In 1796 Thomas Jefferson was nominated for vice-president. Before the nomination it was thought he would not accept the office, but he did accept it, was elected and afterwards became president, to the great benefit of his country.

The Parisians are in trouble. They wish the czar of Russia to attend their exposition, but he will not do so, and they do not wish Kaiser William to show himself and yet he threatens to do so. It is another illustration of the fact that royalty is never agreeable to republics, no matter how they take it.

And here in Oregon, even among republicans, the tail of the republican presidential ticket is receiving most of the attention and the rest of it is being devoted to Mark Hanna and what he represents. But the fact is, there is little enthusiasm of any kind, yet it may warm up to a higher heat later when "Teddy" goes to speaking.

W. R. Hearst, of the New York Journal and the San Francisco Examiner, will soon start the publication of a daily paper in Chicago. The probabilities are the paper will be issued commencing with the second of July. It will probably be an afternoon one and will possess the vigor and enterprise of Hearst's other publications.

Senator Morgan, of Alabama, thinks the Chicago platform of 1896 is "a true exposition of the democratic creed, though it has a few marginal notes that are rather too socialistic. "The temper of the criticism against both the party and its principles since 1896 is much milder and fairer, which shows that the democrats are getting together.

Keen experts in the art of "fooling all of the people some of the time" formulated the republican platform at Philadelphia. They had their labor for their pains. The republican platform for 1900 is written in the record of that party since Mr. McKinley's inauguration. Deeds drown the voice of protestations. Sins of omission are not cured by new promises.

An incident occurred at the Philadelphia convention which possesses particular interest to Oregonians. Chairman Lodge sent down a note to McCamant, asking him not to ask for recognition in making a speech seconding Roosevelt's nomination. McCamant gracefully acquiesced, and afterward carried the Oregon banner around the hall, but the delegation was inclined to be sore. Lodge wanted none of McCamant's brand of oratory.

Mayor Harrison of Chicago suggests an important factor in the campaign when he says that the German-Americans citizens will not vote the republican ticket with that party committed to a system of imperialism, such as they renounced when they swore allegiance to the Stars and Stripes. The razzle dazzle of a standing army may have a fascination to the inexperienced, but the men who have once lived under its influences prefer a republic in toto.

Another scandal has arisen in Cuba. It is found that in the university in Havana under professors are being paid $2400 a year each and there were 72 of these professors and 24 assistants. Some of these professors have had no classes at all and others only one or two students. Many of the professors drew other salaries. The matter was brought to General Wood's attention and he immediately put a stop to the abuse, cutting the list down to 46, including assistants, which would appear to be an ample number to teachers when there are only 450 students.

Many Bryan papers are just now calling attention to the wastefulness in connection with an extra election in the state every four years. The La Grande Chronicle says, "the June election in Oregon only serves merely as an excellent political advertisement, which is used extensively in eastern states in the November elections following. This advertisement of Oregon's June election appears in the columns of eastern newspapers under the stereotyped heading of "As Oregon goes, so goes the nation,' and as much political campaign material as possible is made from it. The taxpayer carries this unnecessary burden, derives no benefit from two elections in every four years, and should see that proper legislative action is taken with the view of doing away with the unnecessary practice and expense of holding two elections in one year."

WILLAMETTE VALLEY CROPS.

The exceptionally favorable grain outlook in Eastern Oregon, commented upon Tuesday, unfortunately does not hold good throughout the Willamette valley, says the Portland Telegram where, in many localities, the yield of grain, especially wheat, will be light. Possibly this is not unfortunate either; the sooner farmers of the greater part of the Williamette valley quit raising grain for export, the sooner will their condition improve and their prosperity increase. In some portions of the Williamette valle, especially in Marion, Polk, Yamhill and Linn counties, fair crops of grain can still be raised—good crops, perhaps, with care in cultivation; but most parts of the Williamette valley are better adapted to other purposes—stockraising, dairying, hopraising and horticultutre. A large amount of grain can be profitably raised, but not to put directly upon the market; the profit will be found in feeding it to various kinds of stock—cattle, horses, sheep and hogs. Gradually the farmers of the Williamette valley are perceiving that diversified farming and agricultural industries, other than grain raising, are the means by which they will best thrive. They cannot produce half the wheat per acre that the loose, volcanic soil of the plains, benches and foothills overlooked by the Blue mountains in Eastern Oregon yield; but they have opportunities in other directions that are not so naturally open to the farmers of the Eastern Oregon and Eastern Washington wheat belt. These opportunities they must improve, if they are to prosper.

A SPEECH FROM CALIFORNIA.

When the democratic convention of the state of California convened in Sacramento the other day for the purpose of choosing delegates to the national democratic convention, a new candidate for oratorical honors was brought out by the presentation to the convention of Mr. E. C. Farnsworth of Tulare county, who, on taking the chair, made the following hair-raising speech:

"Gentlemen of the convention—I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me and recognize it as a compliment to Tulare county, which was at the last presidential election the banner democratic county in this state. (Applause.)

"We are on the threshold of the greatest political campaign this country has had for forty years. Grave politic and economic questions confront the people. The time has come when the people will soon decide by their votes whether this county will cut loose from the teachings and traditions of its founders, and swayed by the ideas of monarchies and empires, pursue a policy that belongs only to the militant and imperialistic forms of government; a policy destined to fatten the already gorged coffers of the favored few, and that will rivet the shackles of bondage on the people and bend their backs to heavier burdens and wreck the spirit of liberty that is the genius of our institutions; or whether this country, true to the traditions of its founders, rising superior to the doctrines and principles of monarchy and imperialism, which those now in control seek to fasten on it, will shake off this malign influence, and, continuing in the way marked out by its sage and patriotic founders, be, in fact, as well as in theory, a government deriving its just powers from the consent of the governed, and be forever, as it should be, now the grandest and freest country on earth.

