The remains of Archie Patterson, the unfortunate conductor, have been shipped to his relatives in Wisconsin for interment. His father and brother are both conductors on the passenger trains in that State. Archie was just on the eve of leaving for home on a furlough when killed, and on his return was to have been promoted to a passenger train. He was a young man of promise and ability, and has a host of friends along the line who will mourn alike with his bereaved relatives over his loss.

Lee Moorhouse and E. S. Greigore are both aspirants for the Indian Agency under the coming Republican administration, and are presenting petitions for signatures. The former has long been a prominent Republican of Pendleton, and has never before asked for an office. It is therefore probable that he has the longest pole and will knock the persimmon. Few better men could be appointed than genial Lee.

Messrs. W. S. Hackart and W. R. Day were in town last evening on their way home to Denver. They have had charge of the grading work on the O. R. & N. beyond Riparia, but trouble between the company and Indians compelled them to cease operations. They have disposed of their outfit to J. E. Smith, the well-known Portland contractor, for $7,000.

LaGrande Journal: State Senator J. H. Raley, of Pendleton, expects to make a visit to Union county before the Legislature convenes in order to learn the wants of our people. We have every reason to believe that Mr. Raley will be a valuable man in the Legislature, and that whatever he may do will be for the best interests of the people of Union county.

The new series of the Oregon Building & Loan Association of Pendleton is now well under way. An investigation of the modern operandi of this institution by would-be members cannot but prove its benefits both to them and to the community at large. Subscribe $5 per month, and at the end of seven years you will draw out $1,000 clear cash. Of what savings bank can the same be said?

Stanley E. Dean surprised his friends on his return from the East by bringing back with him a bride, formerly Miss Carrie Pugsley, daughter of Dr. E. S. Pugsley, a prominent physician of White Cloud, Kansas. The happy couple were accompanied on their return by Dr. E. H. Pugsley, a brother of the bride, and his wife.

B. S. Waffle, who has been inconsolable for the past several days over the loss of his dog, discovered the animal this morning in a half-starved condition in a vacant house, where he had unknowingly been locked up by Mr. Waffle himself. It would be hard to tell which was the most pleased, Mr. Waffle or the dog, at the chance discovery.

The Farmington branch passenger started from Farmington nearly three hours late yesterday, and still got into Pendleton on time. Thirty-two miles an hour were made coming down, the best time that can possibly be made on the branch. The fireman had to "hump himself" the entire distance.

Al McPherson, one of the express messengers on the Farmington branch, took a little hunting excursion up the river a mile or so above town with a rather surprising result, the killing of a bona fide wild cat, which had wandered from its mountain home. He also bagged several pheasants.

Tom Tierney, who died in Walla Walla Tuesday night, after a long illness, left all of his property to Mrs. McGeary, a respectable and highly-esteemed widow of Walla Walla. Mr. Tierney had no relatives in this country, his only son having died two years ago, when he was about nineteen years of age.

Messrs. A. S. and John McGrew, of Centerville, who were down to attend the gathering of the Royal Arch Masons, paid this office a friendly visit to-day. Among other visitors from Centerville were Hon. T. J. Kirk and Fred Rosenzweig. Dr. J. H. Irvine attended from Helix.

The beautiful prizes to be given the best dressed and best sustained characters at the grand masquerade ball, under the management of Sharp & Wells, with which the new Pendleton hotel will be dedicated, may be seen at the Bazaar. Go and take a look at them.

Major Matlock received a dispatch to-day stating that his son Wes, Matlock was seriously ill of pneumonia at the Cove, where he is attending school. Unless a more favorable dispatch is received this evening, Mr. and Mrs. Matlock will leave for the Cove in the morning.

The finger of Frank Wills, the brakeman hurt yesterday, was cut open, and the bone laid bare from the hand to the tip of the fingers by the bumpers as neatly as could be done with a surgical instrument. It makes a very painful wound, but not serious, of course.

The children of Lee Moorhouse have now fully recovered from their attacks of scarletina. A portion of the house was converted into a "hospital," in which the little sufferers were confined, and they are naturally glad to be free again.

J. W. Hayes, assistant superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company, with his office in Portland, will arrive in town this evening, and remain here to-morrow, Sunday, on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Marston.

