A Fast Runaway.

Something like a streak of greased lightning passed down Webb street just twenty minutes before four o'clock to-day. No one seemed to know whence it came or whither it was going.

The E. O. Man gathered himself together and went forth to hunt for information concerning the "streak," and found it to be a runaway team belonging to Mr. Aaron Vinson, of Walla Walla. The vehicle to which they were attached was completely demolished. No one was hurt, neither were the horses injured, notwithstanding it was the fastest runaway that has ever occurred in Pendleton.
