Grain shipments from North Pacific coast ports, Portland and Puget Sound, for the period elapsing since July 1 1899, to March 1, 1900, have been 5,650,831 less than for the same period the previous season, the total of flour and wheat being expressed in wheat bushels. During February, from Portland there were shipped 731,308 bushels of wheat, and 105,011 barrels of flour; from Puget Sound 172,873 bushels of wheat, and 94,109 barrels of flour.

In the circuit court the complaint for a divorce was filed today in which William Goodnight prays for the dissolution of the marriage contract existing between him and Mary M. Goodnight. The parties were married in October, 1880, at Dadeville, Dade county, Missouri. They have three children, two of which live with the plaintiff and one with defendant. Peter West is the attorney for the plaintiff.

Some clues have been found to the identity of the persons who lighted the fire on the veranda of the Fell house the other night. Complaint has been made to the officers that two men were seen on several occasions about the other house at a late hour and in a suspicious manner, the same two being seen again at the Fell house by the watchman. They have been notified to leave town.

LETTER FROM THE PHILIPPINES.

Former Second Oregon Volunteer Writes to General Summers.

General Summers in Portland has received a letter from Jerry Klanck, formerly a private in the Second Oregon volunteers, and now of company M, Thirty-ninth United States volunteers. The letter is dated January 21, and says:

"Since our arrival here we have been busy, as our colonel is a fighter from away back. We have done considerable work along the Lake, some of which was hard, but nothing at all like it was when you were here with the Oregon boys. The 'niggers' are in bands of from 50 to 2000, and are playing h—l. Only yesterday, while 70 men were conducting a wagon train to San Pablo, they were attacked by a band of 200 or 300 Filipinos. Two men were killed and then boloed; two were mortally wounded, four seriously, and six are missing. Of the train the only thing the Filipinos did not get was a frisky mule, all the rest going with the 'niggers.' This is the second train they have got the last four days, within seven miles of this town.

"While the Ninth regulars were holding inspection at Tarlac last week the 'niggers' walked off with 33 Krags and a bullcart of ammunition. The cart was recovered the following day, but the guns are still at large. While it was safe to go 10 miles from camp, unarmed, when the Second Oregon was here, you cannot go half a mile now without arms. Then they were out to kill; today they are out to murder. In after years, when this and the after generation die off, they may become educated to our ideas, and then white people that care to can look for the gold supposed to be in these hills.

"I hope this war will end soon. I saw the beginning of it, and hope to see the end. Then I will ask for my discharge and be satisfied. I never was for going back to the states, for it looked like an unfinished job.

"A few words about the three Oregon men who are supposed to have been taken prisoners. I have made it my business as far as possible to inquire as to what became of them, but to no avail. Have you heard if they are dead?

"At Libba last week we were just two hours behind some Filipinos that had 10 American prisoners, but we had no cavalry, and but few horses, so they all got away. We got 350 Spanish soldiers, and $25,000. We were so close that they had to leave the money in the road, as it was too heavy to convey as fast as they had to travel.

"This is a healthy body of men, very few being on the sick report. Those who have died so far were lost in action. I never tire of telling about the Oregon boys, and, no matter how good these men do their work, they don't come up to the standard of the Second Oregon. Perhaps it is because the old love is the dearest and best. Jack Ford has been recommended for meritorious service at Rosario. He is the colonel's orderly and sergeant, and the colonel thinks the world of him. I met Jones, the regimental headquarters' cook. He is doing well. Stimpson has a half interest in Clarke's confectionary, at the end of the Escolta. In fact, every man here who was a member of the Oregon regiment is doing well. They have an organization of their own.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS.

Officers of the District Association Have Been Elected.

Officers of the American Sunday School Union for this district who will serve for the coming term are:

President, Elbert Redd; vice president, Mrs. Fred Nolf; Secretary Miss Mitylena Froker.

The district convention at the Thompson street M. E. church was regarded as very helpful to Sunday school workers here. E. P. Stevenson, of Iowa, has infused new life into the local workers.

Mr. Stevenson is the newly appointed Pacific coast district superintendent for the American Sunday School Union. A plan was formed to put a field worker in the county during three months of the summer to work in the country places organizing new schools and helping those already organized. It is necessary to raise $100 for this purpose. Nearly half that amount was pledged on Tuesday evening. Others interested in this work will have an opportunity later to give, until the required amount is raised. New interest is awakened and the Sunday schools are made better by the conventions. It is hoped that all the people will in time feel it their duty as well as privilege to attend.