A board of trade meeting occurs next Tuesday evening in Fireman's Hall. Every member of the board should be present. Officers are to be elected for the ensuing year and other important business transacted.

Victor Hexter, who has been visiting his parents on Court street for some time, has bought a stock of merchandise at Oakesdale, W. T., and will engage in business there at once.

J. C. Arnold leaves to-morrow on a surveying expedition in the neighborhood of Birch creek, to re-locate the land belonging to the Ross estate.

Z. Houser purchased for his butcher shop to-day a load of fine hogs, of W. S. Byers & Co. Some of the animals were truly prodigious in size.

Mr. J. Hexter left night before last for a visit to his brother and other friends in Portland, where he has not been before for ten years.

COUNCIL MEETING.
Much Business of Importance Transacted, and Many Ordinances Passed.

At a regular meeting of the Common Council, held at the council room on the 13th day of December, 1888, there were present W. F. Matlock, Mayor, and Councilmen Rothchild, Young, Sargent and Slaughter.

The petition of the citizens of the town for the improvement of High street was disposed of in the same manner.

The report of the committee on the petition for sidewalk on Bluff street, recommending the allowance of said petition, was read and adopted.

Ordinance No. —, providing for a sidewalk on the south side of Bluff street from Thompson to Anna street, was read the first time and referred to the committee on ordinances.

The committee on ordinances reported favorably on Ordinance No. —, to adopt the surveyor's report on the grade on Webb street, and on motion said report was adopted by the council. On motion the rules were suspended and the ordinance was passed.

The committee on ordinances, to whom was referred the ordinance providing for licensing theaters, submitted a favorable report thereon. The report was adopted and the ordinance passed.

On motion the Recorder was instructed to furnish for publication a copy of the ordinance prohibiting the removal of dirt from the streets without permission of the street commissioner.

On motion the committee on fire and water was authorized to arrange a signal to indicate when the reservoir is full of water.

On motion the fire wardens were instructed to put in three days extra work during the present month, and present their bills therefor.

On motion, council adjourned.

ROYAL ARCH MASON.
Gathering at the Masonic Temple and Election of Officers.

Last evening there was a large gathering of Royal Arch Masons at the Masonic Temple. Pendleton Chapter was out in force, while there were visitors present from a goodly number of other jurisdictions. Most Ex. R. F. Gibbons, past H. P. of the State, assisted by M. Ex. Seth L. Pope, Grand Lecturer, were present, and confirmed the R. A. degree. The following officers were elected and installed to serve for the year 1889: James P. Bushee, H. P.; Sam P. Sturgis, King; J. H. Raley, Scribe; G. H. Snell, C. of H.; Wm. Beagle, Pr. S.; F. D. Hambrouck, R. A. C.; Wm. C. Tilton, G. M. S. V.; James Wheelan, G. M. 2. V.; J. M. Leezer, G. M. 1. V.; E. Lobenstein, Treasurer; Frank B. Clifton, Secretary; C. O. Erench, Guard. During the course of the evening Comp. James Wheelan on behalf of the members of the Chapter presented J. P. Bushee, H. P., with an elegant gold-headed cane, as a slight token of the esteem and friendship in which he is held by the companions of Pendleton Chapter. After which all were invited into the Banquet Hall, where a sumptuous collation had been spread, and to which those present did ample justice. All together a most enjoyable time was had, just such an evening as will greatly serve to strengthen the craft, and will be long remembered by all those who had the pleasure of participating.

A Special Meeting.
At a special meeting of the common council last evening an ordinance to provide for regulating the salaries of town officers was passed. By its provisions the following salaries per month will be allowed in the future: Marshal, $85; Recorder, $50; Surveyor, $100; Street Commissioner, $25; Clerk of Waterworks, $50; Engineer of pump-house engine, $75; Driver of engine team, $60; Stoker, $10; Treasurer, one-half of one per cent of the money received. The office of superintendent of the water works has been abolished. The surveyor will attend to the outside duties heretofore incumbent on that officer, and the clerk of the waterworks will keep the books and attend to clerical work. Another ordinance to provide for adopting the report of viewers in the matter of widening Court street, was also passed.

Mr. Wheeler Withdraws.
I desire to say to the voters of Pendleton that I will not be a candidate for councilman in Monday's election. When I became a candidate in this connection there were only two men in the field. Now, as other candidates appear who are more largely interested in Pendleton than myself, I deem it best to retire. Respectfully, E. M. WHEELER.

