RATTLESNAKE IN PENDLETON.

Ed Dupois Kills One Three Feet Long as It Lay Coiled Upon the Sidewalk.

For many years before, no rattlesnakes have been seen in this place. In former years, once in a while or a while and a half, these snakes were found on the ground now comprising Pendleton's site, but no one nowadays looks for rattlers in this part of the country.

Thursday, however, without looking for one, Ed Dupois, while walking along the street near the Lent residence, saw a big one coiled up on the sidewalk, and sunning himself between the times when the clouds obscured the orb of day. He lost no time in killing the creature, which measured three feet long and had rattles on the end of his tail to throw at the birds.

The rattlesnake is almost a thing of the past in this part of the country, and even in the mountains, where formerly they were common, they are seldom encountered. There are places in the mountains where once rattlers were found in great numbers where now they are never seen for the reason that sheep have ranged there during the past years, and sheep always exterminate rattlesnakes or other kinds of venomous reptiles. Wherever sheep are ranged, rattlers are not found, many young people living here, 20 to 25 years old, having never seen one of them.

KEEP OFF THE SIDEWALKS.

Wheelmen Must Hereafter Ride Only on Streets—New Ordinance Tomorrow.

Tomorrow, the new bicycle ordinance will become effective. It provides that no one may ride on any walk of the city, and the language of the ordinance is very simple and easily understood. It makes no exception, and hereafter cyclists must remember that if they ride their wheels on any sidewalk in the city they are guilty of violating one of the laws passed by the city council and duly signed by the mayor and recorder.

For sometime the council had received complaints from many persons in various parts of the city, saying that wheelmen were disregarding the rights of pedestrians, and failed to observe the laws formerly standing. For instance, wheelmen, when riding on the walks, were supposed by the terms of the old ordinance to warn with a bell and, if the pedestrian did not move to one side and make full room for the wheelmen to pass, the latter was required to stop and dismount, and walk by the pedestrian. If any wheelman ever did this, no one discovered him in the act. It was quite a familiar experience for people to hear a whir and a rush of something passing through the air like a bullet, and see a wheelman speed by, barely missing the foot passenger, and, indeed, sometimes not missing, but bumping into the footman before picking himself up and growling about the impudence of people who presumed to use the sidewalks when wheelmen desired to train on them for future bicycle races. The complaints became so numerous, that the council was forced to deprive the wheelmen of any privileges of using the walks, and the ordinance passed on Wednesday evening was the result.

The marshal is expected to enforce it to the letter, and it may be necessary to "pinch" a few of the riders before the new regime becomes the accepted one in Pendleton.

Is This Plain Enough.

If you have a nagging cough and are losing flesh, go to a drug store, and get a bottle of Shiloh's Consumption cure. Take two-thirds of it, and then, if you are not benefited, return the bottle to the druggist, and he will return your money. Isn't that fair? No one could ask more. 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1 a bottle. Tallman & Co., leading druggists.

Received Sick Benefits.

To whom it may concern: This is to certify that I have received three weeks sick benefits from the relief fund of the "Order of Pendo."

NO LAYOVER AT UMATILLA.

Passenger Trainmen Now Double Out of Stokes—Pendleton a Railroad Center.

Conductors and brakemen on the O. R. & N line are glad of a chance made by the superintendent whereby they are required no more to lay over for twenty-four hours at Umatilla. The present running of the crews takes them into Stokes, seven miles beyond Umatilla towards Portland, and they double back to Portland. This gives them twenty-four hours longer at Portland. Spokane trainmen go to Stokes and doble back. No change is made in their runs to Pendleton.

Speaking ot the running of the passenger trains now, under the new double train schedule, a conductor said:

"The present card should suit the traveling public. One may now go in every direction twice a day, and no long stopovers necessary. According to the schedule, you may go to Union, La Grande, Baker City or Elgin and return to Pendleton the same day. You may go to Walla Walla and back the same day. You may also go to Umatilla, Echo or Arlington and get back to Pendleton the same day. You may come in from the north in the evening, and go either east or west the same evening. You may come in from the east in the morning, and go west or north the same morning, and you may come in from the west in the morning, and go east or north, and in the evening, and go to the north or east. In short, the company has at last found a schedule that seems to suit all persons who travel, and we who run the trains hear absolutely no complaint regarding the service."

The O. R. & N. Co. has received two new dining cars, one of which will replace the old Union Pacific car which has been in use since the new service went on. To what use the second new diner is to be put the trainmen seen at the station did not know. It had come as far as Huntington, and had not yet been placed in service.

The railroads are anticipating an immense traffic in wheat, in the event the price induces a ready sale. There is a lot of the old wheat yet on hand in the Eastern Oregon and Washington houses, and, if the market causes this to be sold, it will be due out just about when the new crop is ready for transportation to the seaboard. At this time, considerable wheat is going to the seaports, and some of the new crop has been received there. The first car went from Whitman county, shipped by the Pacific Coast Elevator company, and was almost or quite a month earlier than in former years. It fulfilled the promise of the 1900 crop as to quality, and graded No. 1 straight.

With the old crop and the new, the coast facilities will be crowded to handle the cereal output of the Inland Empire.

MUCHLY WANTED, BUT DISAPPEARED.

