Washington, April 24.—The state department has received through Mr. Griggs, United States charge at Constantinople, the reply of the Turkish government to the latest representations of the United States touching American missionary claims. The opinion prevails in diplomatic circles here that assuming the Turkish government has insisted on including the American claims withdrawn it has played a diplomatic card of strength. The state department, however, is determined not to abandon the preferential position respecting its claims that it has secured through the sultan's own promises so it is anticipated that an energetic response to this last note will be sent to the port.

Washington, April 24.—In support of Quay's right to a seat, speeches were delivered by Chandler, republican, of New Hampshire; Kenney, democrat, of Delaware, and Penrose, republican, of Pennsylvania. Platt, republican of Connecticut, and Quarles, republican of Wisconsin, delivered speeches in opposition to Quay.

Platt, republican, of Connecticut, said: "I am sorry that any senator should make a charge against 16 senators that they voted against a senator because of personal reasons and not on constitutional grounds. That charge is one which reflects greater dishonor upon the senate than any that ever has been made. I do not believe it. No committee of the senate could say, it seems to me, that the votes of 16 senators were cast against Corbett because he was a supporter of the gold standard."

Platt maintained there was practically no difference between the Quay case and the Corbett case and the decision in Corbett case ought to be regarded as sacred as was judgment of the constitutional court.

The Lie Was Passed. Washington, April 24.—An exciting encounter occurred at the Cour d'Alene investigation this afternoon. Bartlett Sinclair, who was on the stand, gave the lie to Attorney Robertson. Robertson sprang for Sinclair's slinging a low at his face. Several congressmen intervened and prevented Robertson and Sinclair from coming together.

QUAY LOSES BY ONE VOTE

Pennsylvania Man Not Entitled to a Seat in the Senate.

OREGON SENATORS WITH MAJORITY

Roll Call Showed that Senators Upon Whom Quay Relied Were Against Him.

Other Washington News.

Washington, April 24.—In the senate today the bill authorizing the secretary of war to make regulations governing the running of loose logs, steamboats and rafts on certain rivers passed.

Consideration of the Quay case was then resumed. Mr. Chandler delivered a constitutional argument in opposition to seating Quay. He was regarded as an advocate of Quay's claim, but announced that he had changed his opinion.

The vote on the case was taken promptly at 4 o'clock. The resolution which declared Quay "not" entitled to a seat was first laid before the senate. Chandler moved to strike out the word "not," and on that a vote was taken. Quay lost, the vote being 33 to 32.

The vote on Chandler's motion follows:—Allison, Baker, Carter, Chandler, Clark of Wyoming, Colburn, Daniel, Davis, Deboer, Foraker, Frye, Gear, Hansborough, Jones of Nevada, McComas, MacLarin, Mason, Morgan, Nelson, Penrose, Perkins, Platt of New York, Scott, Sewell, Shoup, Spooner, Stewart, Sullivan, Taffertree, Warren, Wetmore, Wolcott—32.

Nays—Allen, Bacon, Bard, Bate, Berry, Burrows, Butler, Clay, Cockrell, Culbertson, Hale, Harris, Heitfeldt, Hawley, Jones of Arkansas, Lindsey, McBridge, McComber, McEnaney, McMillan, Martin, Cheney, Platt of Connecticut, Proctor, Quarles, Ross, Simon, Teller, Titman, Turley, Turner, Vest, Wellington—33.

Pairs as follows, the first named being favorable to Quay—Pritchard with Gallinger; Depew with Hanna; Foster with Keam; Lodge with Thurston; Kenney with Caffery; Elkins with Chilton; Fairbanks with Maloney; Hoar with Pettus; Kyle with Rawlins.

The following were unpaired: Aldrichs, Beveridge, Clark of Montana, Pettigrew.

A vote then was taken on the resolution declaring Quay not entitled to a seat, and was carried, 33 to 32. The roll call was the same as the previous call.

Senator Resolution Passed. Washington, April 24.—Cooper asked unanimous consent for consideration of the Foraker resolution to provide for continuation in office of the present military administration in Puerto Rico pending the appointment of civil officers. The resolution passed.

Welland Canal Matter. Washington, April 24.—The result of the inquiry, so far as it has gone, into the attempt to wreck the Welland canal locks by the use of dynamite, was laid before the state department today by special telegraphic report from a British agent.

Washington, April 24.—The state department has received through Mr. Griggs, United States charge at Constantinople, the reply of the Turkish government to the latest representations of the United States touching American missionary claims. The opinion prevails in diplomatic circles here that assuming the Turkish government has insisted on including the American claims withdrawn it has played a diplomatic card of strength. The state department, however, is determined not to abandon the preferential position respecting its claims that it has secured through the sultan's own promises so it is anticipated that an energetic response to this last note will be sent to the port.

THE ANTI-TRUST LAW.

There's a Demand from Certain Quarters that It Be Repealed.

Washington, April 20.—"Repeal the Sherman anti-trust law" is the familiar cry heard once more since the defeat of the Cullom interstate commerce bill appears certain. Chairman Knapp of the interstate commerce committee joins in the clamor and the railroad lobby, which is credited with having held up the interstate commerce bill, is also renewing the agitation to remove the Sherman act from the statute books.

Chairman Knapp frankly states that there is nothing else to do but to remove this ban upon interstate commerce, in view of the inability to obtain suitable legislation from congress which will give the commission power to destroy vicious discrimination and regulate interstate commerce.

"The Sherman anti-trust law is justly obnoxious to railroads and I favor its repeal in order to make it possible for railroads to make at least equal terminal rates," said Chairman Knapp when acquainted with the status of the interstate commerce bill before congress. "It is a long story, but in a few words, the anti-trust law prevents the railroads from making any kind of mutual agreement to maintain equality of rates and prevent confusion. The law even prevents the railroads from coming together and agreeing upon what rates shall be uniformly charged for terminal transportation."

"I favor a pooling clause for the railroads," continued Mr. Knapp. "The bill which is about to be disposed of by Senator Cullom's committee does not allow the railroads to pool, and for that reason has aroused the opposition of the railroads, who have worked against it. I do not wish to say anything as to the animus of the senate committee on commerce against the bill. We can do nothing now but continue in the old way. The situation now is really absurd. With the repeal of the Sherman act there would be a better understanding and application of rates."

BOERS IN STRONG FORCE

Gen. Rundle Waits at Dewetsdorp for Reinforcements.

BURGHERS IN A POSITION TO FIGHT

A Stiff Battle Expected at Thabaneu, Where the Boers Are Now Concentrating.

Fight at Warrenton.

London, April 24.—General Rundle it would seem found the Boers at Dewetsdorp in stronger force than he cared to engage and is marking time pending the arrival of supports. Brabant and Hart are pushing along to the frontier of Basutoland, and French and Pale Carey are hastening to bar the Boer line of retreat northward. In the meanwhile the burghers are occupying Thabaneu and are in a position to fight, delaying action giving the Boer forces at Dewetsdorp and Wepener time to retire in case of defeat, and it seems French must dispose of this force before he can reach the rear of the Boer forces opposing Rundle and Brabant, otherwise his flank will be open to assault. Boers driven out of Leuwkop will probably rally at Thabaneu, where a stiff fight is expected.
