NOTES FROM TUTUILLA.

What People Are Doing and Saying in the South Suburb.

Tutuilla, June 8.—Peter West has been repainting and renovating his Tutuilla residence, also improving his farm in various ways, notably plowing the acres which he will sow to rye and wheat for pasture land for the summer work.

Frank Brown, after exercising the virtue of patience for a long time, started a rat poisoning campaign. The results, up to date, are one dog and a hundred chickens missing, with the rats still at large.

Tony Larsen says that McKay creek Sunday school, of which he is a member in good standing, will soon close until the warm weather is over.

F. J. Bacon is about to open a resort somewhat in the shape of a beer garden on McKay. It is expected to be quite a convenience to thirsty Pendletonians who venture abroad without a big enough bottle. There will also be a dancing platform attached for those who wish to trip the light fantastic.

Earl Obert passed Tutuilla today on his way from Granite to his farm on Little McKay. Mr. Obert has a number of claims in the Granite district which he is developing, and which he hopes will add materially to his wealth in the near future. He returns to Granite in a week.

Summer fallowing is about all completed, and preparations for harvest are now the order of the day. Old machines are being remodelled and new ones ordered where the old ones are insufficient to take care of the large crop fast ripening.

Some New Machinery.

M. H. Gillett has purchased a new Pitts Separator with a California cleaner attached, on which M. I. Howe is now putting the finishing touches in the shape of a self-feeder of his own construction on which Mr. Howe holds a patent.

J. L. Smith has introduced a new machine which is a stranger here, but of which quite a number were sold in the Palouse country last year and gave general satisfaction. It is very light running, the separator being about twice the size of the average fanning mill. A number of them are being sold in this county. Ed Turney came over from Stage Gulch this week for one of these machines which he had ordered.

M. I. Howe is remodelling his California thresher which came to this county a stranger two years ago, and gave such general satisfaction. He has purchased a new traction engine and will be ready for the field with a practically new outfit.

Charles Estes has just returned from a pleasure trip to the Wallowa valley; crossing the mountains between here and Wallowa on a new road on which snow banks several feet deep, and logs and timber not yet removed do not add to the pleasure of the wayfarer. The valley itself, however, is a delight to the eye and a pleasure to travel through.

Mr. Hevel was up from Nolin this week for a new horsepower combined thresher which he has purchased from J. L. Smith. While there is no thresher at Nolin on which to practice, Mr. Hevel is the owner of a team with which he is quite willing to go up against any of the Pendleton blood and take chances on being in at the finish. "I frequently drive from home to Pendleton in an hour, easily beating the railway train, which follows the bends of the river, while I take a straight shoot across the hills," says Mr. Hevel.

Wm. Gillett has added to his threshing outfit a new Daniel Best Cleaner, which, with the new separator he purchased last year easily gives him as complete an outfit and one capable of doing as good work as any that will take the field this year.

A close analysis of the election returns seems to show that, while a large majority of the voters of Umatilla county have a profound distrust of democratic management of state affairs, they are quite willing to risk the county in their hands on occasion.

A Life and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Tallman & Co.'s Drug Store.

ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY.

Commencement Next Tuesday Evening at Frazer Opera House.

The closing exercises of St. Joseph's academy will take place Tuesday night at Frazer's opera house.

One of the interesting features of the program will be an elocutionary contest for which prizes have been offered by Dr. Smith.

A gold medal presented by Mr. Leon Cohen will be given for improvement in music. Also a silver thimble presented by Mr. L. Hunziker for needle work. Other prizes will be given by the faculty of the academy. School work, artistic penwork, painting and art needlework, will be exhibited in the classrooms of St. Joseph's academy on Monday and Tuesday from 2 to 4 p. m.

All are invited to come and inspect the work.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by all druggists, price 75c, per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

YATES' ELECTION IS OFFICIAL.

Canvassing Board Settle the Absorbing Question—Has Seven Plurality.

The exciting contest over the treasurership of this county has been settled at last by the official canvassing of the votes. The result was made known Thursday evening, at 6 o'clock, when the board had gone through the entire list of precincts, checking up the tallysheets, and transferring the figures to the sheet the clerk is required by law to make containing the totals of all candidates in all precincts. The totals were not at that moment given out by the clerk and justices who did the canvassing, but something like a dozen men who has stood around all the afternoon watching the count, and keeping the closest kind of tab on the progress that was made, had the totals ready in about a minute. The republicans had landed their man with a plurality of seven, and this was conceded by the democrats. A surprising feature of the affair was the large vote received by W. C. Kern, the independent candidate for the office. Mr. Kern's total vote was only two hundred less than that given to each of the other candidates.

