equipment.

Sometime when you don't exactly agree with a decision of the directors just pause and think how you would like to be in their place. Donating many hours to the school and trying to please the many tax payers and non-taxpayers in the district. Also stop and think if you were among the thirty that showed up to vote at the last school elec-
