Gradually the paper has been enlarged and improved, until it can now be said, without fear of contradiction, that it has the most thoroughly equipped office, publishes more news, and costs more money than any paper in the world published in a town of less than 5,000 inhabitants.

Last year the company crected a new building on the corner of Main and Webb streets, at a cost of $21,000, on a lot worth $3,500. The paper is printed on a double-revolution Campbell press, costing $3,400, and the job office is supplied with three presses of various sizes. The regular monthly expenses of the comny is over $1200.

errors and omissions occur, for which we erave indulgence and pardon.

Among such, we notice that some of our local brethren of the press have not been mentioned as they deserve, but the omission was accidental and unintentional.

Milton has an excellent local paper, one really in advance of the town, and which would be a credit to a much larger place, namely, the Milton "Fagle," published by Bowmer & Brown. A Sad Case.

A Pomona, Cal., dispatch says: A young woman, Alice Whitford, who lost her reason upon hearing that her rich husband in Denver had begun suit for a divorce from hor, started for Denver to-day in special car, and was guarded by her brother-in-law, a physician and attendants. She has become a raving maniae and recognizes no one. She believes that all about her are conspirators, hired to kill her and her husband. Her time are pateous in the extreme. The physicians say she will probably never recover her mind. Her husband has now discontinued the suit for divorce. He is a wealthy silver miner and banker the suit for divorce. at Denver. Every one in Pomona pities the unfortunate young woman.
