TO-DAY'S TELEGRAMS.
PORTLAND POINTS.
All the News of the Metropolis, Furnished by our Portland Correspondent.

PORTLAND, Jan. 18.—Yesterday morning flames were seen pouring out of the chimney of John L. Sperry's residence in East Portland, like the blast from a foundry. The house was supposed to be on fire, and there was considerable excitement for a short time, until the fire subsided. No damage was done.
John Switzer, of Umatilla, yesterday began action against Ben Selling, assignee of E. Meyer, an insolvent debtor, to recover $113. Plaintiff alleges that he bought a lot of blankets from the defendant by sample, and when he received the blankets at his place of business they were a quality inferior to that of the sample, and he refused to accept them. He made a demand upon the assignee for the purchase price of the goods, which was refused, hence the suit.
Pendleton people who are inclined to furnish fire-water to swashes will do well to shun one West Scot, a native red-skin. He is given to absorbing all the whisky supplied to him, and then straightway informing against the giver. Two of his victims were brought down from Pendleton yesterday by Deputy U. S. Marshal, Clay Myers. Their names are William Shaw and August Rowland, and their cases will be disposed of to-morrow.

In the trial of Richard E. Janeway yesterday the defendant testified that he had gone to bed on the night of the robbery, and a short time after, his attention was attracted by a noise in the store, and he got up and came down on the platform before the store, where he saw a man and asked him what he was doing there. The man made no reply, but gave a whistle, when another man came up, and they both ran away across a field. He ran after them for some distance, calling up a neighbor as he passed the house, and when he had pursued the fugitives to a slough, he turned about and came home. This matter is not generally credited, as money found on Janeway's person was found to correspond with that which was in the stolen letter. An attempt was made to show that this money had been received from the Oregon Railway Company, but this probably will be decided to-day.
Later—The case was given to the jury at 3 o'clock this afternoon. No verdict agreed upon at 6 o'clock.

About five weeks ago a man named Lewis Young was reported to have been killed by falling between logs at his shingle mill on Lewis river. He had an accident policy for $5000. Shortly after his death it was reported that he had committed suicide by taking laudanum. These reports were repeated and circulated until the insurance agents heard of them. Mrs. Young has consented to have her husband's body exhumed in order that the question as to how he came to his death may be settled. Yesterday an insurance agent, a physician and an ambitious young medical student went to Vancouver, where the body was buried, and had it exhumed. The stomach and a portion of the brains were taken out, placed in jars and sealed up. These portions were then delivered to the surgeon at Vancouver. The services of an analytical chemist will be secured, who will subject the contents of the jars to a critical analysis. Altogether the case is considered a very strange one.

W. B. Chipman, on trial yesterday, charged with being an absconding debtor from Olympia, was discharged by Judge Shattuck, who decided that while his actions had been provoking and unbusiness-like, the fact that his purpose to abscond was not established. Miss Minnie Brown, the lady Chipman claims he came here to wed, was present during the trial yesterday, and seemed to manifest the greatest interest in behalf of her intended. Neither have been seen since the conclusion of the trial, and it is believed they have gone to Vancouver with intent to commit matrimony.

A passenger on the Northern Pacific train from Tacoma yesterday, states that as the transfer boat was crossing the river at Hunter's Point, one of the passengers approached the side of the boat, threw off his coat, climbed upon the railing, and before his intentions had been realized by the spectators, sprang into the river and disappeared from view. A boat was immediately lowered for the rescue. The man rose to the surface and shouted lustily for help, but before the boat could reach him he had gone down for the last time. All that could be learned of the man was that his name was Knight, and that he came from Omaha. The coat which he threw off contained no clue to his identity.

A man giving the name of both Frank Ryan and Frank Howe, was arrested last night on suspicion of being the man who did the shooting at Gervais last Tuesday night. Just as he was going through the door into a cell he drew from his pocket a wicked-looking knife and made two or three vicious stabs at his own throat. A gash about an inch and a half long was made on the left side of the throat, barely missing the jugular vein. A physician sewed up the wound and says it is not serious. The strange man says he did the shooting at Gervais, and that he was obliged to, as men were trying to kill him. After firing the shots, he said, he sprang from the train, seriously hurting his head and shoulder. His badly scarred face and his wincing at being touched, corroborated his statement. There is a statement as to whether he is telling the truth or is crazy.

