The increase in the circulation of currency is going on under the new finance act. Banks all over the country are depositing bonds and applying for currency. In Chicago alone eight banks are preparing to take out new circulation aggregating $5,500,000. The bill provides that the issue of any bank shall not exceed its capital stock actually paid in, and the present stock capitalization is about $600,000,000, against which aggregate, however, we have $240,000,000 in bank circulation outstanding. There are fears in some quarters of inflation of the currency volume under the new law.

In England, as with us, the burden of war is being met by indirect taxes upon all the people, falling upon them out of proportion to their wealth or ability to pay. In short, wealth is carrying no portion of the burden, while receiving most of the benefits of the war. Through bond issues, manipulating government finances and contracts wealth has made a pretty penny from our war, and in addition power and position has been showered upon its possessors, who could reach the throne on which sits William the Wobbler, with Mark Hanna as doorkeeper. Under government of today there is a tendency to overlook the interests of the people in an effort to confer privileges upon those who are in the swim.

The name of ex-Judge James A. Fee is mentioned in connection with the district attorneyship, and it is said that he will most likely receive the nomination from the republicans for the office. James A. Fee is worthy of it. As a lawyer and a man he is above suspicion. He filled for a number of years the important trust of judge, and he did it with ability and fidelity. Judge Fee is a man who does not lack conviction, and he has force on account of it. The democrats will find it difficult to nominate a man who could cause Judge Fee any uneasiness in the race. If the republicans nominate Judge Fee it will force the democrats to also nominate a fit man and this would insure to the people a thoroughly good administration of this important office no matter who was elected.

W. J. Bryan will visit Oregon and Washington next week and it is now announced that President McKinley will come on a tour next summer. And why not? It adds to the stature of both public men and the people to come together and grow acquainted with one another. The man who stays at home the closest is most narrowed by it and his vision after a while takes in so little that he grows strong in the belief that he knows more than he does and that he is greater and better than he is. The more we widen our sphere and environment the more we really know and the less we imagine we do, and the more we respect the rights and opinions of other men. Many of the higher virtues are nourished by broader acquaintance with our fellows, while many of the vices of which flesh is heir to are driven out by the spirit which springs from wider association and greater knowledge.

The democrats in congress and throughout the county are encouraged by the political outlook. There appears to be a silver lining to their cloud, even if it is not 16 to 1, after all. The republicans have proven their friends, by having so much rope in which to hang themselves. "Billy" Bryan has become as good a man as "Bill" McKinley to many, and even the ultra gold democrats have swallowed their prejudice and shown an inclination to return to the fold. There is such a good outlook to democratic prospects that matters political are nearly "even up," and the interest in the coming battle for the presidency is increased thereby. The policy of imperialism has driven away more from the republican rank and file than it has attracted. The democracy can win this fall. To do this there must not be any indecision and lack of vigor in the conduct of the campaign. The platform must be a declaration of principles that those even who run may read. In this event thousands will join the democratic ranks. The gold democrats, or most of them, will return. The anti-imperialist republicans will find a haven of political rest. The opponents of trusts will come. The advocates of public ownership will be attracted. The lovers of pure, economical, honest government may be rallied to the support of the democratic cause, from being influenced to believe there is room for confidence once more. For this the times make appeal. With it there can be victory! Genuine victory!

TIMELY COMMENT.

Louis Post's "Public" contains weekly some mighty interesting reading. The following is taken from its columns:

If the Chicago Inter Ocean of the 7th correctly quotes Gov. Nunez, of Havana, that gentleman exemplifies a capacity for self-government by the Cubans which some "superior peoples" might worthily envy. He had called together the different mayors of the province of Havana to discuss the subject of municipal government, and in urging a policy of local self-support he proposed an eminently sensible local revenue system. "It would be a good idea," he said, "to establish a land tax on the basis of the value of the land instead of upon the income therefrom as now." Gov. Nunez evidently realizes that land speculation is something to be got rid of; and he has hit upon the best possible method of accomplishing that result.

