

All kinds of Printing! The East Oregonian will do it for you.

Stationery Values. New line of invitation cards and envelopes, 19 and 25 cents.

Candy Department. Most for the money. Mint, Wintergreen, Lemon and Lime Drops.

Specials. All 45 and 50c Steel Buckles for ladies at 35 cents.

Bicycles. A few drummers' samples of leading wheels which we offer at a discount.

FREDERICK NOLF. Subscriptions taken for leading papers and magazines.

They're Here

Our Superb line of Ladies' Tailor-made Suits. Dress Skirts, Jackets, Petticoats, Silk Waists.

The most important gathering of the kind ever shown in Pendleton. Not a promiscuous medley of indifferent merchandise.

You will find them strictly first-class in workmanship—up to the very highest standard of fashion—and exceptional values.

They are on exhibition. Come and see them.

Alexander & Hexter

The Boston Store

New Spring Merchandise.

Percales and Gingham will be as popular as ever this year, and Organ-dies, Dimities, Linens and Cords are to be very much in favor.

Latest Arrivals.

Infants' and Children's Jackets. New Dress Materials. Ladies' and Ladies' Jackets. New Silks in blacks and fancies.

Until Further Notice. The balance of our Curtain pieces, about 125 pieces, in White and Ivory, 25c and 35c each.

Pendleton's Big Store.

Lumber

Shingles Posts

And All Other Kind of Building Material.

A big stock of hard woods on hand. All orders for mill work promptly executed.

Pendleton Planing Mill and Lumber Yard.

FORSTER - Prop.

Subscribers to Magazines.

If you want to subscribe for magazines or newspapers, in the United States or Europe, remit by post.

Pendleton-Ukiah Stage Line.

Huston & Carney, Prop's. Leave Pendleton every 7 o'clock.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of

Wm. D. Fitcher. In Use For Over 30 Years.

Hotel St. George. GEO. DARVEAU, Prop.

Elegantly Furnished. Steam Heated. Room Rate - 50c, 75c, $1.00.

THE EAST OREGONIAN.

GENERAL NEWS.

Three Frenchmen have arrived in New York and will attempt to go to the Klondike by automobile from Skagway.

Captain Joseph W. Geiray, U. S. A., retired, is dead at Boston, aged 63.

The interment of ex-Senator Goebel's remains occurred at Frankfort, Ky., Monday.

The Portuguese authorities at Lourenco Marques, at the request of Great Britain, have arrested four Germans.

The people of Porto Rico will have to be fed for many months to come.

Waltie, playing with a revolver, Richard Esig, Chicago, seven years old, shot his mother in the abdomen.

Another refinery has been closed at Brooklyn, N. Y., by the Sugar Trust.

Chief Wilke, of the Secret Service, is informed of the arrest at Philadelphia of E. E. Grinnell.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS.

A fair is being held this week in Portland by the Congregation Ahavia Sholom, a Jewish society.

E. A. Udell has been appointed receiver of the Mutual Investment company at Tacoma.

Eugene Germond, one of the most widely known pioneers in Spokane, shot himself with suicidal intent this morning.

News has reached Astoria from Tillamook of the loss of the schooner Lilia and Mattie, which was wrecked at the mouth of Tillamook bay.

Frank Savage was drowned near Astoria while rafting logs on Saturday.

I. N. Smith, sr., of Oakville, Marion county, died at the age of 90 years.

Mrs. Richard Brayne died Sunday at her home on Young's river, near Astoria.

Two prisoners, giving their names as Joe Casoy and Frank Leonard respectively, were in the jail at Tekoa.

Morley T. Bryers, private secretary to President C. S. Mellen, died Sunday night at his home in Newport flats.

Cyrus Stewart died at his home in South Salem Sunday of the grip.

The Ogden, Focattello, Rio Grande and Oregon Short Line branch held a meeting at Salt Lake and perfected an organization for 1900.

The total number of contagious diseases reported at the health office in Portland during February was 51.

Diphtheria led the list with 26 cases to its credit, while scarlet fever came next, with 17 cases.