ANGORA GOATS.

A Railroad Man Has Faith in Goat Culture in Oregon.

C. H. Markham, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific at Portland, is a firm believer in the goat industry in Oregon. He is convinced there is great value in the raising of goats for mohair. He said recently to a newspaper man:

"Though capable of profitably supporting 1,000,000 angoras, with plenty of spare room, Oregon now possesses only some 35,000 of these useful and interesting animals. Finding their subsistence in brush and small timber growth, and requiring a minimum of care and shelter, the angoras have proven to be most efficient and economical agents in clearing waste lands, and bringing into cultivation many fertile acres.

"The generous moisture, mild climate and responsive soil of Western Oregon peculiarly adapt it for the angora; nowhere is the 'browse' more plentiful, more nourishing, more lasting.

"It is estimated that there are 300,000 angoras in the United States. Oregon alone could well take care of four times that number, but raisers must give greater care to selection of stock, breeding, time of bearing, etc., in order to obtain the most valuable fleeces. Our abundance of green natural herbage throughout the whole year, and absence of severe weather, will produce heavy fleeces, but indiscriminate buying and haphazard breeding will greatly diminish its marketable value for mohair. Length, strength, fineness and luster are the properties of greatest value in mohair. Western Oregon has already excellent repute, better blood only is required to bring it to the top notch in the world's market."

SALES OF LIVESTOCK.

Roach Buys Stock Cattle in Baker County—Sheep Scarce Here.

Joseph Roach, of Minot, N. D., passed through Pendleton today to Arlington, accompanied by Mr. McKinnon, of the Great Northern railway. Mr. Roach has bought a band of stock cattle at Baker City, and will make purchases at other points, shipping the stock to be fattened on his North Dakota ranges for the Chicago market. He finds cattlemen very radical in their demands and apparently not anxious to sell.

Here in this county some sales of yearling sheep have been made at from $2.35 to $2.50 a head, delivered after shearing. Over in Morrow county quite a large number of sales of yearlings have been made, the sheep to be delivered after shearing.

A prominent livestock owner and handler said today that the supply of sheep in Umatilla county in proportion to the demand appears to be rather small this spring, smaller than usual.

WILLIAM CARNINE'S FUNERAL.

Portland Masons Showed Kind Attentions in Effecting Arrangements.

T. J. Tweedy, Robert Forster, John Vert, Wm. Slusher, W. H. Jones, Jesse Failing, Mrs. W. H. Carnine, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Young and George Young came home this morning from Portland. They went as an escort of the body of the late Wm. Carnine, which was buried in Portland on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hendley and Miss Dena Hendley remained in Portland for a brief visit.

Funeral services were conducted at the home of S. B. Carnine, a brother of the deceased, and at the grave the Masonic burial service was read by Judge Moreland.

Beautiful floral tributes were given by the Masonic fraternity of Portland, the Mystic Shriners and the order of Railway Conductors.

Portland Masons were most thoughtful in looking after all the details of the funeral, the beauties of true fraternity being finely illustrated by their solicitude and generous provision in the funeral arrangements.

WEDDING OF TWO PHYSICIANS.

Dr. Ferguson Married to Dr. Rinehart at The Dalles.

Dr. E. E. Ferguson, formerly of this city, was married at The Dalles last Saturday evening, to Mrs. Belle Rinehart. Rev. D. V. Poling, pastor of the Congregational church, performed the ceremony. Dr. Ferguson is a son of J. M. Ferguson of Pendleton, and was exceedingly popular here.

Mrs. Rinehart is a medical practitioner of The Dalles. The marriage will not interfere with the practice which each one has established at The Dalles. They will continue each to practice. Although they have formed a marriage partnership, they have also formed a partnership in the practice of medicine, and will pursue their professional vocations as before.

The American Flag.

The American flag now floats over a land of barbarity. If any one had prophesied this four years ago, he would have been laughed to scorn. Yet change is constantly taking place. Nature is merciless. So soon as she discovers an improvement, the old, whatever it may be, is doomed. The fact that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the famous cure for dyspepsia, has remained unchanged for half a century, proves its value. Try it for indigestion, biliousness, constipation or malaria, fever and ague, and be convinced. Your case is not incurable. You simply have not used the right remedy. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is what you need—the sooner the better. It is particularly valuable at this season of the year.