J. O. Dubois, Wanted Here for Larceny by Bailee, Eludes the Officers.

J. O. Dubois, agent for a nickel-in-the-slot machine, who was recently in Pendleton for a couple of weeks, and who was wanted for larceny by bailee, has slipped away from the ken of the officers at North Yakima, and cannot now be found. Dubois has attracted considerable attention in several towns in Washington, and the other day, according to a North Yakima dispatch, accomplished the forcible abduction of his wife. A telegram from North Yakima in the Spokesman-Review says:

"Grace Dubois, wife of J. O. Dubois, the man for whom different officers have been searching for issuing forged paper and making worthless drafts, has returned home to Pocatello.

"One week ago she came to this city and registered at the Hotel Bartholet. She had no money, and was a total stranger. She related to Claude Briggs the story of how her husband had been detained in the town of Ritzville and sent her here in financial straits. Briggs wrote a friend in Ritzville and learned that Dubois had been arrested there for passing a worthless draft, but the matter was fixed satisfactorily. He advanced some money for the woman's board bill and removed her trunk to his residence, where he gave her temporary home. When Dubois reached this city in a box car he went to the hotel and asked for his wife. On learning she had gone to the Briggs residence he immediately called and was given the freedom of the house.

"Briggs had a telegram from Dubois from Ritzville warning him that he had better settle the remainder of the bill in that town or trouble would ensue. When he delivered this to Dubois the young man left the city. About the same time a telegram was received by the sheriff from Pendleton requesting him to arrest Dubois on the charge of forgery. The officers searched the city and country for two days, but could not locate the man. On Sunday night he came to town in a buggy and forcibly abducted his wife. Briggs interfered and requested him not to take the woman away at that hour of the night, but Dubois insisted, saying: 'If Grace does not come with me now I will kill her and shoot myself in this house.' She hurried away without her trunk.

"They were hastily driven up the Natches creek to the farm home of the Hausers, here Dubois had engaged board under the name of Jacobson. He had stated to the Hauser family that his wife was sick at the Briggs residence in this city, and he must come for her after dark. Hauser then visited the city and secured the sheriff and went after the man Jacobson. He learned of their coming and departed for parts unknown. His present whereabouts are as mysterious as was his sudden arrival in this city on a freight train."

Five Things.

The five diseases for which Shiloh's Consumption Cure is especially recommended, are Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup and Consumption. No medicine ever made by man is equal to it in any respect. Sold under a positive guarantee. Money back if it fails. 25 cts, 50 cts and $1 a bottle. Tallman & Co.

THE INDIAN CAMP BREAKS UP.

Warriors and Squaws Fold their Tepees Like the Arabs and Silently Steal Away.

After more than a week of the joys of dancing and gambling, gathered as they were from all parts of the Umatilla reservation, as well as from the Yakima, Nez Perce and other reserves, the Indians have taken down their tepees, and packed them upon their ponies, (that is, the squaws did), and hit the trail back to their own particular hunting grounds. The bucks deigned not to partake in any of the joys of honest toil, but preferred the rather to engage in the delight of the game, or the grandiloquent war dance, the while the squaws performed the menial duties of the camp, and, at the end of the camping period, get things into shape for traveling. Only one exception to this rule was found in the entire camp—the Yakima Indian who refused to give his name, who carried the little pappoose, and allowed his wife to go without the ordinary burdens of the Indian women.

For a couple of days, the campers have been coming away from the annual assemblage, and there remains only a remembrance of the gorgeous scenes that attracted so many of the white people to the grounds.

ONE FIELD WENT 38 BUSHELS.

John Hagen, Five Miles North of Pendleton, Gets a Good Yield.

One field on the John Hagen farm has all been threshed and the yield determined. It went thirty-eight bushels to the acre. The John Hagen place is five miles north from Pendleton. The field that was threshed was not a large one, and the remainder of the crop may not hold out at that average. It is scarcely expected that it will.

A field of barley, four miles south from Pendleton, has been threshed, and yielded thirty bushels to the acre. This is regarded as a very good turnout for that land.

Some of the farmers further north and west have done considerable threshing, but not many have indicated what are the yields.

G. Miller, whose ranch is six and a half miles south from Pendleton on Dry Tutuilla creek, is hauling wheat to town, threshed this year. He brought in 70 sacks today, between nine and ten thousand pounds, with a six-horse team, which is part of a lot of 500 sacks he has sold to W. S. Byers at fifty cents a bushel. It is red chaff and bluestem mixed, and grades No. 1. It tested 59 pounds to the bushel. He threshed 142 acres and got a yield of 1600 sacks, or about 3796 bushel, for the entire fied of 142 acres. Mr. Miller also threshed 30 acres of barley, which yielded 404 sacks.

HAULING GRAIN BEGINS SOON.

Milling in Transit Rate Said to be an Element in the Problem.

Farmers will soon be hauling their wheat to the grain stations, as the threshing has commenced in many localities. It is said that the refusal of milling in transit rate to W. S. Byers, of the Pendleton Roller Mills, prevents him buying at stations on the W. & C. R. R. road, the local rate being such as to make it impossible for him to buy there and handle the wheat at a profit.

Many farmers who prefer to sell to a mill will therefore haul to Pendleton or other stations on the O. R. & N. lines. The impression has been given in some quarters that the milling in transit rate has been granted Mr. Byers by the W. & C. R. R. Inquiry elicits the information that this is not the case.

An Epidemic of Diarrhoea.

Mr. A. Sanders, writing from Cocoanut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used.
