THE FIRE BOYS ARE SATISFIED.

Appointment of Horace Stillman as Chief Pleases Members of the Department.

All the members of the Pendleton Fire department appear to be satisfied with the appointment of H. J. Stillman made by the council and mayor on Wednesday evening. The administration of Charles Greulich had been highly satisfactory to all, and it was with regret that his resignation was received by the mayor and council. But Mr. Greulich insisted that it be accepted, and gave good business reasons why it was not practicable for him longer to bear the responsibility of managing the department.

Mr. Stillman was first assistant chief, and no one thought of hesitating over the question of advancing him to the position made vacant by the resignation of his chief. Mr. Stillman's promotion is just recognition of a fireman of long and efficient service. For many years he has been one of the most active firemen in the city, and has never failed on all occasions to do his duty. He stands well with the members of the department, and will be loyally supported by every company. The business interests also are pleased with the appointment, and in fact, everyone seems to be satisfied that the department's affairs will be in good hands with Horace Stillman at the position of chief.

Pendleton's department is now in the best condition it has been since its formation. The membership is filled with young men of activity and experience in fighting fires, and the placing of hydrants in so many places all over the city has made it possible to handle conflagrations quickly.

A WOMAN'S GRATITUDE.

A Montana Woman Writes in Praise of Newbro's Herpicide.

Butte, Aug. 26.—Newbro Drug Company, City—Dear Sirs: For several years I have been troubled with dandruff, causing me much annoyance, and my hair became very thin. I have used Newbro's Herpicide for a month and the dandruff has disappeared and my hair is becoming much heavier than formerly. New hair is growing where there was none, and I am very thankful to you for the benefit I have received from Newbro's Herpicide.

Very truly yours,
MRS. C. B. FOSTER,
No. 985 Utah Ave., Butte, Mont.

JACKSON STREET TO BE SPRINKLED.

Offer of the Council for Water Free Is to be Accepted.

People living on Jackson street will have the street sprinkled this summer. A subscription paper has been circulated, and many signatures obtained, pledging money to defray the expense of employing a man and team to do the work. The city will give the water free, the citizens paying for putting it on the street from sprinkler wagons.

The subject is being agitated somewhat in other parts of the city, and it may be that other streets will be sprinkled. There is a general desire to have it done, and sentiment is growing in favor of making it the rule instead of the exception that Pendleton streets are free from dust.

The law holds both maker and circulator of a counterfeit equally guilty. The dealer who sells you a dangerous counterfeit of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve risks your life to make a little larger profit. You can not trust him. DeWitt's is the only genuine and original Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and all skin diseases. See that your dealer gives you DeWitt's Salve. It instantly relieves and radically cures indigestion and all stomach disorders. Tallman & Co., leading druggists.

MEACHAM SUMMER BIBLE SCHOOL.

Eastern Oregon Presbytery Will Conduct it From July 31 to August 5.

The Eastern Oregon Presbytery has arranged to conduct a summer Bible school at Meacham, at the summit of the Blue mountains, the dates being from July 31 to August 5, inclusive. W. H. Bleakney, of the Pendleton Academy, has charge of the arrangements, and will answer inquiries regarding the details.

The desire is that workers of all denominations be present, and effort will be made to make the attendance profitable.

The announcements say that these well known persons are to be there and take part in the daily programs: Rev. H. C. Thompson, D. D., of Union, Ore; Rev. W. S. Holt, D. D., of Portland, Ore.; Secretary W. H. Stone, Y. M. C. A., of Portland, Ore.; Rev. Van Nuys, La Grande, Ore.; Rev. J. R. N. Bell, of Baker City, Ore.; Rev. F. L. Forbes, of Pendleton, Ore., and others.

Meacham is situated on the main line of the O. R. & N. road, at the summit of the mountains between Pendleton and La Grande, and is an ideal place for camping. The hotels furnish board and room for $1 per day, or meals alone at 25 to 50 cents each. Camping sites are easily found, and the expenses may be kept very low for parties going there.

There will be a normal class and a round table during the mornings and recreation in the afternoon, with lectures in the evening.

Music will be a feature of the school.

Judge A. P. Tugwell, of the Tacoma Sun, is in the city and will deliver an address tomorrow, Saturday evening, at the court house, on "Fraternal Orders."

John Duncan, of Stage Gulch, is in town today. He thinks wheat and other grains will not come quite up to expectations as to yield. The quality is first-class, however.

Judge and Mrs. W. R. Ellis will leave Heppner in a week or two for the coast, where Mrs. Ellis expects to remain during the summer. Judge Ellis will be here each month.

O. G. Chamberlain, of Hood River, is here today as the guest of his brother, W. D. Chamberlain. He will go to Athena, and he may decide to remain in this county permanently.

Mrs. Homer Hallock left this morning for Portland and Salem, to visit friends for several weeks. She was accompanied by Mrs. Dutton, of Heppner, sister of Mr. Hallock, who has been visiting here for some time.

Misses Celesta and Augusta Moorhouse entertained a number of friends on Thursday evening, at their home on Water street, in honor of their cousin, Miss Eleanor Moorhouse, of Walla Walla. High five was played, and the twenty guests given a delightful evening.

Frank Welch is in town from the John Day country, where he has cattle with his brother, William Welch. The feed is holding out plentifully and all kinds of livestock are doing remarkably well. Water is abundant in all the canyons. He will return to the John Day in a few days.

A. P. Bradbury, the widely known comedian of the Scandinavian dialect, who has been here frequently during the past ten years, is a guest at the Hotel Pendleton. Mr. Bradbury makes his home in Portland, and incidentally sells crackers and biscuits and other products of a cracker house.

Had a Narrow Escape.

The little son of John Grief was run over by a stacker in Walla Walla on Thursday and received injuries which may prove fatal. The little fellow attempted to get on the stacker, as it was being drawn through the streets, slipped and fell under its rear wheel. The wheel passes directly over the lad's body, and it is a wonder he was not killed instantly. The wheel of the stacker was a half foot in width, and this alone saved the lad from immediate death.

BOYS CANNOT BE MERMAIDS

Those who Disport Themselves in Swimming Places Near Town Must be More Circumspect.

Marshal Heathman has had some trouble with the boys who have been accustomed to go in swimming at points close by the city, and where they are sources of annoyance and embarrassment of ladies who may be driving or walking out from town. The marshal has warned several of the youths that they will not be allowed to imitate the mermaids, but must be more circumspect in the future. In fact, he has temporarily laid the heavy hand of the law upon some of the offending youths, and given thus the intimation that worse experiences will follow unless the nuisance is abated.

This view of the swimming question was caused by complaints made by quite a number of persons.

Those who have the enforcement of the law have not been unreasonable in the matter, remembering doubtless the days when they went off to the "swimming holes" on summer afternoons, and enjoyed the greatest pleasure that comes into a boy's life—"goin' swimmin'". But since the boys, as boys are apt to do, grew careless, it was necessary to dig up the "iron hand of the law" from its sometime obscurity, and lay it suggestively upon the heads of the young fellows who had forgotten that such a thing existed.

H. T. Hill, of Helix, has finished threshing his fall barley and the yield is nearly 60 bushels per acre. Threshing in the Helix neighborhood will be general on and after next Monday. The crop will be strictly number 1.
