WHEAT VALLEY ROCK CARVINGS.

Volunteer Writes from Nevada Telling of Them.

The following letter from J. B. Pepon, written from Table Rock, Nevada, is in answer to an article recently appearing in the East Oregonian.

Table Rock, Nev., June 1.—To the Editor:—In the issue of your paper dated May 14, is an article, "The Mystery of the Valley," in which you refer to an article in the Vale Gazette mentioning some sandstone cliffs near Vale on which are inscribed names and dates of early times in Oregon.

Among other names is given that of J. Pepon, Lt. 1st U. S. Inf., 1864. Then you say that the lieutenant was, and what has become of him.

Silas Pepon, my brother, E. T. Pepon, Ekman Taylor and myself were in the valley in 1864, for the Pacific coast. We had a wagon team in those early days. We crossed the Mississippi off against the mountains, crossed the Missouri at Astoria, went through the south pass, passed by Soda Springs and down the Humboldt and across to Susanville, Calif. where Taylor left us, going to Hamilton City. We passed Shasta butte and entered Southern Oregon, stopping at Jackson county, in the latter part of September. My brother and Boone followed mining, while I worked on a road for Isaac Woolen near Phoenix.

In the fall of 1861, the first Oregon volunteer soldiers were recruited. My brother Boone and myself enlisted at Jacksonville, and were assigned to Company A, T. S. Harris was our captain, and Jesse Robinson and John Hopkins, the lieutenants. Silas Pepon was appointed one of the duty sergeants of this company and I was appointed quartermaster sergeant. We were sent to Fort Walla Walla to help put down the rebellion, but in that were disappointed. In the spring of 1862, we went to Portland, and were transferred from there to the Dalles by wagon, making a portage by rail at the Dalles. The winter of 1862-63 we spent at Fort Dalles, and the winter of 1863-64 we passed at Fort Walla Walla. It was either in the spring of 1864 we were going out, or in the fall of that year as we were returning, that the name of J. Pepon carved his name on the face of the cliff, reference to which was made by the "Vale Gazette."

The name of A. A. Gray, 1864, is mentioned. Gray was a corporal in our company and carved his name on the same time that my brother did. I do not remember the name of the man who put his name so high, but I do remember the name of the man who carved the name of the natural bridge in Virginia, and I am trying to carve his name on the cliff, but I have not yet done so. Many of the names in the service I went back to the Dalles, and I probably passed over the ground on which Pendleton now stands.

THE MARKETS.

Wheat Continues Low and the Outlook Not Encouraging for an Advance.
Portland, June 7.—With weaker cables and declining prices in Europe from day to day on cargo lots, values on spot here have naturally yielded in sympathy, and would-be sellers find the situation extremely unsatisfactory and more than ever against them. Business is running very tight, and in the absence of important transactions it is quite difficult to say just what the selling price is—perhaps 50c per bushel for Valley and Walla Walla Club would be considered a fair figure by exporters—and for milling wheat 2c more could probably be obtained. Prompt shipment cargoes have declined during the week, with sales difficult at the reduction. Offerings of Walla Walla have been small, while Valley wheat is even scarcer. However, the scarcity of offerings has no effect as regards value, for shippers will only work business when sellers are "cracks" to meet the market. There is nothing encouraging in the outlook to make prices advance. With freights going on to 42c and, scarce at that, the outlook surely is not encouraging for highest prices, and cargoes selling lower every week. Advertisers from the coast as to growing crops are very encouraging and no doubt we will have the largest crop in the history of the Northwest. It is yet too early to be confident, as harvesting will not be in full swing for four weeks, and hot winds may do considerable damage. We quote Valley and Club 50c to 51c; Bluestem, 52c per bushel.

Wheat in San Francisco.
San Francisco, June 7.—The wheat trade shows no improvement over last week's business, and the tone is not so firm, while values are steady. Vessels are getting slow dispatch, tonnage under charter for old crop wheat is steadily diminishing and the wants of shippers gradually easing off, and at the present time there appears to be no pressing demand from either the exporting or milling interests. The prospects of harvesting a good crop has a certain influence on the trade, shippers feeling that there is no hurry about forward buying and are content to await the time when new wheat moves freely and result of Europe's harvest is better defined. For No. 1 shipping grade, 90c per cental is about the best a seller can do, with 92c to 95c per cental paid for milling qualities.

Wool in Boston.
Boston, June 7.—The wool trade continues dull. The price for territory wools is 53 to 55c, scoured, for fine, medium and fine. Fleece wools show very little life, with prices nominal. There is some demand for quarter-blood, but offerings are small. A line of Australian three-eighths blood sold on the scoured basis of 58c. Quotations:
Territory, scoured basis—Montana and Dakota, fine, medium and fine, 19 to 20c; scoured, 55c; staple, 58c; Utah and Wyoming, fine, medium and fine 17 to 18c; scoured 53 to 54c; staple 50 to 52c.
Australian scoured basis spot prices—Combing superfine nominal 52 to 53c; good 50 to 51c.

Wool in San Francisco.
San Francisco, June 7.—Wool—Spring—Nevada 14 to 16c per pound; Eastern Oregon 10 to 15c; Valley Oregon 18 to 20c. Fall—Northern, mountain, 10 to 12c; mountain, 8 to 10c; plains, 8 to 10c; Humboldt and Mendocino, 14 to 15c.

Wheat in Pendleton.
Pendleton, June 7.—Election and the receiving of returns throughout the county have absorbed attention during the week past, hence the wheat market locally has been neglected. Not much has been said of the cereal here, and in fact, not much is heard of late about it. Sales are dribbling. The quotations are about 40 for No. 1 club.

