Waste of Time

Bernard was generally in trouble. Finding that words had but little effect upon his child, the father resorted to sterner measures.

A neighbor, watching him chastise the boy, noticed with admiration that Bernard gave no outward indication of pain.

"Don't you ever cry when you're beaten, Bernard?" he asked.
"What's the use?" retorted the small boy. "The old man's deaf!"

HIGH RIDER

"He's usually on his high horse."
"Yes, he is a sort of equestrian statue of himself."

seek in their fashions! Pattern No. 1520-B is bound to be regarded highly by the younger set anyhow, because it also presents that very popular feature—the dirndl skirt—in this case a dirndl skirt with a snug fitting belt which ties in back with sash ends.

Mose Knew Not What Lucy Talked Of, but How!

Before the court on wife-brought charges of desertion and non-support, Mose Brown meekly admitted his guilt and offered nothing in extenuation except that the lady talked too much.

"That's no excuse for desertion, Mose," said the judge. "The law gives a woman the right to talk all she wants to."

"Yassuh, Jedge. I knows it do. Only Lucy she never stop talkin'. She keep it up stiddy, mo'nin', noon and night, till I cain't stan' it no mo'."

"She does? What does she talk about?" inquired the court.

"Jedge, suh," Moses said, "she don't say."

Nature Rewards

All those who love Nature she loves in turn, and will richly reward, not perhaps with the good things, as they are commonly called, but with the best things, of this world—not with money and titles, horses and carriages, but with bright and happy thoughts, contentment and peace of mind.—John Lubbock.
