COMMUNICATION FROM MR. HINKLE.

He Writes Concerning the Charges Made by D. B. Watson.

Pendleton, Ore., April 10.—To the Editor—I have to say concerning the charges made against me in the democratic county convention by D. B. Watson, as reported in the Daily East Oregonian of Monday, that I had first thought to ignore the matter as coming from an unreliable source, and in no wise endorsed by the democratic party.

But, in justice to my friends, I am impelled now to say that those charges were vile, malicious and absolutely false in every particular, emanating from a diseased mind and impure motives.

As secretary of the peoples party central committee or otherwise, I was never offered anything for my "political influence" by any person or party, and I certainly never offered that influence myself for sale at any price.

About the same hour, this fire-eating democratic orator was heaping his vile abuse upon me in the democratic convention, I was making the effort of my life in the populist convention for the harmonious union of the two parties, as must be attested by every populist delegate who afterwards went into the democratic convention.

I am unable to repeat the language of Watson as otherwise than侮辱fully and insulting, and predict that his persistence in disseminating such calumnies will react unfavorably upon the democratic county ticket, the success of which he is presumed to desire.

"Deliver us from our friends" is now the watchword of the county democracy while this man Watson remains at large.

J. T. HINKLE.

Mr. Watson's Rejoinder.

The letter of Mr. Hinkle, appearing above, was shown to Mr. Watson. The latter replied:

"All I have to say in reply to Mr. Hinkle's denial of the charges I made in the democratic county convention on Saturday last, is this:

"I reiterate the charges entire, just as I made them, having nothing whatever to retract. The charges have been made publicly by me. They need no repetition here. Now, if they are not true, let Mr. Hinkle bring suit for libel, as he grounds for a libel suit if I said anything that was untrue, I await Mr. Hinkle's action in the premises."

"Housework is hard work without Gold Dust"
TO WASH BRUSHES AND COMBS

To wash hair brushes and combs, dissolve a tablespoonful of

in boiling water; when it is nearly cold, dab the bristles up and down without allowing the bristles to become wet; when the bristles are clean, dip them in plain cold water and dry them either by the fire or in the open air. Soap turns the ivory back comb or brushes yellow but Gold Dust does not injure them.

The Gold Dust is taken from our fine brushes.

Send away for our free booklet "Gold Dust for Housework".

These pointed remarks were made by Wirt Minor's caddy Saturday when that gentleman emerged from the Wockey Coal Club house, having in his arms the J. Wesley Ladd silver cup, having distanced all competitors in the golf contest that has been on since last October. The unlucky number of 13 competed in the finals yesterday for the Ladd trophy. Fourteen were eligible, but Mr. Lewis was unable to be on the links, and his place was filled by Jonathan Bourne, who was not a competitor for the cup. No records were broken, and an unbiased spectator would be pardoned for the belief that most of the golfers were yearning for the hokey prize.

After the contest was decided, Wesley Ladd, who donated the handsome silver cup, presented it to Mr. Minor in a neat and appropriate speech wishing him and his family long life and prosperity, in the Rip Van Winkle formula.

"There ain't no family," quoth Mr. Minor.

"There should be posterity, that may cherish this trophy," was suggested.

"Then take back the cup!" yelled Mr. Minor.

Miller, shows the following items exhibiting the condition of the property: A total of $125,73 was filed in claims by various persons to whom the estate was indebted; a total of $15,674.15 in cash has been received by the executrix, including the amount on hand when she took charge of the estate; she has disbursed a total of $204,23.

In the final report, the court is asked to appoint the final hearing for Monday, May 14. No order has been made by Judge Bean, but the date is fixed for him to be named by him, L. B. Reeder is attorney for the executrix.

James Lehman is in town from Lehman springs. He came out via Midway springs and the Ridge road, that route being now in good shape for travel. The Yellow Jacket or "Bear Wallow" road is not yet open, snow lying on it to a depth of from one to two feet. At Lehman springs the snow has melted and the grass has come up so that already good feed is furnished for horses.

Will McKinney, who came up from Portland a few days ago, has been to the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. E. Patterson. He leaves soon for Burns, Harney County, accompanying home his mother, who has been here for some time. Mr. McKinney will engage in the sawmill business again with his father, with whom he is now a partner. They are now preparing to start their sawmill for the summer's run.

H. W. B. Smith, of Seattle, who for several years has traveled for a Seattle wholesale house, spent Monday in Pendleton, where he planned to locate, giving up the road to Sumpter, where he planned to locate, giving up the road. Mr. Smith is one of the fortunate men who made rich strikes in the mines. He has now an interest in a property which is bonded for $65,000 and has also other interests worth considerable money.
