THE WOOL MARKET.

Frank Lee Says Prospects Are for No Higher Prices.

Frank Lee, the wool buyer, who came up from San Francisco Monday night, thinks that two facts are plainly apparent with reference to the wool market this year: The wool market has no prospect for improvement. The sheepmen are disposed to hold their wool as they did in 1898.

Mr. Lee says the California sheepmen have sold their 1900 wool. They had opportunity during the winter to contract their wools at high prices, up to 20 cents for the lighter wools. They refused. A few days ago they sold for much less. The wools were light ones of about 60 per cent shrinkage. The London sales for January and May have demoralized the wool market. The sales indicate that wool is in less demand and that American wool must be in the same position.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Reported by L. L. Ray & Co., Chicago Board of Trade and New York Stock Exchange Brokers.

May 15.—The wheat market was firmer today. Liverpool opening 1/4 higher, but closed same as yesterday, 5-8. Chicago opened 1-8 to 1/2 lower, 60 1-8, July, and advanced to 60 1/2, closing at 60 1/4.

The good demand from Europe for the cash wheat tends to check short selling around present prices. Railroad stock firmer. Industrials weak. Money, 2 1/2 per cent. Close yesterday, 60 1/4 to 60 3-8. Open today, 60 1-8. Range today, 60 1-8 to 60 1/4. Close today, 60 1/4.

Senator Smith to Be Here May 19. Senator Wm. Smith, democratic nominee for congress, will speak in Pendleton at the court house on Saturday evening, May 19. He will also speak at Echo on May 17, and at Pilot Rock on May 18. His visit to the East End will be deferred until June 2, when he speaks at the Pioneer's Reunion at Weston.

Registration 4600.

Registration closed this afternoon at 5 o'clock, at which time 4600 names approximately were enrolled for the June and November elections. The last names have not been transferred to the books from the blanks received. The precinct registration and the exact total numbers cannot be told until Registrar Frazier has completed the work of recording.

Phil Jackson narrowly escaped injury Monday night, and, only by crawling as fast as he could from the tracks of the W. & C. R. R. saved himself from being run over by the engine. He rode onto the crossing at Webb and College streets, not noticing the engine backing out from the Myers mill and scaring mill switch. Just as he got on the crossing he fell. The engine was a few feet away, coming toward him, but he scrambled off the tracks in time to avoid being run over. His bicycle was broken somewhat, but not so much as might have been expected. Today, Rev. J. C. Thomas, C. E., of the Pendleton district of the M. E. church, south, was admitted to practice law in any and all of the courts of this state, by the supreme court, now in session in this city. He was admitted on his certificate from the supreme court of West Virginia. It is not the intention of Mr. Thomas to engage in the practice of law, but his son has selected the law as his profession, and he desires to give the latter advantages such as accrue from having his father a member of the bar in this state.

Cox, of Portland, was a passenger on Monday morning's west-bound train. Mrs. Cox has been called, having been called there by the sudden death of her father, Rev. Dr. Junkin, whose home was in New Jersey. Miss Eva Cox, sister of L. B. R. T. John and Curtis Cox, accompanied Mrs. Cox from Washington to Oregon. Miss Cox stopped off at Pendleton, to visit her three brothers who live east of the mountains. She is the home of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley, on Thompson street.

MIMS CASE SUBMITTED.

Argument Completed This Morning. Ogilvie Case on Hearing. The argument in the Mims case has been completed. On Monday night, Judge J. A. Fee gave the opening argument for the appellant Mims, the respondent State of Oregon, being heard this morning through District Attorney Bean and Judge Balleray, and Col. Raley closing for the appellant. The opinion will be handed down from Salem. This afternoon, Ogilvie vs. Ogilvie has been on hearing. It is a divorce proceeding from Gilliam county. Mrs. Ogilvie was plaintiff in the suit, winning in the circuit court of Gilliam county. Mrs. Ogilvie appealed. Her counsel appearing in the case is H. H. Hendricks. W. H. Wilson, of The Dalles appearing for the respondent. Rev. J. C. Thomas, of La Grande, was admitted to practice, on his certificate from the supreme court of West Virginia.

Yes,

we have a blend that is just suited for your party. It is not a bitter concoction that will make your guests remember your party as "that place where we were served that nasty tea," but a cheering beverage that would make your lady friends ask, where did you get it?" We call it our Afternoon Tea, because it so closely fits the name. It is good at any time. It makes a fine iced tea.

"my dear,

MR. BARRY OF INDIANA.

He Saved His Honor by Committing Suicide. The late Mr. Barry of Indiana deserves special consideration and a nice tombstone with a eulogistic epitaph, says the philosopher of the Chicago Post. Mr. Barry loved his neighbor, the wife, contrary to the spirit of the tenth commandment, and was loved in return. But as Mr. Barry was a high-minded gentleman, with proper regard for the principles of meum and tuum, he withdrew to a shady nook and ended his life, explaining that this was the only way of evading dishonor. We desire to commend Mr. Barry's example in part. Primarily we advise all gentlemen interested in their neighbors' wives to try to forget them and be happy with a coy maid or a blushing widow, but if this is impossible, if life without Yum Yum is insupportable, the lady a doll and the subtle means of an easy quietus are to be enthusiastically advocated. It is sweet for one's neighbor's wife to die, and it might be extremely unpleasant, after the first flush of warm-over love, with one's neighbor's wife to live. Therefore, the lady a doll and the subtle means of an easy quietus are to be enthusiastically advocated.