S. O. Swackhamer, of Union, and M. L. O. instead, of Baker City, are registered at the St. Charles.
Senator J. P. Wager came down from Salem yesterday and went to Astoria to-day.
E. M. Carr, engineer in chief, Heppner branch O. R. & N. Co., stationed in Heppner, is at the Esmond.
D. W. Bailey, J. C. Leasure and J. A. Fee, of Pendleton, are at the Esmond.
W. R. Ellis and G. Chandler, of Heppner, are in the city.
Twenty-five emigrants from Warren, Kansas, arrived in the city yesterday, and are at the Quimby.
The weather is again pleasant to-day, and the sun is shining brightly. The army of Legislators in the city are undoubtedly making hay.
A sheet of legal cap paper upon which was written in blue pencil the following sad story of a blighted ambition, was picked up to-day in front of the Commercial National bank. It was crumpled up cruelly, and had the appearance of having been viciously flung into the street:
"There was a tall banker named Dave,
And his speakership his man did crave,
But he trod on Joe's toes,
And now doth repose
Down in a political grave."
Frank Howard, the notorious confidence man, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary this morning by Judge Stearns.
A drowned man was fished out of the river at the foot of A street this afternoon. It is understood that he was a runner for the New York hotel, named Fred Nelson. How he met his death has not yet been learned.
Wm. Morehead, charged with assault with intent to kill M. M. Barnett, editor of the Siftings, has been acquitted.

FOREIGN NEWS.
VINDICTIVE HAYTIANS.
An Attempt to Sink the American Steamer Haytian Republic.
PORT-AU-PRINCE, Jan. 3.—The steamship Haytian Republic was run into by the Haytian gunboat Navelle Volodroge, on the night of December 20, inflicting but slight damages to either vessels. The Haytian gunboat was entering the harbor at full speed, and could have steamed to her anchorage without any change of course, but when within 200 yards of the Haytian Republic the helm was suddenly put hard to port and she backed 200 yards, then again steamed at full speed until again within a short distance from the Haytian Republic, when her course was slightly changed and she just missed her. The gunboat was halted both times, but no answer was made, neither did her captain attempt to ascertain the amount of damage done, or offer assistance. After ascertaining the damage done, the Galena sent armed boats with a crew to the offending gunboat, where a statement was made that jamming of the tiller was the cause of the collision. The captain is a deliberate attempt to sink the released ship. The question is whether the scheme was originated from a higher authority than the captain of the gunboat.
AN INVESTIGATION DEMANDED.
The Galena's officers met the next day and a demand for an investigation was made upon the Haytian government. An indemnity of $100,000 has been agreed upon for the seizure of the Haytian Republic. She will return to New York about February 1st. Admiral Luce has notified the Haytian government that he considered the blockade of all northern ports voluntarily raised because of the desertion of their post by all Haytian blockading vessels. He wrote to Secretary Whitney in case of an illegal seizure of any other American vessel, he would "demand their release at the cannon's mouth." Legitimate complaints to arrest alleged co-conspirators. The organized conspiracy seems to exist only in individual dissatisfaction.
Hypolite remains encamped twenty-seven miles from Port-au-Prince awaiting the overthrow of Legitime by his own people and a peaceful surrender of the city by not using force. He wishes to win the approval of the Southern department in his candidacy for president. Admiral Luce has telegraphed for two more ships.

Four More Missionaries Murdered and Three Captured.
ZANZIBAR, Jan. 18.—During the attack on the German missionary station at Tugu, the insurgents massacred four missionaries, one of whom was a woman. BROMLEY RESIGNS.
The Union Pacific Abandons the Attempt to Settle with the Government.
BOSTON, Jan. 18.—J. H. Bromley will retire from the office of assistant to the president of the Union Pacific railroad on March 1. Bromley's duties have been chiefly in connection with the effort to procure a settlement of the questions existing between the company and the government, and it having been decided that no further effort in this direction will be made after the present Congress, the department in Bromley's charge will be discontinued. In accepting his resignation President Adams writes: "As you say, the work you came here to do is practically accomplished, so far as your part is concerned. However, we have not got a settlement with the government, nor are we likely to get one. But the tone of the press toward us has, largely through exertions, been greatly moderated, and our case is fairly understood. I have no hope of being able to attempt anything like a settlement in the short time left me. I have wasted four years in futile attempts at an honest settlement, and have no more years to give to the work."
PROTECTION WANTED.
The Orange Growers of the South Make an Appeal to Congress.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 18.—At a meeting of the board of trade yesterday the following resolutions were passed:
Resolved, That the interests of the orange growers of Florida demand protection against the competition of the foreign growers of the fruit.
Resolved, That our senators and representatives in Congress are requested to exert their efforts and influence to secure the passage of a law laying an import duty of $1 a box of two cubic feet capacity, or in that proportion, upon all oranges and lemons from all foreign countries.
This movement is being made general by boards of trade and other organizations throughout the State, irrespective of party.

