you proffer. They're unfair, I'll do better by you. I'll wager you $7500 against $10,000 that Bryan defeats McKinley.

The McKinley champion hesitated. Oratory was one thing; a cold proposal, to jeopardize $10,000 on his republican hopes and fears was another. Again, his opponent's well-known genius to foresee events a genius which makes him the magician of the bourse, daunted him. But he had gone too far. Taking two other gentlemen in as equal partners, he accepted Mr. Keene's offer the stamp of $7500 that McKinley defeats Bryan was wagered. This transaction has done not a little to wet-blanket those forward anticipations of local republicans that their party is to have a walkover. Mr. Keene has never, within their experience, lost a bet. He is a man of faith within him, and his prompt wager puzzles while it dismays them.

"The people of this country," said Mr. Keene to me in a recent conversation, "must arouse themselves. The coming election is of more importance, from the standpoint of pure and true Americanism, than any that has transpired since the second election of Lincoln. Money is in the saddle; it is riding down the institutions of this country with a confident insolence that tells of its firm belief in its own infirmity, just as they guard their forest frontiers from the aborigine. Unless they come solidly, shoulder to shoulder, for their rights, and come at once, Bunker Hill will have been a blunder; Yorktown a mistake."

When a man worth twenty millions, and one who, for a quarter of a century, has stood in the very heart and center of money, concurring fortune for himself—when such a man begins to talk like that, he's apt to prove impressive. Also, he's not apt to be alone. The thoughts voiced by Mr. Keene have occurred to hundreds of others in corners of existence little dreamed of, and it all points to a movement and an effect in November not flattering to the hopes of the present administration.

should certainly have its readers in both." This is sound sense. This utterance contains a principle that few newspaper men fully grasp. Newspapers are common that do not and cannot give a fair report of anything done by the political party with which they do not train or are not in sympathy. Their reports of the meetings of the opposition political party are distorted; matter is suppressed because of political prejudices and other news is colored on the same account. Reporters sent to report the proceedings of meetings are instructed to burlesque and ridicule the party to whom the paper happens to be opposed, and this in its news columns. The Oregonian and Telegram, the two leading daily papers of Oregon, are flagrant violators of this principle, and for this reason the people of Oregon put no faith or credence in their political news, and these papers are without great influence, in this connection, solely on this account.

DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical Discovery

"I had suffered from indigestion, and only those who have suffered from it know what it really is," writes Mrs. M. J. Fagan, of 1613 East Genesee Street, Syracuse, N. Y. "I had severe attacks of headache and dizziness with cold hands and feet; everything I ate distressed me, bowels were constipated, and I was growing very thin and nervous. I cannot half express the bad feelings I had when I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took nine bottles of the 'Discovery' and several bottles of the 'Pellets.' I commenced feeling better with the first bottle, and kept on improving. Now I am so greatly improved in health my friends often speak of it. I most heartily recommend those medicines to all suffering as I was."

Blood Troubles:

Cancer, Scrofula, Old Sores, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Chronic Ulcers.

As the blood contains all the elements necessary to sustain life, it is important that it be kept free of all impurities, or it becomes a source of disease, poisoning instead of nourishing the body, and loss of health is sure to follow. Some poisons enter the blood from without, through the skin by absorption, or the inoculation; others from within, as when waste products accumulate in the system and ferment, allowing disease germs to develop and be taken into the circulation. While all blood troubles have one common origin, each has some peculiarity to distinguish it from the other. Contagious Blood Poison, Scrofula, Cancer, Rheumatism, Eczema and other blood diseases can be distinguished by a certain sore, ulcer, eruption or inflammation appearing on the skin. Every blood disease shows sooner or later on the outside and on the weakest part of the body, or where it finds the least resistance. Many mistake the sore or outward sign for the real disease, and attempt a cure by the use of salves, liniments and other external applications. Valuable time is lost and no permanent benefit derived from such treatment.

BLOOD TROUBLES REQUIRE BLOOD REMEDIES; the poison must be completely and permanently eradicated, purified and cleaned, or the disease goes deeper and saps the very life. Mercury, potassium and arsenic, the treatment usually prescribed in this class of diseases, are violent poisons, even when taken in small doses—never cure, but do much harm by adding another poison to the already overburdened, diseased blood.

S. S. S., Nature's own remedy, made of roots and herbs, attacks the disease in the blood, antitoxins and forces out all impurities, makes weak, thin blood rich, strong and healthy, and at the same time builds up the general health. S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the only one that can reach deep-seated blood troubles. A record of 50 years of successful cures proves it to be a reliable, unfailing specific for all blood and skin troubles.

Free Medical Treatment.—Our Medical Department is in charge of skilled physicians, who have made blood and skin diseases a life study, so if you have Contagious Blood Poison, Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Eczema, an Old Sore or Ulcer, write fully for advice about your case. All correspondence is conducted in strict confidence. We make no charge for this service. Book on blood and skin diseases free. SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.