Four Men Could Have Turned It

Four men, any four men in the county, could have thrown the office to Peebler. And 104 could have thrown it to Kern. These figures indicate the remarkably close margin upon which it was won by the Milton man.

During the three days that had elapsed since election, the treasurership had been a rather constant subject of conversation, and anyone who had to do with receiving the returns was likely to be asked several dozen times about it while walking the length of Main street.

The conclusion to be drawn from the figures and other facts relating to the campaign just fought out, is that Peebler would certainly have been elected had the race been between the republican and democrat with no third man to draw from either. It was apparent the protesting republicans desired the defeat of Yates, and that, had not Kern been in the field, the majority of them would have voted for Peebler. A well posted politician, in discussing the matter, said Thursday evening, after the canvass was ended:

"If Kern had not been in the field as an independent candidate, Peebler would have been elected by a majority approximating those received by Blakley and Maloney."

One thing is apparent—the returns from several precincts were too long in coming in. There was no reason why Mountain should not have been brought to the court house sooner. The boxes were here from more distant precinct polling places than Mountain. Members of election boards should not be permitted to delay in the transmission of the ballot boxes and tallysheets to the clerk's office. At the earliest moment possible after the votes are counted they should be deposited in the vault at the court house, and delay is both unwise and dangerous.

The exact figures of the vote may be seen in the election table elsewhere in this issue.

Curious News.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Tallman & Co., Druggist. Guaranteed.

AN ELECTION INCIDENT.

Clark in Camas Prairie Gets an Office for Which He Did Not Run.

One of the peculiar and amusing incidents of the Monday election was brought in with the returns from the justice district which includes Ukiah and Alba precincts. It appears that, by an error made by the election board out there, George Clark was elected to an office for which he was not a candidate. Of course, the other man could and probably will contest, and easily secure a correction of the error. But, as the matter stands at this time, the county canvassing board, deputy county clerk, Justice Rosenberg and Justice Parkes, are compelled to return Clark elected to the office of road supervisor, when it is well known that Clark was a candidate for the office of justice of the peace.

Clark was a candidate with all regularity, and it is presumable that the voters cast their ballots for him, that is, those who wanted him elected, for he had an opponent, W. T. Sellers, both being democrats. When the election board began to count the votes out there, the clerk wrote the name of Clark in the line intended for the road supervisor, and so recorded the votes. The law is that the canvassing board at the court house must accept the tallysheets as returned by the precinct board of election, and in no instance can make an alteration, excepting to correct figures set down as totals which do not correspond with the marks of the clerks who did the tallying.

Consequently, Clark must be counted as a road supervisor, until the matter is rectified by a regular contest in the circuit court, before Judge Lowell. He and the court machinery only can alter the record.

Morrow County Official Vote in Part.

Telephonic advices from Morrow county, sent by Dr. P. B. McSwords, of Heppner, to A. D. Stillman, are that the following was the official vote of that county on the judicial ticket, and the majority of Woolery, democratic candidate for joint representative:

For circuit judge, W. R. Ellis received a total of 703 votes, A. D. Stillman a total of 397, and Robert Slater a total of 47; Ellis' plurality over Stillman is therefore 306.

For district attorney, T. G. Hailey received a total of 561 votes, James A. Fee a total of 535, and J. T. Hinkle a total of 44; Hailey's plurality over Fee being 26.

Woolery's majority was 164.

THE NEW TOWN OF SHANAKO.

Now Tent Abodes Only Are There—Buildings Going Up Rapidly.

Col. Frank Savage, traveling freight agent of the Northern Pacific and H. L. Sitser, traveling freight agent of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha, succeeding Col. Savage in that position, are at the Hotel Pendleton. They have been at Shanako, the new town at the terminus of the Columbia Southern railway, and one that has only just begun to grow into a city.

"People out there live in tents, now," said Col. Savage, to the East Oregonian, "for the simple reason that they have no other abodes in which to live. They have been putting up buildings as rapidly as possible, as rapidly, in fact, as they can get the material on the ground with which to construct the houses. A few stores are already up, and a few dwellings. The foundations are finished for the hotel, and the workmen are waiting for the brick, which are being burned at Moro.

"Lots of wool is stored at Shanako, and some is being shipped to The Dalles. Some will come here, so I understand. None has been sold, as yet, and it is also true that none, or almost none has been sold at The Dalles. The market there appears not to have opened up as easily as it did here in this town. I heard of offers for wool at eleven cents, but not knowing what grade of wools it was for which this was offered, I cannot state if it compares with the sales made here this season.

"The wheat crop of the country tributary to Shanako is looking finely, and it is quite certain that the yield will be large per acre. It is apparent that the building of the Columbia Southern road has operated to induce the sowing of very much more wheat than in former years.

"Shanako will have a waterworks system, and work is ready to begin at once on the construction.
