NATIVE SONS WON THE PRIZE.

Final Decision Was in Favor of the Float of That Order.

The board of judges to decide on which was the best float in the illuminated parade on the evening of the Fourth, gave the prize to the Native Sons.

Each one of the judges stated to Mr. Foster that it was extremely difficult to come to a decision for the reason that the float were all excellently gotten up, and deserved special commendation.

Prevented a Tragedy. Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives.

NEWS FROM GOLD SEEKERS.

Loveridge Writes From Dutch Harbor and Brown From Nome City.

Two Alaska letters have come from Pendleton men who are there, Otis Loveridge writing from Dutch Harbor on June 25, as his steamer, the Zealandia, was waiting to get through the ice, and Jack Brown writing from Nome, the Mecca of latter day stampedeers. The letters follow:

Loveridge's Letter.

We are here 5000 strong, on 20 or more vessels, and there are as many more ahead of us lying up against the ice waiting a chance to go ahead to the promised land of gold.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free.

For Pleasure.

Go to the Lehman Hot Springs, formerly the Teal Springs, located in the wilds of the Blue mountains of Utah in the county the heart of the sportman's paradise.

A Good Thing.

Our great-grand mothers' garrets contained the same herbs of a healing found in Karl's Clover Root Tea.

Officers' Bonds Filed.

Heretofore, and now by other officers, it has been customary to have citizens of the county sign bonds for county officers.

Recorder Maloney gave a bond in the sum of $3000.

Sheriff's Blakeley's bond is for $10,000, and the sureties are L. C. Rothrock, H. J. Taylor, Leon Cohen, Henry Lorenzen.

C. E. Macomber, county surveyor, has a bond in the sum of $5000.

Justice Thomas Fitzgerald of the Pendleton district, and Constable

Bentley, of the same district, file bonds for $1000 each, sureties being respectively W. J. Furnish and Frank Frazier, and Thomas Thompson and Alex Drysdale.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury. As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces, such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians.

CELEBRATIONS IN OTHER TOWNS.

The Fourth Was Generally Observed, and the People Enjoyed Themselves.

Unatitah county observed the Fourth more generally than ever before, and took a day off to celebrate the anniversary of the nation's independence.

Fourth of July Committees Monday.

R. Alexander, chairman of the general committee of arrangements for the Fourth of July celebration which passed off so successfully, has called a meeting of all the sub-committees.

Look at Your Face.

And see if it is reflecting health or disease. Karl's Clover Root Tea beautifies the face and complexion, and assures perfect health.
