PORTLAND POINTS.

Litt's Losses Heavier Than Reported—Cleveland Money Not Taken—Valuable Gold Bricks—Other Notes.

PORTLAND, Nov. 2.—W. E. Welch, N.
W. Brown, L. A. Sevey, of Pendleton, are in the city.

H. B. Litt states that the published account of his losses by fire night before last were very inaccurate, and that instead of being $2,500 they would probably reach $10,000. All the dresses, cloaks, etc., which were being made for customers in the work room, were totally destroyed. Among these were two fine satin dresses belonging to Emma Abbott.
Goods in the show cases were drenched, and smoke permeated a large amount of woolen fabrics, which causes them to lose color after being exposed to the weather.

During the month of October 827,769 bushels of wheat and 46,939 barrels of flour were shipped from this port to foreign countries.

Mr. B. Goldsmith had an exhibition at his office yesterday six gold bricks, valued at $25,000. They represent a run of seventeen days of a twenty-stamp mill on ore from the Alma mine, located near Wardner.

The jury in the Ben King case have not yet brought in a verdict. They have been out since 1 p.m. yesterday.

Yesterday Judge Catlin committed to the insane asylum, Ella Anderson, a Norwegian girl, aged twenty-two years.
Her hallucination consists in believing that somebody is trying to poison her, and she is constantly running away and hiding.

Betting on the national event is still lively in this city. Considerable even money was placed yesterday on New York, Indiana, New Jersey and Connecticut; also that Oregon's majority would not be over 4,000. There is plenty of Democratic money at the Holton House which it is claimed Republicans will not take, unless they are given odds. Cleveland is a favorite in the betting.

TRE MANITOBA MUDDLE.

ARMED FORCES NEARLY HAVE A CONFLICT—BOTH PARTIES PREPARING FOR HOSTILITIES.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 3.—Bloodshed was imminent last night at the disputed railroad crossing. The running up and down the road of an engine by the Canadian Pacific people exasperated the government forces, and, arranging a train, they watched their chance, and backed it up against the Canadian Pacific engine.
The arrival of military at this moment, with loaded carbines and thirty-five rounds of cartridges prevented a collision, which was about to take place between the opposing forces. The government intends to have Superintendent White arrested for interfering with their special police, and obstructing the public highway with an engine. Owing to urgent representations of the Canadian Pacific and belief that the government will spring a mine of some kind, the military have been ordered into camp at the crossing, and they will probably remain there for some time.

NEWS FROM CHINA.

CHOLERA RAGING IN PEKING—A DISASTROUS TYPOHON—AUSTRALIAN STRIKE ENDED—TA-RT RETALIATION.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—A cablegram this morning states that the great coal strike in Australian mines has been terminated.

The steamer brings the following advices: Cholera has taken a strong hold upon the native population in Peking, and deaths are increasing daily. It is reported that the Chinese government has under consideration a scheme of tariff revisals, as action of retaliation for prohibition of Chinese from entering the United States. There has been a heavy typhoon in the China Sea, and several vessels had narrow escapes. One steamer was blown three hundred miles out of her course, and the coal being exhausted, for three days used sugar for fuel.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Robert Fyle, an O. R. & N. Employee, Found in the River. Badly Injured, and His Money Gone.

PORTLAND, Nov. 3.—Early yesterday morning a man was found struggling in the river at the foot of Salmon street, and was rescued and recuscitated after much difficulty, when he was found to be Robert Fyle, auditor of freight ticket accounts of the O. R. & N. Co. He was badly cut and bruised about the head.

Fyle is not yet able to tell how the affair happened. As he had recently been paid off, and no money was found on his person, it is believed he was the victim of foul play.

THE EXCLUSION BILL WORKS.

ONLY FIVE CHINESE, INSTEAD OF HUNDREDS, AS HERETOFORE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—The steamer

City of Sydney, the first to leave Hong Kong after the signing of the exclusion bill, arrived late last night, bringing only twenty-six Chinese passengers. Five of these are for San Francisco, while only six are destined for Victoria, the remainder going to Panama, Honolulu and Havana.

A CONSTABLE KILLS A PRISONER.

LOS ANGELES, Cal. Nov. 3.—John Alkins, arrested here yesterday for burning railroad property, while being taken to jail by Deputy Constable McGee last