* * *

"Since the last presidential election, the republican party has been in full control of all departments of our government. What legislation has that party enacted that has resulted in benefit to the plain people of this country? What good has it accomplished? What pledge or promise of the platform of that party adopted at its national convention has been kept? On the questions of money, trusts and imperialism, that party has surrendered to the money powers of the land. It has enacted tariff laws whose burdensome taxation on all the necessities of life weighs heaviest on the common people.

"It has enacted an iniquitous stamp act, the supreme purpose of which is to squeeze more revenue from the masses. It has fostered trusts in recompense for campaign support, until all save the financial barons are menaced by reason of this condition. It has enacted a law making gold money the standard, and has put the control of the volume of our money in the hands of the national banks, thereby surrendering this paramount government function to private control.

"The war which has been fought and won was declared with the approval of this country to free an oppressed and suffering people, who were promised the inestimable blessing of self-government, and the invincible hosts of a united nation won a triumphant victory. But when the purpose of that war was accomplished, the administration now in power forgot all the sublime principles of our Declaration of Independence, and in its greed for gain would float our flag in conquest and deny the guarantees of the constitution to the conquered.

"And now we behold old-time republican leaders in open rebellion at the policy of that party; that party whose record has been a shrine to money, and not to men; that party whos sign manual is the dollar mark; that party that turned down the principles of Abraham Lincoln to wear the livery of Mark Hanna.

* * *

"If the liberty of this country is to be preserved it must be through the party that founds its faith on the Declaration of Independence, and that is the democratic party; the party of liberty, justice and equity; the party that believes that the benefits and burdens of government should fall on all alike; the party that believes that the constitution of this country protects all alike, wherever the American flag flies in sovereign right; the party that believes we have American liberty, enshrined on the threshhold of every home, where, in the sacred circle of the fireside, love burns its brightest incense, and men are kings uncrowned, and women queens supreme; a liberty whose foremost champion is that intellectual prince of giants, who towers head and shoulders above all living statesmen, the next president of the United States, the Honorable William Jennings Bryan. (Applause.) He will lead the hosts of democracy to triumphant victory, and our republic will remain an embodiment of liberty, and the home of the free."

BOILS AND CARBUNCLES

These unwelcome visitors usually appear in the spring or summer, when the blood is making an extra effort to free itself from the many impurities that have accumulated during the winter months.

Carbuncles, which are more painful and dangerous, come most frequently on the back of the neck, eating great holes in the flesh, exhaust the strength and often prove fatal. Boils are regarded by some people as blessings, and they patiently and uncomplainingly endure the pain and inconvenience under the mistaken idea that their health is being benefitted, that their blood is too thick anyway, and that this is Nature's plan of thinning it. The blood is not too rich or too thick, but is diseased—is full of poison—and unless relieved the entire system will suffer. The boil or carbuncle gives warning of serious internal troubles, which are only waiting for a favorable opportunity to develop. Many an old sore, running ulcer, even cancer, is the result of a neglected boil.

Baneful Boils

Keep the blood pure, and it will keep the skin clear of all the irritating impurities that cause these painful, disfiguring diseases.

S. S. S. cures boils and carbuncles easily and permanently by reinforcing, purifying and building up the blood and ridding the system of all accumulated waste matter.

Dangerous Carbuncles

S. S. S. is made of roots and herbs which act directly on the blood, and all poisons, no matter how deep-seated, are soon overcome and driven out by this powerful purely vegetable medicine.

S. S. S. is not a new, untried remedy, but for fifty years has been curing all kinds of blood and skin diseases. It has cured thousands, and will cure you. It is a pleasant tonic as well as blood purifier—improves the appetite and digestion, builds up your general health and keeps your blood in order.

Our physicians have made blood and skin diseases a life study—write them fully about your case, and any information or advice wanted will be cheerfully given. We make no charge whatever for this service. Send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases—free. Address, The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. R. M. Pratt, Cave, S. C., writes: "For twenty years I was sorely afflicted with boils and carbuncles caused by impure blood. It is impossible to describe my suffering; part of the time being unable to work or sleep. Several doctors treated me, and I tried all the so-called blood remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good. During the summer of 1898 I was persuaded to try S. S. S., and after taking several bottles was entirely cured, and have had no return of these painful pests up to the present time."

SSS

American Beauties.

There are none fairer or sweeter the world over. Unfettered and untrammeled the American woman queens it as does no other woman in the world. Yet her very energy and ambition are often times her undoing. She attempts too much. Her health is undermined. And when health goes beauty goes also. The use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery re-establishes the health. It cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition and assures perfect assimilation of food and the proper nourishment of the body. It increases the blood supply and eliminates the impurities that clog the system and cloud the complexion.

Mrs. Mary E. Lewis, of Tanner, Gilmer Co., W. Va., writes: "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' cured me when doctors and other medicines failed. For fifteen years I suffered untold misery. I had given up all hope of ever getting well. I could not lie down to sleep, and everything I ate would almost cramp me to death. Was very nervous and could hardly walk across the room. I only weighed ninety pounds when I commenced talking these medicines six years ago; I now weigh one hundred and forty pounds and am having better health than ever before. After being sick so long I have changed to be robust and rosy cheeked. I have taken fifteen bottles each of 'Prescription,' 'Discovery' and 'Pellets.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets act gently but effectively. Women value them.

The most widely circulated "weekly" newspaper in America is the Thrice-a-Week edition of The New York World, and with the presidential campaign now at hand you cannot do without it. Here are some of the reasons why it is easily the leader in dollar a year journalism.

Its political news is absolutely impartial. This fact will be of especial value in the presidential campaign coming on.