Wool in Pendleton.
Pendleton, June 7.—Some small sales have been made since the local wool market was last reviewed. A week ago three or four hundred thousand pounds had been sold, and this was increased by Saturday to about 650,000. Since then, several small clips have gone, the total now being approximately 750,000 pounds.

Wool in Portland.
Portland, June 7.—Wool—Valley, 12 to 13c for coarse, 15 to 16c for best; Eastern Oregon, 10 to 15c; mohair, 25c per pound.

Skins, Pelts and Hides.
Sheepskins—Shearings, 15 to 20c; short-wool, 25 to 35c; medium-wool, 30 to 50c; long-wool, 60c to $1 each.
Fur—Bear skins, each, as to size, $5 to $15; cuts, each, $1 to $5; badger, each, 50c; wildcat, 25 to 75c; housecat, 5 to 25c; fox, common gray, 40c to $1; do red, $1.75 to $3.50; do cross, $2.50 to $6; lynx, $2 to $4.50; mink, 40c to $1.75; marten, dark Northern, $5 to $10; do pale, $2 to $4; muskrat, $8 to 15c; do skin, 50 to 80c; otter (land), $4 to $8; panther, with head and claws perfect, $1 to $3; raccoon, 25 to 30c; wolf, mountain, with head perfect, $3.50 to $5; wolverine, $2.50 to $6; beaver, per skin, large, $6 to $7; do medium, per skin, $4 to $5; do small, per skin, $1 to $2; do kits, per skin, $1 to $3.

Eastern Livestock.
Chicago, June 7.—Cattle—Lower, beefers, $5 to $5.65; stockers and feeders, $5.75 to $5; cows and heifers, $3 to $4.75.
Hogs—Steady; bulk sales, $5.10 to $5.15.
Sheep—Steady; Western sheep, $4.75 to $5.40; Western lambs, $6 to $7.15.

Omaha, June 7.—Cattle—Market active, fully 5c higher. Native beef steers, $4.50 to $5.40; cows and heifers, Buyers and sellers are now mostly doing lots of talking, and waiting for future developments, hence the present status of the wool market is in a state of consequent uncertainty. Wool continues to come in from all directions, and the houses are rapidly filling up with the clips of this county, and those brought in by rail from other counties.

Local Market.
Pendleton dealers are paying the following prices for ranch and farm produce:
Butter, 35c per roll.
Eggs, 30c per dozen.
Potatoes, 40c per sack.
Parsnips, 50c per sack.
Cabbage, $2.50 per 100 pounds.
Turnips, 75c per 100 pounds.
Chickens, $2.50 to $4.00 per dozen.
Geese, $10 per dozen.

Curious News.
Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, rickets, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Tallman & Co., Druggist, Guaranteed.

AMATEUR ATHLETES.
To Organize a Track Team, Young Men Plan in Pendleton.
It is the intention of several young men to organize a track team, and train for anything in the form of a team for anything that may come along. Several of the young men are "cracks" in some events, and the team should, if organized, do some good work. According to one of those interested in the arrangements, these are to be members of the team:
Wyrick and Moorhouse, sprinters.
Adams and Batum, bicyclists.
Hayes and Adams, high jump.
And the other places are to be filled later.

UNBEARABLE
ITCHING
Felt It Would Be a Relief to Tear Skin From Back. Cured by CUTICURA.
I had a breaking out all over my back. The itching was almost unbearable, and at times I felt that it would be a relief to tear the skin off my back. I tried doctors' prescriptions, and several remedies, without effect. I read of your CUTICURA ointment in the Indianapolis News. After three applications, my back quitted itching, and by the time the box of CUTICURA ointment was half used the breaking out had all disappeared. This is true.

THE M'COMAS-BYERS WEDDING.

Married Wednesday Evening and Leave on Wedding Tour in California.
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Byers, on Wednesday evening, occurred the wedding of Mr. E. W. McComas and Miss Sophia Byers. Mr. and Mrs. McComas left on the 10:30 train for Portland. Thence they are to go to San Francisco, and remain in the state of California for three weeks. They will then return to Pendleton, occupying their new home ready prepared, the Fielding house on the corner of Lewis and Mill streets.

The wedding was attended by only a few friends, besides the members of the family of the bride. The parlor was beautifully decorated with cut flowers sent from Portland, and many choice remembrances were sent by friends. Miss Byers was married in a traveling suit. A supper was served to the guests.

Mr. McComas is a member of the firm of Brooks, McComas & Co. of this city, and also is in the wheat business with I. L. Ray, in the firm of I. L. Ray & Company. He has lived here for several years, and for many years has been a frequent visitor to Pendleton. Few business men possess the confidence of the community in which they live as does Mr. McComas. He is very highly regarded by all who come in contact with him either in a business or social relation. Miss Byers is a daughter of W. S. Byers, proprietor of the Pendleton roller mill, and has an interest in the business of her father. She has gained a name in the business world throughout the Pacific coast, having for several years been closely associated with her father in the management of his very large business transacted by their mills. Perhaps no woman on the coast has better knowledge of business affairs, and few have had so important interests in their charge as have been attended to by Miss Byers since she took the entire control of the office affairs of the Byers mills.

The wedding will bring to Mr. and Mrs. McComas the friends well wishing all their numerous friends here and in other places.

All who suffer from piles will be glad to learn that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will give them instant and permanent relief. It will cure eczema and all skin diseases. Beware of counterfeiters. Tallman & Co., leading druggists.
