PORTLAND POINTS. Merting of the Iroquois Club-Mr. Riggen's Speech Personals. PORTLAND, Oct. 30.—There was an immense gathering at the Masonic half last night. It was under the auspices of the night. It was under the auspices of the Iroquois Club, which is composed of the leading Democrats of the city, and was, if possible, more enthusiastic than the rally of last Saturday night. Seated upon the platforms were United States Senators James K. Kelly, and L. F. Grover, Thomas Kearney, Preston C. Smith, Dr. Fox, W. W. Page, S. B. Riggen, J. Ditchburn, Mr. Gale, Dr. Hicks, and A. Noltner. Telling speeches were made by ner. Telling speeches were made by Messrs, Grover, Kelly, and Riggen, whose remarks were well received and earnestly applanded. The speech of Mr. Riggen, who has been a previous life-time Republican, was listened to with great interest. He said: "Which is the best, an abundance or a scarcity? Protection in its political sense signifies restriction. It is a plan for enforcing scarcity, and allows the protected American producer to raise the price on what has a calculate the price of calculate the price of forcing scarcity, and allows the protected American producer to raise the price on what he has. On the other hand free trade signifies an absence of scarcity. The Republican party holds that a protective tariff system is essential to the postective tariff system is essential to the postecti licical and social welfare of the country, while the Democratic party has the housesty to tell the people what taxation is. Tariff is an indirect tax on the people, and consists of two classes: A tax for revenue and a tax for protection. Protection compels a man to purchase what he wants of the American producer at a higher cost than he can get it elsewhere. It is the gigantic fraud of the present day—nothing more or less than an instrument of plunder—an artful scheme whereby the money of the many is diverted into the pockets of the protected The social mill thus grinds out one millionaire on top with thousands of poverty stricken people at the bottom."

Dr. Bredull and M. G. Greene, of Pendleton, are in the city.

There is plenty of money in the city to ENGLAND AND CHINA.

Great Britain Disposed to Encourage Chinese Immigration to the United States. OTTAWA, Nov. 1,—The Minister of Customs, who has just returned from the Pacific coast, where he has been looking into the Chinese question, says no mat-ter how stringent the United States laws may be, this channel will always be used by Chinese for that purpose. There is no work for them in British Columbia, and work for them in British Columbia, and no inducements for them to emigrate there. Their real object in leaving China is apparent. That friendly feelings existing between China and Great Britain may not be disturbed, the British government has requested that no more stringent legislation than is now in force may be enacted by Canada against the Chinese.

CANADA ARMING FOR WAIL

A Report that England is Preparing for Hostile Measures Against the United States.

New York, Nov. 1.—The Journal of yesterday says that England is quietly arming Canada against the United States. New forts for Kingston, new forts for Halifax, and a system of forts for the Pacitic Coast are not merely talked of but already under way. The Canadian trans-continental railroad is to be a hostile line drawn to the north line of the United States. The Journal believes that the retaliation law is incomplete, but as it is should be enforced.

A PIGHT PROBABLE.

Opposing Forces on the Scene in Mani-

Winniero, Nov. 1.—A gang of about 200 men have proceeded to the disputed railroad crossing, and it is thought that an attempt will be made to force the right of way. The Canadian Pacific people are prepared to offer active resistance, and militia are under orders.

Wallace Brown's Budy Found.

Last December Wallace Brown, of Browniee Ferry, Idaho, went to the mountains on a hunting expedition, in company with a man named White. While hunting deer they became separated, and White could never find Brown, and returned home. Ever since search has been made for Brown, but without success, until recently, when, as stated success, until recently, when, as stated by a Mr. Ertle, Andy Williamson found the skeleton of a man, about a quarter of a mile from the tent, and about the same distance from where the guns and mit-tens had been found. The gun, when found, was still loaded. The body was intact, showing that it had not been mo-lested by wild animals. The body was

Mr. Charles White, who accompanied Brown on the expedition, is described as a crank. One man relates a story of White being on a road with a friend some time ago. White was riding a mule, but had run out of feed. His friend had an abundance of it, and told White to use some, but rather than do it he took the mule into the mountain and shot it. mule into the mountain and shot it. The President appears to keenly enjoy the ludicrous features of this rumor, and the indicrous features of this rumor, and he went on to observe that, unfortu-nately for the complete success of this enterprise, the Sackville-Murchison corre-spondence would have the effect of rendering the public extremely suspicus of any further attempt upon its credu-lity.

INMANAPOLIS, October 20, 1888, To Chang Yen Hoon, Envoy Extra-ordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Celestial Kingdom to the United States of America—Most Potent And Worray Lord: I appeal to your superlative wisdom in this political conflict over the election of a ruler in this country to guide my steps. You will perhaps recog-nize my name as that of one of the Chinamen who were naturalized in Indianapolis in 1880 by our Republican friends, in order to vote for a legislator who would vote to elect Benjamin Har-rison as the f.ther of the United States. We understand that none of our com-

We understand that none of our countrymen were ever naturalized at any other place in this country, but we have found Mr. Harrison's official course so consistent with the pledges then made to us that we have been voting the Republican ticket ever since. Fourteen times he voted in the Senate to aid our countrymen to emigrate to this land. He also said in a speech here that we had as much right to come here as anybody, which nobody can deny. He has always been in favor of taking the tariff off rice, which would be a great benefit to us. I did his washing for several years, and he always paid me, besides giving me a small blue book with pictures, on Christmas.

Very bad.

Now, maybe Mr. Harrison do not like us any more, like he used to, and maybe he just says so to fool the Irish. I put out lanterns and blow tin horns when the Republicans have parade, and then my Republican friends say no. They say:

"John, we must fool the workingman," but maybe they fool me. How can I know how Mr. Harrison feels.

NO LIKEE CLEVELAND. Mr. Cleveland is a very bad man. He does not like Chinamen. He says the Chinese must go. Maybe I better vote for Fiske. He don't care for Chinamen, as they do not get drunk like Americans. Will you tell me so I can vote for the best friend for Chinamen."

Washington, (D. C.), October 29.

Another Wreck on the Northern

Another Campaign Trick Learned.

"By the way," said the President, laughingly, in an interview with a World representative, "I have received an intimation that another campaign trick is being prepared with the intention of springing it on the voters on the eve of the election. While I do not give much credit to rumor, yet it would be as well to head it off in advance. I have been informed that it is proposed that I shall receive, a day or two before election, a series of engrossed resolutions, or some other acknowledgement of the sort, purpose training men.

A Helena dispatch of Oct. 30, says:

A Wreck of two freight trains at Classoil, a small station on the Northern Pacific railroad, twelve miles East of Helena, today, resulted in the death of a man named Chas. Johnson; the wounding and maining of two men, Frazier and Johnson, who were brought here and placed in the Sisters' hospital, the horrible laction of the legs of a Chinaman named Ah Lim, who will die, being in such a condition that amputation is not deemed advisable, and the serious injury of several train men.

The wreck was a very bad one. There are two versions as to the cause; one that a freight train had sidetracked and left the switch open, another that the train had been standing on the main track for half an hour, and no flagman had been sent back to stop a freight which was following, and the second train ran into the rear of the first. There is a deep cut and a sharp curve where the trains collided.
