FOURTH OF JULY COMMITTEES. Citizens Given Their Places to Prepare the Celebration.

The committee on general arrangements for the Fourth of July celebration met on Tuesday evening at the council rooms to appoint sub-committees. These committees will attend to the details, reporting to the general committee, of which R. Alexander is chairman, from time to time. It is urged that everyone take hold of the work assigned, and push it vigorously. The committee is in correspondence with persons in other places, and some first-class attractions will be provided. The committee assignments are as follows:

President of the day, the mayor, Dr. F. W. Vincent. Marshal of the day and master of ceremonies, John Bailey, jr. Committee on finance—Lee Teutsch, chairman; T. B. Swearingen, Antone Nolte, J. E. Krause, Jos. V. Tallman. Committee on music—C. E. Roosevelt, chairman; he to appoint two others. Committee on decoration—Geo. A. Hartman, jr., chairman, he to appoint six others. Committee on transportation—F. F. Wamsley, and W. Adams. Committee on entertainment—Lee Held, and four others. Committee on grounds—Theo. Howard, he to appoint two others. Committee on vocal music—Mrs. C. H. Carter, to appoint four others. Committee on literary exercises—Prof. F. L. Forbes, to appoint two others. Committee to secure orator—J. E. Lathrop. Committee on races—Frank Frazier, to appoint two others. Committee on parade—H. L. Hexter, to appoint two others. Committee on printing—J. E. Lathrop, to appoint one other. It is suggested that the chairman thus named select their assistants as soon as possible, and hand them to the chairman of the printing committee, in order that the names may be made public. Enthusiasm is arising and the determination to make the celebration this year the best ever given in Pendleton.

Bicycles can be purchased at the Crescent Agency in the East Oregonian building on installments, payment $1, or more, a week. No interest.

"After suffering from piles for fifteen years I was cured by using two boxes of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve." writes W. J. Baxter, North Brook, N. C. It heals everything. Beware of counterfeits. Tallman & Co., leading druggists. Wool buyers who went to Hoppen last December had their offers of 15 1/2 cents declined by all growers except two—Harvey Jones and Joseph Luckman, both of whom now seem satisfied with the contracts they made. But the outlook then seemed good for 20 cents. At a citizens' meeting in Joseph, Wallawa county, F. D. McCully, Albert Wurzwiler and L. Hartsborn were appointed a committee to investigate the matter of a woolen mill, communications having been received from men who would like to put in a mill. Dr. J. L. Miller, from Providence, Rhode Island, has located in Pendleton. He gives special attention to the treatment of eye, ear, nose, throat, chest and skin diseases. His office will be at his residence, on Johnson street, the Furlington house, between Alta and Court streets. "After suffering from severe dyspepsia over twelve years and using many remedies without permanent good I finally took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It did me so much good I recommend it to everyone," writes J. E. Watkins, clerk and recorder, Chillicothe, Mo. It digests what you eat. Tallman & Co., leading druggists. Walla Walla Statesman: The Unattila county democrats have put up a first rate ticket, composed of the best men in the county. Among them is Mr. W. J. Chastain, a man without a peer, who is a candidate for the legislature, whose election will be a credit to his county and state. He will serve his constituents conscientiously, for a more honest gentleman does not exist. Smith & Haberly have bought the fuel business of Allen Brothers, and will continue it at the office occupied by the latter at the corner of Main and Alta streets. They have also purchased the fuel business of VanOrsdall & Ross, and will continue the two. Mr. Haberly was formerly associated with C. F. Colesworthy in the ownership of the Henry Koplitz feedyard on lower Alta street. This feedyard has been bought by Kit Hayes & Company, who are now conducting it.

LAW GOVERNING JUSTICE COURTS. Statute of 1899 Relating Procedure, Partial Text of the Law.

Justice courts, under the law passed on February 17, 1899, are much more dignified and better conducted than formerly. The requirements of justices under the law are shown by the following sections: An act to better provide for and regulate the practice and proceedings in justice courts. Approved February 17, 1899. Sections 1.—Actions at law in justice courts shall be commenced and prosecuted to final determination and judgment enforced therein in the manner provided in the code of civil procedure for similar actions in courts of record, except as in this act otherwise provided; provided, that all disbursements shall in all cases be allowed the prevailing party. Sec. 12.—The pleadings in actions in justice courts, the forms thereof and the rules by which the sufficiency of the pleadings are to be determined shall be those prescribed by the code of civil procedure for actions in courts of record. Sec. 38.—The rules in justice courts governing mistakes in pleadings and amendments thereof, vacating decrees and judgments for mistakes, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect, the formation of issues of law and fact, the postponing of trials for cause shown, the mode of trial, the formation of the jury, the conduct and manner of trial by jury, or by the justice without the jury, the procedure regarding the verdict and judgment, and the enforcement thereof by execution, shall be as prescribed in the code of civil procedure for actions in courts of record, except as herein otherwise provided.

DECISION IN WAREHOUSE CASE. Supreme Court of Washington Reverses Judgment of Whitman County Court.

F. W. Hendley, agent for the Western Warehouse Company, received a telephone message this morning from Portland saying that the supreme court of the state of Washington has reversed the judgment of the superior court of Whitman county in the case involving the Hamilton & Bourke warehouses. The message said that the supreme court, in reversing the judgment of the lower courts, and rendered judgment for the full amount owed, less about $2000. Mr. Hendley had no further advice regarding the case, nor had any of the other parties in Pendleton, so far as learned, received information touching the decision referred to. The issue has been in the courts for more than a year, coming up in several cases in Oregon and Washington. It involved the Hamilton & Bourke warehouses, and large sums of money besides. The decision gives the Wilson & Kern people possession of the houses, and also judgment for about $50,000.

