TWO CRAZY SWEDES.

John Pakkola and Andrew Johnson to be taken to the Asylum to-night.

John Pakkola, who has a fine farm in the Swede settlement north of town, was taken into custody Saturday by Mat Taylor and C. P. Davis, on a complaint made by Jacob Falck and another Swede, charging him with insanity and that he was unsafe to be at large.

Pakkola is about 42 years old, unmarried, but apparently very well educated. The men who made the complaint say that he has been crazy nearly a year, but has only lately become violent. He has several times, lately, frightened women living in the settlement while their husbands were not at home, until they have all become so terrified that they will not remain at home alone.

Last week he came to the house of Mrs. Harala, where Falck is working, and there being no one in the house but a little girl, he demolished all the furniture and chased the little girl to the barn where Falck was at work.

Falck and the girl ran to a neighbor's house, and he returning with Falck they found Pakkola with a club, beating the fence with all his might. He appeared to be perfectly sane at his examination yesterday, before Judge Lucy, admitting that he was out of his head at times. His farm is one of the best in the settlement, and is worth about $4,000.

The other crazy man is the one who was brought from the Weston mountains some time ago with his throat cut, and who then gave his name as Andrew Peterson. He was kept in the county jail some time, and as his wound seemed to be getting well, and no signs of violence or insanity being noticeable, he was removed to the poor house, where he has been ever since.

Monday evening he became wild, and repeated the tale which he told when first brought to town, saying that the men were trying to catch him to kill him. There is no doubt of his insanity, probably caused by being frightened half to death while among the rough and lawless wood-choppers on Weston mountain. Whether any one ever tried to kill him is not known, but he has evidently had good reasons to be scared.

He now calls himself Andrew Johnson, which is supposed to be his true name. Ben Hagen, who acted as interpreter in the examination of Pakkola, and John Hendricksen will leave with the two men for the asylum at Salem to-night, it being deemed best to send men of their own nationality with them, as they can control them and minister to their wants better than those who cannot speak their language.

A Silk Dress Stolen. "On the 13th inst.," Mrs. Jade Switzer writes from Unatilla, "while my daughter, Delia Switzer, left the train at the water tank below Juniper station and came over home, and before we could send the boat back for her trunk, which was left near the railroad track, it was broken into and its contents, except a handsome silk dress pattern which was stolen, were scattered on the ground."

Mrs. Switzer writes that she is very anxious to recover this dress pattern, and will give a liberal reward even to the tramps, who are supposed to have committed the theft, if she can get it back from them. Any person rendering any assistance to Mrs. Switzer in this matter will have her everlasting gratitude, and besides have the reward which always follows the doing of a worthy act.

It is said that in 1880 there were only five thousand Jews in Jerusalem, and now there are thirty thousand. Thousands have fled to the City of Solomon from Russian persecution, and Jerusalem is becoming a brisk business place in consequence.

The Cemetery Meeting.

About twenty ladies and gentlemen, including the pastors of the Episcopal, Baptist, Presbyterian and Catholic churches, met last evening in the library of the EAST OREGONIAN, to discuss the cemetery question.

J. P. Vager was chosen chairman, and Rev. T. M. Boyd secretary. Views were exchanged as to moving the present cemetery, and making a new one. It was the sentiment of all present that while a new cemetery was a necessity, the old one should be improved and beautified.

A committee of two, Messrs. Leezer and Blum, were appointed to confer with the town council, and ascertain if the town would provide the cemetery with free water.

On motion of Mr. Potwine, it was resolved that it is the sense of the meeting that a cemetery association be formed, and that a committee of three be appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws for such an organization, to report at the next meeting.

Messrs. Potwine, Turner and Boyd were appointed as such committee.

On motion a committee of six, consisting of Mrs. Disoway, Mrs. A. M. Raley, Mrs. M. Marshall, Mrs. N. E. Despain, Mr. Lot Livermore and Mr. John Murphy was appointed to solicit subscriptions, to report at the next meeting.

It is estimated that from $700 to $1,000 will accomplish the work desired to be done at once, and it is thought that amount can be easily raised.

The meeting adjourned to meet at the same place next Tuesday evening.

A Fight with a Spade and a Gun. An altercation took place this morning a few miles north of town, between J. B. Coyle and William, son of J. F. Temple, neighbors. The quarrel arose over the building of some fence. Coyle was at work digging post-holes, when Temple came up, and after some words they came to blows, in which Coyle got the worst of the encounter, his head being bruised and cut by a spade which he had been using but which Temple got away from him.

Coyle retaliated by shooting at Temple, which did not take effect. Coyle was arrested and brought before Justice Garrett. He waived examination, and was bound over in the sum of $200 to await the action of the grand jury. He furnished the necessary bonds and was released from custody.

Independent Hose Team. An attempt will be made this evening at the Fireman's hall to organize an Independent Hose Team. The council has promised to purchase a hose cart for the team as soon as it is organized, and otherwise encourage them. Such a hose team would, in case of an alarm of fire, strike for the fire plugs and get one or more streams on the blaze several minutes before it is possible for the engine to get in its usual prompt work.

An independent hose team would be a great addition to the efficiency of the Pendleton Fire Department, which is already one of the best organized departments in the State. So help along the new hose team by attending the meeting this evening at the Fireman's hall.

Peter the Post in Baker City Democrat: Among the malefactors on the Grant county docket lately were two whose crimes were awful and whose trials were consequently watched with considerable interest. One had shot an editor, the other had shot a calf. Upon the latter wretch restitution fell heavily; nor did the former escape condign punishment.

"They will never get their penitentiary soup into me!" exclaimed Tom Williams, the man who shot me, but that deception has already reached the interior of his system, and may it prove to be beneficial to him physically, mentally and morally.