It is learned that the papers promised by Mr. Balfour will be presented tomorrow and will confirm in every respect the views called by the Associated Press.

Washington, March 13.—The house, after passing a number of minor bills today, proceeded to the consideration of the conference report on the financial bill.

Washington, March 13.—In the senate, Allen, rising to a question of privilege, said he had been misrepresented by the newspaper correspondent.

Mr. Allen of Nebraska offered the following resolution which was passed: "That the president be requested, if not incompatible with the public interest, to inform the senate whether or not any communication has been received by this government from its consular representative at Pretoria.

Washington, March 13.—The republican senators have decided to hold a caucus for the settlement of differences upon the Puerto Rican question.

SIEGE OF BLOOMFONTEIN

French Occupies Two Hills Commanding the City.

LORD ROBERTS RAPIDLY ADVANCING

Indications that the Boers Will Make Strenuous Resistance—Roberts is Only Eighteen Miles Away.

London, March 13.—Lord Roberts is making a very rapid advance and he is again misleading the Boers by continuing to advance southward instead of through the flat country due east of Avogool country.

Except in the case of Germany, republics and the powers to whom appeals for intervention are not yet known publicly here, but it is quite certain that Austria-Hungary and Italy will decline to interfere.

London, March 13.—The war office has received a dispatch from Roberts announcing that after a fight with the Boers French occupied two hills close to the station commanding Bloemfontein.

London, March 13.—Lord Roberts' actual entry into the Orange Free State capital seems likely to be delayed until tomorrow.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

PLATT A. PRESTON DEAD.

Dies Suddenly on Sunday in Galveston, Texas.

Wallis Walla, March 13.—The Union of this morning says: A telegram was received at Wallisburg Sunday announcing the death in Galveston, Texas, of Hon. Platt A. Preston, which occurred that date.

Hon. Platt A. Preston was born in Saratoga, New York, Nov. 1, 1837.

London, March 13.—The United States government, at the request of Presidents Kruger and Steyne, has offered to the British government its services as mediator.

London, March 13.—The United States charge d'affaires, Henry White, saw Lord Salisbury this evening and received a formal reply from the British government declining the good offices of the United States in regard to peace.

Durban, March 13.—The Transvaal having appealed to Germany for mediation or intervention in the war with Great Britain, Germany has replied that she declines to interfere.

Berlin, March 13.—It is semi-officially announced that when the Orange Free State and the Transvaal addressed to a number of larger and smaller states a request for friendly mediation, the German government replied that it would willingly participate on condition of a certainty that both belligerents desired it.

Paris, March 13.—In regard to France's attitude in the matter of intervention in the Anglo-Transvaal war, an official said: "France certainly will not take the initiative in offering England mediation."

London, March 13.—In the house of lords to day Lord Salisbury read the British government's reply to President Steyne and Kruger.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

BOERS MUST GO IT ALONE

The United States is Alone in Offering Mediation.

AND SALISBURY DECLINED EVEN THAT

France Will Not Take the Initiative, and Germany Refuses to Meddle in the Affairs of Other Nations.

London, March 13.—The United States government, at the request of Presidents Kruger and Steyne, has offered to the British government its services as mediator.

London, March 13.—The United States charge d'affaires, Henry White, saw Lord Salisbury this evening and received a formal reply from the British government declining the good offices of the United States in regard to peace.

Durban, March 13.—The Transvaal having appealed to Germany for mediation or intervention in the war with Great Britain, Germany has replied that she declines to interfere.

Berlin, March 13.—It is semi-officially announced that when the Orange Free State and the Transvaal addressed to a number of larger and smaller states a request for friendly mediation, the German government replied that it would willingly participate on condition of a certainty that both belligerents desired it.

Paris, March 13.—In regard to France's attitude in the matter of intervention in the Anglo-Transvaal war, an official said: "France certainly will not take the initiative in offering England mediation."

London, March 13.—In the house of lords to day Lord Salisbury read the British government's reply to President Steyne and Kruger.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.

London, March 13.—The situation here shows radical improvement from that of 24 hours ago.