SUPREME COURT PROCEEDINGS. Session to Commence Several Days Longer—Cases on Hearing.

The supreme court, so it is now thought, will not complete the work of this term before Saturday evening, and it is even possible that the term may extend into next week. A number of cases are to be heard yet. Steele vs. Adams was completed this morning. This decision gives the Henry Gardner against Wasco county, a damage suit in which Gardner was non-suited and appealed from the circuit court of Wasco county, was heard. Moore & Gavin are attorneys for appellant, Mr. Moore appearing, W. Jayne, district attorney, and Mr. W. W. Young, attorney for respondent, Mr. Wilson appearing. Succession vs. Lever et al, an appeal from Union county, was also heard. T. H. Crawford appeared for the appellant, Lomax & Lyndee are attorneys for the respondent, Mr. Lomax appearing.

THE DISTRICT CONFERENCE. Met at Galloway Chapel This Morning. Proceedings of the Day.

This morning at 9 o'clock, at the Galloway chapel, the monthly district conference convened. Rev. J. C. Thomas, presiding elder of the district, was in the chair. The conference has remained in session during the day and will be in session until Sunday. At 8 o'clock this evening, Rev. L. F. Shearer, B. O., will preach before the conference. Tomorrow, at 11 a. m., Rev. Frank C. Adkins, formerly pastor of the church here, is to preach, and at 8 p. m., tomorrow evening, Rev. D. W. Younkman will deliver a sermon. The attendance today of ministers from other places is not so full as it will be tomorrow and the remaining days of the week.

A FAVORABLE CONDITION. Ralph Wade, Who Had Appendicitis, Underwent Operation Successfully.

C. B. Wade received a telegram from Worcester, Mass., Tuesday evening conveying the pleasing information that the operation his son Ralph underwent for appendicitis was successful. The patient is now in comfortable condition and the indications are that he will be entirely recovered in a short time. The physicians at the hospital express entire satisfaction with the result of the operation. The news will also be pleasing to the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wade and their son Ralph, in this city. Mrs. Wade will return home later in the month, as expected when she left Pendleton, unless Ralph's condition should turn out to be less favorable than now is expected.

CHICAGO MARKET. Reported by I. L. Ray & Co., Chicago Board of Trade and New York Stock Exchange Brokers.

May 10.—The grain markets were all higher today under the influence of higher cables and numerous crop damage reports that are coming in caused by the extreme hot weather now prevailing in the east, and the ravages of the Hessian fly and cinch bugs. Liverpool closed, 1/2 higher, 53 1/2. Chicago opened unchanged, 60 1/2, which was the low point of the day. There was good buying from the start which carried prices up to 67, closing 66 1/2 to 67 1/2. Stocks all strong, the grangers leading. Money, 2 1/2 per cent. Close yesterday, 60 1/2. Open today, 60 1/2. Range today, 60 1/2 to 67. Close today, 60 1/2 to 60 7/8.

The Paul Mohr Road. Spokane, May 10.—Colonel I. N. Peyton of Spokane was today elected president of the Central Navigation & Construction company to succeed William J. Harris.

This is the company that is building the portage road on the Columbia river between The Dalles and Celilo and constructing steamers to run on the river. Just $200,000 additional was appropriated toward completing the undertaking. Runaway Indian Boys. Walla Walla, Wash., May 10.—Three little Indian boys, mounted on a sorry looking cayuse pony entered Bryan Bros. livery stable, Walla Walla, Saturday evening, and requested a night's lodging, which was given them. They departed early the next morning and it has since been found that they ran away from the Indian school near Pendleton.

The New York World, Thrice-a-Week Edition

ALMOST A DAILY—AT THE PRICE OF A WEEKLY. The most widely circulated "weekly" newspaper in America is the Thrice-a-Week edition of The New York World, and with the presidential campaign now at hand you cannot do without it. Here are some of the reasons why it is easily the leader in dollar a year journalism. It is issued every other day, and is to all purposes a daily. Every week each subscriber receives 18 pages and often during the "busy" season 24 pages each week. The price is only $1 per year. It is virtually a daily at the price of a weekly. Its news covers every known part of the world. No weekly newspaper could stand alone and furnish such service. The Thrice-a-Week World has at its disposal all of the resources of the greatest newspaper in existence—the wonder of modern journalism—"America's Greatest Newspaper," as it has been justly termed—The New York World. Its political news is absolutely impartial. This fact will be of especial value in the presidential campaign coming on. The best of current fiction is found in its columns. These are only some of the reasons; there are others. Read it and see them all. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the weekly East Oregonian together one year for $2. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50. The Tri-Weekly World and the Semi-Weekly East Oregonian one year for $2.50. City office at Tallman & Co's drug

"THE BABIES' FRIEND." FOLEY'S HONEY-TAR FOR THE Throat, Chest and Lungs. PREPARED BY FOLEY & CO. CHICAGO, ILL. BANNER SALVE is the greatest healer known.

FOR A QUARTER of a century Foley's Honey and Tar has been curing babies of croup and whooping cough. In that time it has saved thousands of little lives and every year it goes on saving more. Physicians who have tested it know Foley's Honey and Tar is the best medicine for little folks and much superior to the old time muriate of ammonia mixtures, so often prescribed by doctors, and which are so often ineffective. It's entirely free from opiates and it's unconditionally guaranteed. Little folks like it. BANNER SALVE is the greatest healer known.