The gold standard feature of the financial bill, which congress has passed and the president has promptly signed, was a foregone conclusion. It was part of the bargain to which Mr. Hanna secretly pledged the McKinley party when he went down into Wall street in 1896 for campaign funds. The same thing is true of the feature involving the abolition of the greenback. But no one had supposed that provisions for creating a perpetual public debt were to be thrown into the bargain. Such provisions are in the bill, however. An immense sum is to be expended in paying premiums on unmatured bonds so as to cancel them and issue in their place 2 per cent long time bonds. To reduce interest on government bonds from 5, 4 and 3 per cent to 2, appears on the surface to be a profitable transaction. But when the short time the outstanding bonds have to run and the high premiums they bear are considered, along with the fact that United States bonds at 3 per cent command a premium, the transaction does not present so profitable an aspect. Even if it were highly profitable, the profit would be dearly won at the expense of the abandonment of our policy of debt reduction in favor of a policy of debt perpetuation.

Ex-Gov. Altgeld, of Illinois, and Mayor Jones, of Toledo, are to speak at a massmeeting in Masonic hall, St. Louis, on the 17th. The other speakers are to be Lee Merriwether (who made a strong run for mayor of St. Louis, two years ago, on a municipal ownership democratic platform), and W. H. Brandenburger, also of St. Louis. A curious feature of the meeting is the bitter opposition it has evoked from a large democratic club called the "Jeffersonian." This club has expelled Brandenburger, a director and the treasurer, because he became prominent in the movement to bring Altgeld and Jones to St. Louis and has declared himself in favor of city ownership of public utilities. Brandenburger would seem to be altogether too good a democrat for his "Jeffersonian" surroundings. The fact is that the Jeffersonian club of St. Louis is bossed by democratic politicians who are bossed in turn by street railway and other franchise-owning corporations. But the bosses are not discreet. This overzeal in attempting to punish a democrat so publicly for his superior democracy, is certain to react against the local monopolies.

Sheldon's experiment in editing the Topeka Capital as Jesus would have done it, is not a very fair one. His success—and financially that is assured—will be attributed to the sensation of a week. Yet, had he failed, the failure would have been attributed to the inherent weakness of his idea. As to success in other respects, that depends. To those who see Jesus as Mr. Sheldon sees him, the experiment will be successful in the highest sense. But others, both those who know no Jesus and those who fail to see him as Sheldon does, will scoff. It should be borne in mind by all sides, though, that Mr. Sheldon is not trying to make the kind of paper that somebody else thinks Jesus would have made, but the kind that Mr. Sheldon thinks he would have made. And in this, Mr. Sheldon is right. One of his first editorials declares that the main purpose of the paper is "to influence its readers to seek first the kingdom of God," his belief being that "an action seeking the kingdom of God first of all will in time find right answers to all disputed questions." If by kingdom of God Mr. Sheldon means eternal right as distinguished from temporary expediency, we regard his belief as well founded. The nation that is guided by the simple and obvious principles of moral right will learn to solve all problems in the most expedient way. But the nation that puts expediency before right, will wander in the wilderness all its days It is a grievous fact that so many public leaders and teachers are so devoid of faith in eternal right, that they are turning the nation away from its noblest ideals in an insane search for expedients. Mr. Sheldon himself is not wholly free from this disposition. The minister of an omniscient, omnipotent and beneficent God, who has made man free to choose between good and evil, should think twice before proposing to coerce their choice by law. Mr. Sheldon does this when he puts prohibition—not temperance, nor abstention, but prohibition—at the forefront of social reform.

H. L. Bliss, the statistician, makes an interesting showing as to the financial condition of American agriculturists. It is in answer to Carroll D. Wright's oft-quoted contention that the American workingmen are growing richer. Mr. Bliss declares that although Wright pretends to draw his conclusion from wages statistics of seventeen of the most important branches of industry, these statistics do not contain a single wages quotation from our greatest industry—agriculture. Turning then himself to the statistics of farm wages, furnished by a statistician of the department of agriculture, he concludes that male laborers in agriculture do not average much if any more wages than $200 a year, which is a decrease instead of an increase. According to the statistics cited by Mr. Bliss farm wages fell from an average of $10.87 per month in 1875 to 18.60 in 1892. Nor do farmers appear to have fared much if any better than farm hands. Only 10 per cent of the increase in property values from 1880 to 1890 affected agricultural property. Even this, according to Mr. Bliss, did not all go to farmers: for 30 per cent of our farmers are tenants. An increase in farm values is to them, therefore, a burden in the form of higher rents, rather than a benefit in the form of larger incomes. This statistical reply to Carroll D. Wright's prosperity figures, which is now passing through the country press, is a valuable contribution to an important subject. Common observation indicates that the working classes are growing poorer relatively to the leisure classes; and Mr. Bliss gives statistical confirmation of that view of the matter.

