THE WASHINGTON TERRITORY LEGISLATURE.

The Revised Statute of the United States Prevents it from Having Full Powers.

TACOMA, Jan. 13.—A sort of rump Legislature will meet at Olympia to-morrow, which is the day set apart by law for the regular assembling of the Territorial Legislature. But a few members only will be there. The last Legislature passed a law changing the time of meeting of the biennial sessions from the early part of December to the early part of January, thus having a Legislature fresh from its constituencies, but it happens that Section 1886, revised statutes of the United States, says: "No session of the Legislature of the Territories shall be held until the appropriation for its expenses shall have been made." Congress has made no appropriation and thus the meeting of the Legislature is especially inhibited, and when Congress does make the appropriation it will probably provide a time for the meeting. It is probable that the few members, who will assemble informally at Olympia to-morrow, will order telegrams to be sent to President Cleveland, the presiding officer of the Senate, the Speaker of the House, and to the Territorial delegate in Congress, apprising them of the condition of things and, as in the case of the appointment of Chief Justice Burke, securing prompt congressional action and get an appropriation for expenses and fix the date for a meeting, not later than the first Monday in February.

A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

An Ex-Sheriff Badly Treated by two Robbers in Union County, Ohio.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 12.—Ex-Sheriff Hobenstok, of Union county, Ohio, who lives near Mount Hickory, had a terrible experience with two robbers last night. Hearing a noise in his barn he went out to investigate, when two men set upon him, shooting him twice and inflicting seven wounds with knives. They threw the wounded man into a manger and set fire to the barn, which was destroyed after Hobenstok had been rescued by members of his family. The injured man will die. Suspicion rests on two colored men.

WANT TO SELL THE K. OF L.

Powderly Makes a Serious Charge Against One of the Originators of the New Order of K. of L.

BINGAMPTON, N. Y., Jan. 13.—General Master Workman Powderly, K. of L., addressed a meeting of the District order No. 142 in this city last evening. He made a long address on national topics pertaining to the Knights of Labor. Among other things he stated that one of the four alleged founders of the Knights of Labor in Philadelphia recently offered to sell out the new order to him for $100, and he said satisfactory proof that the same person had previously offered to sell the new order to John Wanamaker was obtainable.

THOMAS AXWORTHY.

He Will Take up a Permanent Residence in Toronto, Canada—He Feels His Position.

TORONTO, ONT., Jan. 13.—Thomas Axworthy, ex-city treasurer of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived here last night, and will take up his permanent residence here. Mrs. Axworthy will arrive Tuesday. Axworthy says he deplores having to face the world anew after thirty years of hard, honest labor. The only dishonest act of his life, he says, was committed through the force of circumstances over which he had no control.

A BANQUET TO RUSSELL HARRISON.

The Son of His Father Shows Himself to be a Practical, Level-Headed Business Man

HELENA, Jan. 13.—A banquet will be given to-morrow night to Russell Harrison, son of the President-elect, by the citizens of this city. Mr Harrison's interests are identified with the people of the Territory and he has expressed a determination to remain here and conduct his affairs during the period of his father's administration, rather than to parade the parlors and corridors of the White House. The banquet promises to be a notable social event.

An Albany Man Dies Suddenly.

ALBANY, Jan. 13.—J. B. Williams, proprietor of the Revere House sample rooms, died suddenly this evening of heart disease while walking from his place of business to his residence. His age is about 50. He leaves a wife and three grown up sons.

CONGRESS.

The Proceedings of Both Houses—Weaver Still Holds the Fort.

FRIDAY.

Upon the assembling of the House Weaver of Iowa at once moved that when the House adjourned it be to Monday.

After the count had proceeded half an hour without a quorum making its appearance Randall demanded the yeas and nays, and they were ordered.

The motion having been defeated—yeas 2, nays 228—Weaver, who had voted in the negative, moved reconsideration.