SMALL-POX SCARE.
The Report That People Are Fleeing from Denver, Colorado, is Untrue.
DENVER, Col., Jan. 18.—The report published in the East that people are fleeing from this city because of small-pox epidemic, and that there are now from 500 to 600 cases, is false. From forty to fifty cases have been reported at the health office up to date, which is not greater than usual at this season of the year. The cases are very mild, and there have been only three deaths so far.
ANOTHER REPORT DENIED.
PUEBLO, Col., Jan. 18.—Sensational reports sent out to the East that this city is overrun with smallpox is positively untrue. Not a single case has been reported to the board of health up to this date.

THE INAUGURATION.

Civic orders of less than fifty in number will not be permitted in line, or with improper costume or equipment.
ANOTHER STRIKE.
New York Cigar Makers Strike Against a Reduction.
New York, Jan. 18.—All the cigar makers in forty Havana cigar manufacturing in this city struck to-day against a reduction of $2 per thousand, which the bosses made eighteen months ago. The strikers are mostly Cubans. The work is all hand made, and brings the best prices in the market. Three firms have already yielded. Over one thousand hands are out.

GOV. WEST TALKS.
He Thinks Favoring the Admission of Utah Would be Suicide for Either Party.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Governor West, of Utah, made an argument before the committee on Territories, to-day, against the admission of Utah. He declared that the Gentiles could not live there if admission was granted. Would the Democrats see the folly of such a course? Admission would kill the party favoring it in all the other territories.
General Swain's Case.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—General Swain, before the army retiring board this afternoon, requested that he be allowed to make a statement to the board alone and so the doors were closed and spectators excluded.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 18.—It is alleged that Henry F. Voight, arrested last night, misappropriated funds of the defunct Farmers and Mechanics bank to the amount of over $200,000. He was cashier for nineteen years. He resigned last spring to go into other business and the bank failed in September. His arrest was made on the strength of the report made by an expert accountant. The investigation is still incomplete. It is thought others are implicated.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.
The President Refuses to Give His Approval to a Claim—The Springer Omnibus Bill Passes.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—In the Senate the President's message, returning without approval the bill for the relief of William R. Wheaton and Charles H. Chamberlain, register and receiver of the land office at San Francisco, prior to 1877, to pay them the salaries of two clerks to the amount of $3800, was read and referred to the committee on public lands. The Senate then resumed the consideration of the tariff bill, the pending question being an amendment reported from the finance committee allowing a bounty of one cent a pound on sugar produced from beets, sorghum and sugar cane grown in the United States. Reagan opposed the amendment and expressed surprise that the bounty was not also extended to maple sugar.
HOUSE.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—In the House this morning the consideration of the territorial bills was resumed, the pending question being on McDonald's substitute for Springer's "omnibus bill," which itself is a substitute for the Senate Dakota bill. The House proceeded immediately to vote upon McDonald's substitute, which had never been read but which embodies the main features of the "omnibus bill," except that it provides for the immediate admission of South Dakota. The substitute was rejected. Yeas 117, nays 122. Springer in offering an amendment to the omnibus bill, looking to the resubmission of the act of the constitution of 1855, in case the territory is divided. Mr. Springer demanded the previous question pending amendments, and third reading of the bill. The Republicans demanded further time for it, but Springer was obstinate. He finally agreed, however, to allow one hour.
Randall declared that the territorial bill was taking up the time due the appropriation bills, and an edict, "Don't vote," went forth, leaving the House without a quorum.
Springer then withdrew the demand for the previous question, and the discussion was resumed.
After some political sparring between Springer and Warner, Struts, of Iowa, read a letter written by Springer to Gov. Ross, of New Mexico, asking him to secure memorials for the admission of New Mexico into the Union and forward them to Washington. He read this, he said, to contrast Mr. Springer's friendliness to New Mexico, whose legislature never petitioned for admission, with his un-friendliness to Dakota. Springer replied that the Republican legislature of New Mexico tendered a vote of thanks to Delegate Jones and himself for assistance to that territory.
Perkins, of Kansas, moved to amend Springer's amendment by providing for the Sioux Falls constitution was ratified by the people of South Dakota the President shall issue a proclamation declaring the State of South Dakota admitted to the Union. Agreed to.
Springer's amendment as amended was agreed to. A similar provision relative to the admission of Montana was embodied in the substitute upon motion of Toole, of Montana.
THE "OMNIBUS BILL" PASSED.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The House has agreed to Springer's "omnibus bill" as a substitute for the Senate bill for the admission of South Dakota. Yeas, 133; nays, 120.
The Dallas Times-Mountaineer: We understand that a syndicate of our citizens has purchased a tract of 3 land in the eastern portion of and will soon survey and plat it one of the additions to the city.
