The demure-looking little man approached the haughty clerk in a grocer's shop and meekly asked if he had any coffee to sell.

"We have ground coffee," said the man.

"No other kind?"

"None. This is the best ground coffee on the market."

"But I don't want it," the little man braced up. "I got some sugar here the other day with sand in it, and I don't want coffee with ground in it. You must think I want the earth."

The strong man at the fair had just finished squeezing the juice out of a lemon.

Holding it up before the crowd he shouted: "I'll give $5 to anyone who can squeeze another drop of juice out of this lemon!"

Up stepped a little man. He gripped the lemon and, to the surprise of the crowd, squeezed several more drops from it.

"It's easy," he murmured, "I'm a tax collector!"

HOW NICE

"I suppose that millionaire spent all kinds of money on his mansion?"

"Oh, no; merely other people's money."
