Gasoline Rationing Set Registration Dates For May 28 to 30 Ore.-Wash.

The dates set for registering for gasoline rationing cards have been set for May 28-29-30 the registration to be done at the school building in Gold Hill. The rationing becomes effective in Oregon and Washington on June first. After that date cards must be presented for certain types of motor vehicles to secure gasoline for specified use.

It is stated that sufficient gas will be available for everyone to drive to and from work and to carry on any gainful occupation requiring the use of gasoline. The division said that the purpose of the rationing was to conserve tires, gasoline and equipment. No one need feel apprehensive about rationing program preventing the essential use of automobiles. Each person will be permitted to estimate his mileage and gasoline consumption and cards will be provided to meet his needs. This includes driving to and from work and gainful occupations.

It will not be necessary to register for rationing cards for trucks or other motor vehicle readily identified as commercial for this group will have no restriction in the purchase of gasoline. Other vehicles not easily identified which will have unlimited purchase privileges will be registered to obtain "X" cards.

Everyone who registers on May 28 to 30 must take to his nearest elementary school a state motor vehicle registration card. This certificate is presented to the registrar at the school, where a class A, B-1, B-2 or B-3 card will be signed depending upon the essential mileage to and from work in a pursuit of gainful occupation.

The cases where a motorist has been issued one class of card but business requiring additional gas finds it necessary to take a trip on he will make his requests to his local rationing board and be provided with sufficient cards to cover the trip outside of the state.

The "X" cards will be confined to the following who have unlimited privileges in the purchase of gasoline.

a. Use of vehicle as an ambulance or hearse; b. as a taxi, bus, jitney or other public conveyance for hire or as a vehicle available for public rental; c. for a regular practicing minister of a religious faith in the performance of religious duties and meeting the religious needs of the congregation served; d. for a duly licensed physician, surgeon, nurse, osteopath, chiropractor or veterinary, for rendering medical professional, nursing or veterinary services e. for the official business of federal state, local or foreign governments or government agencies; f. for trucking, hauling, towing, freight carrying, delivery, or messenger services; g. for transportation of materials and equipment for construction of for mechanical electrical, structural or highway maintenance or repair service or for the transportation of work crews to render such services.
