AMAZING HARVEST PROMISED.

Very favorable for a record-breaking crop of wheat in this county. J. Temple, for years one of the prominent figures in Umatilla county's wheat business, returned to his home in Pendleton Sunday forenoon after having traveled extensively throughout the county. Mr. Temple expressed himself emphatically and explicitly when he said: "I have never seen such good promise for big crop. I did not see a single poor field of grain during my entire travels."

W. H. Haves on the reservation near Lewis and Clark, has 600 acres in wheat which he expects to go to 80 bushels to the acre. He will commence harvesting by the middle of the month. Mr. Haves has recently disposed of the balance of his last year's crop of 20,000 bushels of No. 1 and No. 2, to the Pacific Elevator company, for 45c. Lewis and Clark, in the reservation, has 500 acres in wheat which he estimates will average 35 bushels to the acre.

J. Zieske, of Warren Station, on the W. & C. R. railroad, has 300 acres of wheat which will average 30 bushels. He will commence cutting July 15. W. W. Bradley, an Athena grain buyer, has been traveling extensively over the country inspecting the wheat fields, and stated to an East Oregonian reporter that crops never looked finer and that harvesting would be under full way between July 15 and 20.

TIBBER FOR GOVERNOR.

George E. Chamberlain and L. D. Inman are mentioned in that connection. The moment it was made known that George E. Chamberlain, democratic candidate for the republican county for Umatilla county, was in possession of a republican nomination, his name as immediately mentioned as a candidate for governor two years hence. C. Havelly, a prominent democratic worker in the county, passed through Pendleton Sunday morning for a day's work in the mountains. He acknowledged the ability and popularity of Mr. Chamberlain in having made a successful run, but for several weeks believed that Mr. Chamberlain would not be the candidate of the democratic party. He will hold office for four years, and the end of that time may well establish a reputation which will still further entitle him to stand at the head of his party. Mr. Chamberlain county, however, who is a republican, has numerous political friends who have proven himself a

OREGON WOOL AND MUTTON SHEEP.

The opinion of a Chicago Livestock Dealer. "Oregon is to the sheepmen what Texas is to the cattlemen, in that it furnishes the finest feeding grounds in the United States," said C. H. Shurte, a member of the great Mallory Livestock Commission company, of Chicago, to the Portland Telegram. Mr. Shurte has been in Oregon the past month purchasing sheep for his company. During the past four years he has spent from one to three months a year in this state, buying sheep for his house, and he is one of the best known and most popular of all the Eastern buyers. He reports he has bought 100,000 sheep and shipped them to the grazing grounds of Montana, North Dakota and Colorado. He expects to secure about 50,000 more in Oregon, and in Washington he thinks he will get from 75,000 to 100,000. Washington and purchases a sheep state as Oregon, and purchases the excess by from 30,000 to 75,000 of the winter state. These sheep, after fattening, will be sent to and sold at the yards of the company in Chicago, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Mo.; Omaha, Sioux City, St. Paul. Eventually a great many will reach the Eastern market.

"Oregon wool and mutton sheep," Mr. Shurte continued, "are splendid specimens. Oregon ewes are considered by breeders the best breeding sheep in the country. In this connection, I will say that Oregon and Washington sheepmen make a great mistake in selling their yearling ewes. They have been induced to do so in the past by the fancy prices offered, but in the future they should save the young. The bands of many are getting aged, and yearling ewes should not be sold. It would be far better to sacrifice the old."

"Oregon is the best breeding ground in the United States, and it is short of range, and if the forest reserve is closed to the sheepmen the industry will be ruined, for 200,000 sheep will be shut out. I understand, however, that Congressman Moody will do all in his power to protect the sheepmen both of Oregon and of Washington, and that there is no danger of the ranges being closed."

Asked what effect the South African war had upon the livestock market, Mr. Shurte said: "The export demand has been larger than at any time in previous years. The scarcity of assets caused by the war, has necessarily raised prices, but nevertheless shipments have been large."

Mr. Shurte thinks Oregon is a poor country for cattle and hogs. Still, he has shipped about 600 head of cattle and some hogs. The hogs raised in Oregon, he said, go to the Portland and Seattle markets.

"Oregon is a fine state, excepting in those lines," he added. "The Willamette Valley is, in my opinion, one of the most beautiful and most productive regions of the whole country. Eastern Oregon, as a sheepraising country, cannot be expressed, and it will be a fine cattle ground if so much good cattle land had not been converted into farms."

Mr. Shurte left for Eastern Oregon Sunday morning to attend to the shipment of 28,000 head of sheep.

EASTERN STAR GRAND CHAPTER.