A Denial.
Mr. James Hardwick desires to state that all reports that he is running for Treasurer in Mr. Marston's interests are false and without foundation.

Not a Candidate.
Mr. C. S. Jackson authorizes us to state that he is not, has not been, and will not be, a candidate for Mayor at the ensuing city election.

BUTTER CREEK BABBLE.
Christmas Tree at Ridge—Made it too hot for Him—Stock and Weather Notes—Etc.

VINSON, Dec. 13, 1888.

Up at Ridge will be a gorgeous Christmas tree, decorated with many pretty and valuable things. Many happy little ones will return home after the night of the 25th, full of rejoicing, and let us hope that few, or, if it is not vain, that none, will be disappointed. Mrs. Wm. Rust is instigator and prime mover of the affair, and all those who have a few dimes to spare should help the cause along. But a few dollars expended in this manner will go a long way toward the happiness of our young folks, and make them feel glad that Christmas has come, and the little present will be cherished in the memory through all the scenes of life—a gleam of sunshine in some dark hour.

There is in progress at the school house near John Ryan's an interesting meeting, presided over by Rev. Mr. Hoskins, with promising prospects. Your correspondent is informed that this is the first start in that direction in that vicinity, and likely a rich harvest awaits the laborers. The neighboring people are prompt in attendance, generally speaking, while quite a number go a considerable distance.

The Man brothers, at the "Old Jimmie Johnston ranch," are making considerable improvements, among which is a commodious dwelling.

Several bands of sheep are being treated for scab in this vicinity.

People are generally pretty well prepared for winter.

Barley is one and one-fourth cents per pound up in the Pot county.

One or two cases of mumps is reported at that place.

Shooting matches have been in vogue at the Fair View school house, on Butter river. Chickens and beef were the prizes. The old gentleman Tiphett scored first choice in one.

Mr. Wm. Gulliford has just been appointed deputy stock inspector for this vicinity. This has been needed for some time, as there are several bands of sheep which, on account of their range, are frequently changed from one county to the other.

Dan Daugherty has so far recovered from his injuries in the upset in Vinson canyon last fall that he is able to go out riding.

The top of the timber buttes showed a tinge of snow this morning. Though we are having spring weather now, winter will be here on time.

One cold morning not long since, Mr. G— had crowded his chair behind the stove in the Pilot Rock Hotel, when the writer, accompanied by a gentleman from Jack canyon, entered. Upon our arrival Mr. McCoy replenished the fire, and presently the subject of politics was broached, and it turned out that Mr. G— had to take the Republican side against the trio. Mr. McCoy in his excitement would now and then stir up the fire. Mr. G— soon became uneasy and would twist on his seat, first one way then the other, till presently he sprang to his feet, and declared that "three Democrats on the outside and a red hot stove in the middle was making it too warm for one Republican."

Possible Railroad Extension to Weston.
Weston people are expecting a conference soon with G. W. Hunt relative to the extension of his road to that town, concerning which the Leader says: Here is your chance, wheat raisers, for the competing line of railroad for which you have been praying so long. Do not neglect the opportunity now presented to you. To place yourselves within reach of a branch of the Northern Pacific means from two to six cents more for your wheat each year even though the cost of carriage be the same. This you all understand, having so recently demonstrated to you. And you, ye people of Weston, awake from your lethargy, shake up this topor and aid this project that is being instituted for the general good. It means the rapid upbuilding of our beautiful town. It will bring more flouring mills, which means more work for all. Weston brick will be used by the million to build Tacoma and the cities springing up between us and that city. It is coming, but let us do what is in our power to hasten the event. No need for it to be years in dragging its slow length along when a little exertion on our part would bring it immediately. Interest yourselves in this affair, and encourage it by lending your presence to the meeting when it is arranged. Let us show this energetic and what is anomalous, far minded railroad builder that we are alive to our interests, and prepared to accept a good thing when it is offered us.

Lodge Meeting.
A meeting of Pendleton Lodge No. 52, A. F. & A. M., will occur next Monday evening for the purpose of electing officers. There will also be work in the first degree. A full attendance of members in good standing is requested. By order of the W. M.