Randall made a point that it was not in order to move to reconsider a vote upon a motion to adjourn to a certain day. The point was sustained by the speaker.

Weaver moved to take a recess until 1:30, but was again blocked by Randall with a point that it was out of order. He held that the motion was in the nature of business, and therefore was not in order until the journal had been read. The Speaker decided the point well taken.

The journal was then read and Weaver again began his dilatory motions. These were finally interrupted by Dibble, who came forward with a conference report upon the Senate bill for the erection of a public building at Milwaukee, Wis., which, notwithstanding Weaver's protest, the speaker ruled of higher privilege than a motion to adjourn.

The report having been read and the previous question demanded by Dibble, weaver moved to adjourn.

The Speaker decided that as the rules gave a conference report precedence over a motion to adjourn, a subsequent motion to adjourn could not deprive it of precedence. This did not facilitate matters much, as at 3 o'clock the House had been unable to reach a vote on the conference report, owing to the tactics of Weaver. The Speaker seemed inclined to resort to arbitrary measures to suppress the gentleman from Iowa.

Weaver took advantage of a half hour's debate upon the Milwaukee bill to deliver a speech in favor of the Oklahoma bill, in behalf of which he has been making a filibustering fight for some days past.

Mason of Illinois, made a point of order that the gentleman was not speaking on the subject before the House, and the Speaker pro tem (McCready) sustained it. No quorum voting, on the ordering of the yeas and nays on the adoption of the conference report, Weaver again raised his point of order that a quorum was necessary.

The speaker overruled the point, and the conference report was agreed to, yeas 179, nays, 38.

Dibble then presented a conference report on the bill of the erection of a public building at Omaha, Neb. Weaver permitted the report to be agreed to, without forcing a yea and nay vote, but when Dibble rose with another conference report, he raised the question of its construction, and pending this moved to adjourn.

Dibble raised a point of order that the latter motion was not in order, but the point was overruled by the speaker, who held that pending the decision of the question of consideration, it was competent for the House to adjourn. He also held in order a subsequent motion that when the House adjourned to-day it be to meet on Monday.

The latter motion having been defeated Weaver withdrew his motion to adjourn, the evening session to be for the consideration of private pension bills.

Weaver of Iowa was not present when the House met this evening, but Kilgore of Texas was on hand to block legislation by raising a point of no quorum upon a motion to go into committee of the whole for the consideration of private pension bills. A call of the House continued until 8:30, when the House adjourned until morning.

The Senate met at 11, and spent a quarter of an hour getting a quorum.

The Senate then resumed consideration of the tariff bill, the pending question being the amendment offered yesterday by Plumb, to strike out of paragraph 657 the words, "except when frozen or packed in ice, or otherwise prepared by any process, for preservation," so as to let the paragraph read simply "fresh fish, free." Plumb spoke in support of his amendment, which was opposed by Hoar and supported by Reagan.

Hale moved to strike out the paragraph. That, he said, would leave all fresh fish under the duty fixed in another part of the bill, half a cent per pound, and then New England would fare no better in that respect than other parts of the country.

The discussion was continued at length by Blair, Spooner, Stockbridge, Palmer, Teller and others.

Allison and Evarts favored Hale's amendment.

Finally Plumb's amendment was withdrawn and Hale's amendment was agreed to: Yeas 28, nays 13, and fresh fish was placed on the dutiable list at half a cent per pound.

Without division, on motion of Allison, paragraphs 663—leather and old scraps—and 620—mica and mica waste—were stricken out of the free list.

Paragraph 627—mineral waters—was passed over informally; so was paragraph 633—molasses testing not over 56 degrees by the polariscope.

All the paragraphs relating to oils—644 to 677—were laid aside informally, so as to have the verbiage changed.

Having reached paragraph 790, as to cedar and other woods, unmanufactured, Aldrich moved to strike out of it the words "osier or willow," stating that the object was to put them on the dutiable list at 10 per cent, agreed to.

