WALLA WALLA LETTER.

The Third Annual Fair, a Large Crowd in Attendance: The Races; The Agricultural and Other Exhibits—County Politics—Other Local Items.

It is gratifying to an old Walla Walla man like "1888" to note the large crowd of strangers that our county fair brings to our city from all over the northwest.

The Blue Mountain band and officers of the association paraded the streets Monday noon, followed in their wake by fully 150 vehicles of every description.

Monday's race was a trot for three-year-olds—best three in five. This race was for horses raised in the Territory or Oregon.

The second race was a quarter-mile dash for a purse of $200 and $50 added; Sunday, entered by J. Baker; Cayuse Mollie, by W. A. McCarthy; Pioneer, by T. B. Kennedy; Sugar in Barrel, by Joe Thomas; Weasel, by J. W. Kingford; White Cloud, by J. H. Hall; Ben L., by Geo. Ross; Kens, by W. C. Allen; Laura, by an unknown, were entered.

Protection of Tariff Reform.

Beyond question, the Tariff is the issue on which the coming campaign will be fought and it behooves every citizen who would vote intelligently to inform himself upon a subject which so closely affects his temporal welfare.

GEN. LIEB'S BOOK, The Protective Tariff.

WHAT IT DOES FOR US, renders what is usually considered a most abstruse subject easy of comprehension. It will serve as a Tariff primer for the learner as well as a text-book for the learned.

This book shows the practical effect of the Protective System upon the country. Perhaps the most conspicuous feature of the book is its exact alignment with the message of President Cleveland.

The position of Mr. Blaine's "Twenty Years in Congress" is taken up, his assertions upon the Tariff analyzed, criticized and made to furnish their own refutation.

INDORSEMENTS: The form as well as the substance of the book is most admirable, and I have seen nothing surpassing it for use in the great work of spreading the truth among the people.

It is an able and logical exposition of the injustice and delusions of the protective tariff. The work is timely, and a very valuable contribution to the literature of tariff reform.

I notice that this book is receiving great commendation. It is bottomed upon fundamental truths, and I wish that the facts and arguments may be in the hands and minds of every citizen called upon this year to vote upon the great economic questions of surplus and tariff.

We take pleasure in giving this work our hearty indorsement, and recommend that local committees and clubs assist in extending its circulation among the voters of Illinois.

And many others. The SEMI-WEEKLY EAST OREGONIAN, One Year, AND GEN. LIEB'S BOOK.
