What two Resurrections are especially mentioned in the Bible?

(1) The heavenly or spiritual resurrection, Rev. 20:6; Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection; on such the second death hath no power; but they shall be priests of God with Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years. Rev. 20:4-6, 17; The dead shall rise first. Then we that are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air.

1 Cor. 15:41, 44, 49, 53: So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption; it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power, it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. And as we have borne the image of the earthly (one, Adam), so we shall also bear the image of the heavenly (one, Jesus) Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God; neither can corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery: we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed; for this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

(2) The earthly, or human resurrection, Ezek. 16:53, 55, 61, 63: When I shall bring again . . . the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughter, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them. Whether thy sister, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughter shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate. Then . . . thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger; and I will give them unto thee for daughters, but not by thy covenant. . . . when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done.

Is. 65:17, 19, 21, 23, 25: For behold, I create . . . a new earth, and I will . . . joy in My people, and they shall build houses and inhabit them, and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for as the days of a tree are (shall be) the days of My people; and Mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are (shall be) the seed of the blessed of the Lord. The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock; and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt or destroy in all My holy mountain, saith the Lord. Is. 25:6, In this mountain shall the Lord of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things . . . He