The end of the free list having been reached at paragraph 795, Allison said he supposed the Senate would finish the reading of the bill early to-morrow, including the administrative sections of it. He would propose, he said, to spend the remainder of the day on the omitted paragraphs in the free list, after which he would propose so take up the paragraphs as to guns, cutlery, and a few miscellaneous items of that character. Early next week he wished to proceed with the wool and woolens schedule, which have not yet been touched. Adjourned.

SATURDAY.

The journal of yesterday's proceedings was read without any obstacle being interposed by Weaver, of Iowa, who sat quietly at his desk while the clerk read the record, offering none of his dilatory motions. It was generally understood that the deadlock would be broken to-day, and Weaver's silence surprised nobody, while it satisfied everybody.

The journal having been read the Speaker presented various executive documents for reference, and appointed conferrees on the Nicaragua canal bill.

Springer, of Illinois, asked unanimous consent to have printed a substitute for the Territorial bill now pending, and stated that he would call it up Tuesday. Burrows objected.

Weaver stated that he would make no more dilatory motions until he heard from the committee on rules.

A bill on which the previous question was ordered last session, to increase the pension of Elizabeth G. Scott to $50 a month, was passed.

Dibble of South Carolina, submitted a conference report on the bill increasing the limit of cost for the purchase of a site for a public building at San Francisco. This conference report fixes the limit at $850,000 and was agreed to.

The military academy appropriation bill will was first taken up, and its reading was uninterrupted till Kilgore raised a point of order against the clause appropriating $400,000 for the erection of a new mead my building at West Point.

The chairman having overruled the point, Kilgore moved to strike out the clause, defeated.

A motion by Kilgore to strike out the clause appropriating the $100,000 for a new gymnasium building was also defeated.

The bill was then laid aside, and consideration of the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was proceeded with.

MacAdoo, of New Jersey, said he could not allow the bill to pass without emphasizing what he considered the popular demand for establishing United States ministers abroad. One of the great countries of Europe was unrepresented by a minister in this country. The British government had refrained from sending a minister to Washington for the purpose of resenting what it considered an insult. It was a most absurd thing, to his mind, that the United States should send ministers to royal courts. The system was also largely unsuited to the character of our country.

The committee rose and the two appropriation bills were passed.

The committee resumed its session for consideration of the fortification appropriation bill. The bill appropriates $800,000.

Townsend (Ill.) raised a point of order against all the items of the bill appropriating $100,000 for repair of fortifications that they were outside the jurisdiction of the committee on military affairs.

Pending a decision, the committee rose, and the House adjourned.

THE SCHOOL BOOKS.

Changes Made in Readers and Arithmetics—Full List of Text Books Selected.

State Superintendent McElroy has finished canvassing the votes of the several county superintendents upon the question of text books in the public schools of Oregon for the four years beginning October 1, 1889, and has issued a circular letter to inform teachers and all others interested as to the result.

The changes will be in readers and Arithmetics the National series of Readers and Fish's Arithmetics being adopted. There is to be a free exchange of all Readers, to continue in force long enough to permit all the schools in the State to be supplied. On Fish's Arithmetic the exchange price is to be fifteen cents for No. 1, and thirty cents for No 2. On Robinson's Algebra the exchange price is sixty cents, and on geometry and trigonometry ninety cents.

Following is a complete list of the text books adopted, among which are several new ones, involving no change of books. These are marked below with an asterisk*:

Marvel for a Country Paper

From the Benton Leader.

The New Year number of the EAST OREGONIAN is at hand. It is a great paper. A supplement gives quite a beautiful lithographs of principal buildings and residences of the city of Pendleton. The EAST OREGONIAN is a marvel for a country paper.

The results of the German census, taken on December 1st, '85, have been long known. But it is only in this month's number of the Statistical Record of the German Empire that the details are published. Total, 49,730,704.

Rubber can be moved by heating in a pan over a water bath, that is, the heat must be hot enough to melt, but not burn.
