Milton Eagle takes it that the average voter views politics simply as a matter of expediency. He wants an economical administration of county and state affairs and with this end accomplished he cares very little by what means it is brought about. Honesty of purpose is a necessary re-quisite, therefore, of all public ser-vants. Thus left entirely alone to conduct the people's affairs through two years of service they must be of sterl-ing integrity and display acute business sagacity in order to acceptably discharge their duties.

Information has been received from the interior department at Washing ton, D. These companies are now in the courts over the question of prior rights and an adjustment of crossings at this point, which will necessarily take some time in settlen Until these matters are settled, work of construction on the Columbia Valley road down the north side of the Columbia will be unavoidably delayed.
