A DISPLAY OF "CHERK."

"The Oregon Blade," a new Republican organ started at Baker City about a month ago, is making especial warfare upon Mr. Ramsey, on account of his brief residence in this judicial district. What ever merit there may be in the objection urged it would sound better coming from some person other than Hursh, the editor of the very young, green and tender "Blade." Why should Hursh become so frantic over this matter? He is himself barely a resident of the district, as yet without standing or influence in it, even in his own party. He has not—unless within the last few days—yet established a residence in the district, as his family still reside in Western Oregon, and unless they move up here soon he cannot even vote in his district. If objections are to be made to Mr. Ramsey because he is a "carpet-bagger," they would have more force if they came from one who was at least a resident of the district and had some acquaintance with its people.

Hursh might ultimately do better in this country by displaying a little more modesty. He has been an utter failure heretofore wherever he has lived, as an attorney, as a newspaper man, as an official, and to come to Eastern Oregon, after he had ignominiously failed everywhere else and at everything he ever undertook, and instruct the people of the district as to how they should vote, is rather "fresh." Hursh's opinion against a man, if worthy of consideration at all, is a little something in his favor.

"Support the Republican ticket and aid in maintaining American labor and home industries.—Oregonian."
The above is a sample. A similar adjuration might be found now in almost any Republican paper. But the mere assertion will not do any more. There must be some support, some reason, some proof—and none can be found. The higher the Republican tax, the poorer are the laborers; and the poorest laborers of all are those most "protected." The farmers and stock raisers and mechanics and merchants and common laborers are not protected at all, yet are taxed to make millionaires. The people are finding it out, too.

It is reported that a paper mill will soon be established at Tacoma. We, here in Pendleton, have better facilities, are nearer the center of the custom, and are in every way better situated, than Tacoma, to successfully maintain the enterprise. It is to be regretted, it is a thing to be ashamed of, that a first-class paper-mill has not been an assured fact of the near future in Pendleton. With two or three such enterprises started, we need furnish no bonus for railroads—they would have to come to us.

The Milton Eagle announces that it is determined to not print anything but the strict truth regarding any candidate during the campaign. This is not only right, but good policy, too. The EAST OREGONIAN long ago adopted that rule. While it is for the Democratic ticket, it has a host of intelligent Republican readers who, however they differ from us politically, have learned that whenever the EAST OREGONIAN publishes any specific statement regarding a candidate, its truth can be implicitly relied upon.

This La Grande Journal very truthfully says:
"We are of the opinion that this "mud throwing" process by mushroom papers which spring up and die out with every campaign, has not much weight with intelligent people. Honest support of a ticket, with due respect for opposing candidates, has more influence with an honest man than the mud-daubing process."

A NEW YORK fellow who has been doing some figuring says that a wife can be supported, if good management and economy are practiced, on $3,000 a year. We are glad to learn that the luxury is so cheap.

To invest money in an advertisement in a daily New York city paper, scarcely known or ever heard of outside of that city, is wretched policy. If any money is to be expended advertising Pendleton, it should either be expended in the papers which have a large country circulation—especially in the Western States; or, better still, in printing a large number of pamphlets and hiring reliable parties to distribute them where they will do the most good, at St. Paul and Omaha. The cheap-John way of doing a thing is always the dearest way in the end.

Last fall the Republican papers of Oregon warned the prohibitionists that if St. John was brought into the State every mother's son of a Republican would vote against the amendment; so the prohibitionists, taking alarm, telegraphed St. John to stay away. Now the same papers, sore with castigation, are pitifully asking: Why couldn't St. John have come last fall, instead of now, when we have our hands full keeping voters blindfolded to the tariff iniquities.

"CHIMNEY" very clearly and forcibly presents the only living issue before the people at this time. He also manifests good sense in ignoring with deserved contempt the dirty slang aimed at his former communications. He is wise in recognizing the fact that to descend to notice, much less to "answer," a column of vituperation and slander would only be to lower and lessen the force and dignity of his own position.

WILLIAM H. VANDERBILT pays his chief cook $10,000 a year—$2,000 more than a cabinet officer receives, double the amount of a senator or a Congressman, and nearly seven times as much as Oregon pays its Governor. Vanderbilt has amassed some two hundred million dollars of the country's wealth, and on all sides there are strikes, failures, starvation wages, poverty and serfdom among workmen. Hurrah for the protective tariff.

"MANY of our people are feeling very sore over the long delay in the matter of the payment of that $1,000 advanced by Hon. Joseph Simon at our last election * * *. The Senators as well as myself * * * were parties in some sense * * *. At the best we shall have a narrow escape from defeat, if we do not suffer it * * *. Oregon is in danger * * *. The Republican State and electoral ticket in Oregon is in danger."—Hon. Binger Hermann's Letter.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Arlington Times writes:
"I take my pen in hand, and seat myself to let you know that things are moving along about so. Nothing of importance has transpired since my last letter to you."

The Arlington paper is to be congratulated in receiving and publishing this important news ahead of all its contemporaries.

The wisdom of the Republican county convention in the selection of Hon. D. F. Thompson as a candidate for the Legislature is apparent to every one.—Portland Sunday Mercury.
No doubt, Dave can spend half a million if he chooses and hardly miss it to elect the "gang of looters" (Oregonian); but will he do it? There's the rub.

It was reported yesterday that Mullan Tunnel, on the Northern Pacific, was ruined, and that the loss would be over two million dollars. Our dispatches today contradict this, which if true, is good news, not only for the Northern Pacific, but for all the people of the Northwest.

The joint lease project is reported "off." The Portland capitalists have won. Full information, with a statement of the reasons and important probable results will be presented in the EAST OREGONIAN in a day or two.