Mrs. Jessie S. Vert, of Pendleton, installed as Grand Matron. One of the closing scenes in the session of the Eastern Star Grand Chapter, at Portland, last week, was when Past Grand Matron Mrs. Holm, assisted by three other past grand matrons, Mrs. Rose Wilson, as grand marshal and Mrs. Kellogg, as grand chaplain, installed the following officers:

Grand Matron, Mrs. Jessie S. Vert, Pendleton; grand patron, senior E. W. Haines, Forest Grove; associate grand matron, Mrs. Clara Marsden, Burns; associate grand patron, C. W. Miller (Camelia chapter), Portland; grand secretary, Mrs. Mary S. Myers; The Dalles; grand treasurer, Mrs. Ella Metzger, La Fayette; grand conductress, Mrs. Allie Townsend, Dallas; associate grand conductress, Mrs. Hattie White, Jacksonville; grand chaplain, Mrs. P. O. Wilson, Corvallis; grand lecturer, Mrs. Lizzie Redfield, Albany; grand marshal, Mrs. Maria M. Beagle, Pendleton; officers of the Star—(Grand) Mrs. Miss Callista Moore, Salem; grand Ruth, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Cox, La Grande; grand Esther, Mrs. Della Houston, Portland; grand Martha, Miss Bay M. Sherwin, Ashland; grand Electa, Mrs. Mary E. Steele, Enterprise; grand warden, Mrs. Nettie Stiles, Portland; grand sentinel, Mrs. Lucy Water, Dayton; grand organist, Mrs. Jennie Muecke, St. Helens.

The grand matron in accepting her office made a neat little speech of thanks for the honor conferred upon herself and her chapter by her elevation to the dignity of head of the order in this state, and solicited the hearty co-operation of the grand chapter that the ensuing year might be even more prosperous than the one just past. Remarks in a similar vein were made by the other newly elected grand officers, and the retiring grand matron especially thanked her associates for the assistance given her in her work. A notable feature of the day's reports was the favorable showing made by the committee which has in charge the fund for a home. Perfect harmony marked the session, and the large attendance added to the enthusiasm.

The Oregonian of Sunday, June 10, contained a fair picture of the new grand matron, which elicited considerable favorable comment, being in such marked contradiction to much of the attempted-to-be-artistic work of that journal.

Worse Than War. Hundreds are killed in war, but hundreds of thousands are killed by consumption. There would be no deaths at all caused by this terrible disease, if people could be made to understand that Shiloh's cough and consumption cure is a sure remedy if taken in the early stages. 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1 a bottle. Druggists will refund the money if a cure is not effected. Tallman & Co., leading druggists.

THE WESTERN NEIGHBORHOOD.

Death of James F. Robinson at His Home in Weston. The East Oregonian is indebted to the Weston Leader for the following items: Officers elected Monday for the Weston justice and court district were L. S. Wood, present incumbent, for justice of the peace; Jesse Lienallen for constable, and F. H. Beattie for road supervisor. All received good majorities. Mr. Lienallen particularly running like the proverbial "scared wolf."

C. M. Pierce, cashier of the Farmers' Bank of Weston, leaves again next Friday for Hot Lake, Union county, to try the virtues of its waters. Mr. Pierce came back to look after his end of the pioneers' re-union work, and now feels the need of absolute rest. He doesn't want to think about business for several weeks.

Rev. L. P. Shearer has gone to Leland, Idaho, in the Nez Percé country, to attend a meeting of the board of education of the M. E. church, south of which he is secretary. He left Monday, driving a handsome new team of grays that he has just broken to harness, training them himself, and will be absent ten days. He was accompanied by Rev. W. B. Gray of Pendleton.

George Reynolds has returned from the Snake river range, near Hatton, Wash., and is again in civilized garb. He says that Frank and Edwin Saling are both absent, having gone to St. Paul, Minn., with another shipment of good horses. They are expected back about the middle of June. There is some talk among Snake river horsemen of gathering up a trainload of inferior horses for the Linton cannery near Portland. Animals good enough for canned horse meat for the "parleyvoos" and Her Majesty's soldiers in Africa, bring $2.50 per head in the corral.

Cecil, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Price, aged one month and 13 days, died Friday, June 1st, after a typhoid attack. On account of the condition of the remains, interment was had Friday afternoon in the Masonic cemetery. Services were conducted at the house by Rev. L. P. Shearer, with appropriate music, and a short service was also read at the grave. Members of the Masonic and Pythian lodges, of which the bereaved father belongs, attended the funeral as an escort of honor.

James F. Robinson, 41 years old, died at his home in Weston Saturday morning, June 2, from consumption. The funeral was conducted Sunday by the Rev. L. P. Shearer, of which order the deceased had been a member in good standing for nearly 15 years. He belonged to the lodge at Lyons, Kansas.

Mr. Robinson, during his residence at Weston, was esteemed an upright, honorable and industrious citizen, and bore a good name also wherever he had formerly lived. He was engaged here in the wagonmaking business. He was born in Jefferson county, Indiana, and had since resided in different western states. He left to mourn his loss a wife and four children, a mother, three brothers and two sisters. A brother, G. L. Robinson, who lives near Hood River, Oregon, will attend the funeral and look after the affairs of the deceased.

The bereaved wife and family will leave soon for Trinidad, Colo., where a sister of the deceased resides, to make their home there.

Is This Plain Enough. If you have a nagging cough and are losing flesh, go to a drug store, and get a bottle of Shiloh's Consumption Cure. Take two-thirds of it, and then, if you are not benefited, return the bottle to the druggist, and he will return your money. Isn't that fair? No one could ask more. 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1 a bottle. Tallman & Co., leading druggists.

Bicycles can be purchased at the Crescent Agency in the East Oregonian building on installments, payment $1, or more, a week. No interest.
