an hour of peril the government can take the son from the mother, the husband from the wife and the father from the child. It can stand them up before the enemy's guns, but in the hour of danger it can not lay its hand upon accumulated wealth and make that wealth bear its share of the expense of government.

The Dallas Chronicle: The Chronicle is affected to tears through watching the Oregonian's tender caresses of Joseph Simon. In the light of a well-earned hatred, what can it mean? Isn't there a proverb about Herod and Pontius Pilate clinking glasses to each other when they had made up their minds to crucify somebody? It is the Oregonian betraying Mr. Simon with a kiss that it may null the little senator to the votes later on?

New York World: Mark Hanna, according to the World's Washington correspondent, has awakened to the importance of the Trust issue in the coming election. He has decided to allow the republican spoils-chasers and platform-makers to say "the trusts must go"—that is, the bad trusts; a bad trust being one which thinks it has outgrown the necessity of contributing to Uncle Mark's campaign chest.

New York Journal: The party that has passed a "financial bill" that will permit an enormous inflation of a purely paper currency is the party that decided Col. Bryan and every silver advocate in the United States in 1896 as being "inflationists" in favor of a "depreciated currency" and that, too, because these men believed in the "non-inflationist" of a metal which today sells in the markets of the world, in great quantities, at more than 100 cents on the dollar. How mightily has the republican party overthrown the brain of the wildest financier of the world that the republican party is not willing to father.

One Man Saved

From a wreck will attract the world's attention to the life-saver. Yet let the life-saver be continued every day, and very soon it attracts no public attention. If the scene of the saving of one life by that life-saving remedy, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, could be made to stand out alone, like a picture on a screen, it would attract the notice of the whole nation. By a curious contradiction the very frequency with which the "Discovery" saves life, robs the fact of general interest. For obstinate coughs, bronchitis, weak lungs, and other diseases of the respiratory organs, "Golden Medical Discovery" is the one medicine which has been proved to offer certain help, and almost certain cure. It contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

"Only Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I think I would use in my grave today," writes Mr. Moses Mims of Hillsdale, Tenn. "I was so ill that I had to quit work and was compelled to give up work. I affected my lungs so that I could not sleep at night. My friends all thought I had contracted tuberculosis. I have taken bottles and am now a well man, wishing to express thanks to Dr. Pierce."

ORANGE JUDD FARMER
Western Edition American Agriculturalist.

By special arrangement with the publishers we are enabled to offer THE ORANGE JUDD FARMER, the leading agricultural weekly of the Western and Mississippi Valley States, in club with this paper, at an exceedingly low figure.

ITS FARM FEATURES, such as Live Stock, Horticulture, Poultry, Market Gardening, and other topics, written by practical and successful farmers, supplemented with illustrations of their articles, combine to make it invaluable to those who "farm it for a living." The latest Markets and Commercial Agriculture are features in which the O. J. FARMER is unequalled.

THE FAMILY FEATURES: Short Stories, Fashions, Fancy Work, The Good Cook, Young Folks' Page, Puzzles, etc., and the Department of Last Month's News and Interest are those of the Special Family Paper.
