WON A FINE PIANO.

Mrs. Charles White Held the Lucky Number in the Drawing.

The fine Weber piano that was put up by the Cleaver Brothers Dry Good com pany to be drawn under the ticket plan was won by Mrs. Charles White, who lives on Birch creek. Her number was 10,502. The drawing was held several evenings ago, and the holder of the lucky number did not call for the prize until Friday. The number had been advertised from the HOTEL PENDLETON REPAIRS.

Workmen Now Engaged in Repairing the Lobby of That Hostelry.

Painters and paper hangers are en-gaged in the lobby of the Hotel Pen-dleton, and will soon have it bright and attractive in its new dress. The lobby of this hotel is one of the roomiest and most convenient of all the hotels in the Pacific Northwest, and will be improved much by the work now being done.

Ever since the present proprietors, Messrs. Van Dran Brothers, took and repairing the furniture. New paper and painting have improved the place greatly, and the work is only tablished partly done. It will be continued until Stewart, the entire house is made clean and new in appearance, from top to bottom.

Regarding Personal Baggage.

The Great Northern and Northern Carpets, Pacific have adopted a rule that no Pacific have adopted a rule that no package weighing more than 250 pounds will be accepted or checked as personal baggage. The O. R. & N. and other western roads have adopted the rule, which is being strictly enforced. Eastern lines have been in the habit of checking trunks and packages without regard to weight and correcting for the excess, but this rule will bereafter be abolished, especially for baggage destined to be handed by the western roads.