According to some reports Queen Victoria will not go to Italy this spring because she is afraid of anarchists; according to others she is to stay at home as a matter of policy. But the chances are that she will act much as any other old lady of her age would under the circumstances and do what she feels like doing just because she feels like it.

HEART-SICK.

There are a great many people who have heart sickness, who have no chronic derangement of the heart. When the stomach is diseased it may affect many other organs, and produce all the evidences of diseased heart, diseased liver or kidneys, or disease in some other organ.

The inexperienced practitioner treats the wrong disease, and hence the constant statement of Dr. Pierce's correspondents: "Doctors could not help me."

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It increases the assimilative powers, and purifies and enriches the blood. When diseases of organs remote from the stomach are caused by the stomach, the cure of the stomach results in the cure of the other diseases, in heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, etc.

"Six years ago my stomach and heart troubled me so much I had to do something, as the doctors could not help me," writes Mrs. S. A. Knapp, of San Jose, California, Box 392. "I went to San Francisco and had treatment for catarrh of the stomach, and was better for some time, then it came back. I then used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets. These medicines cured my stomach. I do not have the pain and indigestion as I did. It is very hard for me to tell you what I suffered before I commenced taking your valuable medicine. I recommend it to all the sufferers whom I meet."

To cure constipation use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Mother's Story of Baby's Cure

Of a Most Distressing Humor by the Cuticura Remedies.

When our baby was a week old, eczema appeared on the top of her head and spread all over her scalp, face, and forehead, forming one mass of sores. You can realize how much she must have suffered, when she scratched at times till the blood ran intermingled with water. Our family doctor's treatment proved ineffectual, as the disorder, instead of abating, developed more. We then stopped all medical treatment, and commenced with CUTICURA REMEDIES. We used the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, CUTICURA Ointment, and CUTICURA SOAP, all traces of the eczema disappeared, the skin and scalp were left perfectly clear and smooth, and she was entirely cured.
MRS. E. BUTLER,

My oldest boy, age nine years, was troubled with sores on different parts of the body, especially on the leg, about twenty-four in all. They were about the size of a five-cent piece, and would fester very much and eject a pus. They were very painful. After my above experience with the cure of my little girl with CUTICURA REMEDIES, I did not bother with the doctor in this case, but gave him the CUTICURA treatment which completely cured him in four weeks. The New York World, Thrice-a-Week Edition

ALMOST A DAILY—AT THE PRICE OF A WEEKLY.

The most widely circulated "weekly" newspaper in America is the Thrice-a-Week edition of The New York World, and with the presidential campaign now at hand you cannot do without it. Here are some of the reasons why it is easily the leader in dollar a year journalism.

It is issued every other day, and is to all purposes a daily.

Every week each subscriber receives 18 pages and often during the "busy" season 24 pages each week.

The price is only $1 per year.

It is virtually a daily at the price of a weekly.

Its news covers every known part of the world. No weekly newspaper could stand alone and furnish such service.

The Thrice-a-Week World has at its disposal all of the resources of the greatest newspaper in existence—the wonder of modern journalism—"America's Greatest Newspaper," as it has been justly termed—The New York World.

Its political news is absolutely impartial. This fact will be of especial value in the presidential campaign coming on.

The best of current fiction is found in its columns.

These are only some of the reasons; there are others. Read it and see them all.

We offer this unequaled newspaper and the weekly East Oregonian together one year for $2. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

The Tri-Weekly World and the Semi-Weekly East Oregonian one year for $2.50.
