PEOPLE WHO ARE HERE FOR A DAY.

Jack Cushing, who has traveled through this territory for several years, but who has been in Portland during the past six months, is once more "on the road" and will make this territory his time on. Mr. Cushing has been in California for a portion of the time he has been away, and has this to say: "The country of which Pendleton is one of the centers is known throughout the entire Pacific coast region as one of the richest in the United States. People in California are accustomed to refer to it as a locality in which everyone is prosperous, and where business houses are always firm in their credits. The Inland Empire takes second place to no section in the country." Mr. Cushing now sells C. & S. axle grease, having made an engagement with a new firm.

Horton-Blue. Harold H. Horton and Miss Nellie May Blue were married on Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Baptist parsonage, the Rev. Mr. Patterson, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating. Only a few friends of the young couple were present. Mr. and Mrs. Horton left at once for their new home at Cayuse station, where they began housekeeping. Mr. Horton is agent at that place for Balfour, Guthrie & Company, having charge of the warehouse. He is a young man of the highest character, and bears the universal respect of everyone who knows him. Miss Blue is a daughter of A. D. Hine, living nine miles east from Pendleton, and is an estimable young lady with a host of friends.

WALLA WALLA NEWS. A Boy's Conscience Causes Him to Confess a Crime. Walla Walla, Aug. 8.—Charles Davenport, a 14-year-old boy recently released from the Oregon reform school, came to this city last night and confessed to the crime of passing forged checks. The misdemeanor to which the young man acknowledges guilt occurred in Walla Walla about three years ago, the pen work being done by a man named Stone and the name used being that of A. D. Nichols of College Place. Davenport says his conscience hurt him so he could not keep still. About three years ago Stone and Davenport came to this city from Spokane where they had been engaged in some shady transactions and began operations by circulating forged checks and drafts for small amounts. When the officers were put on their track they went to Pendleton where they were captured and tried for forgery. Stone was sent to the Oregon penitentiary for a term of two years and Davenport got 15 months in the reform school. He claims he desires to lead a better life and felt he could not do right while he remained unpunished for his crime in this city. He entered no plea for mercy and is awaiting a hearing in the county jail. Abused a Horse. "Boncar" Kelly, a notorious police court visitor, is being much sought for at present for the alleged crime of beating a horse to death Monday on the Punington farm near Present. It appears that Kelly, who was employed as a farm hand, tied the horse up for the purpose of administering chastisement and the animal pulled back in such a way as to strangle itself to death. Beat His Mother. William Jackson, a laborer, was arrested for assaulting his mother who lived with him here. Mrs. Jackson is an old woman and very feeble. She was brought here last spring from Portland by her son, who has since been employed on the sewers. The attention of the police was called to the place by the neighbors and it was found that Jackson had returned home in an intoxicated condition and was beating his mother. This is not the first time such a thing has happened for he was arrested about two months ago for breaking her arm but nothing was done as the old woman refused to appear against him. Mrs. Jackson being not in a condition to appear against her son she was taken to St. Mary's hospital for treatment. False Report of a Murder. A report was circulated very generally today that another murder was committed in Walla Walla Tuesday night. The report was false. It is unaccountable how the report gained currency.

ST. PAUL'S SCHOOL. This Favorite Old School Taking on a New Lease of Life. Miss Julia Pike Fay, the head of the musical department pronounce her a skilled musician. Miss Fay has received the best procurable training in the United States, and comes from a family of musicians. Dr. Blodgett speaks of Miss Fay in the highest terms and considers the Garden City fortunate in securing such a brilliant pianist. Miss Nellie Dibble, M. A., Stanford, comes with the strongest endorsement from her alma mater, where she has been assistant instructor. Dr. Jordan, president of Stanford, writes: "Miss Dibble is one of the three best teachers of history I have known, the other two being men. I am pleased to have her represent that department of our university." Miss Helen Delphine, a native of France, will be the instructor in French.

ASTORIA'S REQUEST. Commercial Association Could Not Endorse the Memorial. The Commercial Association of Pendleton, Judge James A. Fee president, and F. F. Wamsley secretary, and a number of representative citizens present, considered a memorial from the Astoria Chamber of Commerce, relative to railway rates, and voted not to endorse it in its present form. This action was taken upon the ground that the Astoria communication was misleading. The Astoria Chamber of Commerce had sent the Association here a request that a memorial for rate privileges like those enjoyed by Portland, Seattle, Tacoma and Everett be granted them. Astoria now has a terminal rate for goods and commodities originating in the east and shipped to the coast. What is desired is a blanket rate applicable also to products of this interior shipped eastward, thus making of Astoria a port for ocean shipments on a footing with the cities mentioned. It was fully considered, and finally decided to refuse the request to endorse the memorial, on the ground that it tended to misstate the actual conditions existing. The memorial set forth that the towns mentioned enjoy such a rate, but also stated that certain other towns had it, several of the towns being really not in the list of those which are given the rate asked. Seek Interior Towns' Influence. It is desired by the Astoria people that the influence of commercial organizations in the Inland Empire be secured in support of their demand from the railways. Messrs. Van Dusen and Scheraga, of the Astoria Chamber of Commerce, were in Pendleton a few days ago, and endeavored to enlist the support of prominent men here. They unanimously referred the matter to the Commercial Association, preferring that any stand taken in the premises be taken officially by the city's recognized commercial body. It was again distinctly understood that the Association here was willing to assist Astoria in any manner possible, but that the memorial as presented was in such language and set forth such alleged facts as rendered it impossible to endorse it. A committee of three, J. A. Borie, T. C. Taylor and E. D. Boyd, was appointed to consider it and later to report to the association.

MURPHY NOT A BOXER. A well known Chinaman, called by most people Murphy, who chafes around town, was in one of the business offices on the main street, and was "dickering" over the price he was to receive for doing some scrubbing. A gentleman who is at the head of the institution called from an inner office for a subordinate to make a regular "bargain" with Murphy, and the Chinaman, misunderstanding, thought he was intended to insult "Boxer" whereupon, he appeared at the office door and violently protested that he was not a Boxer, but a respectable Mongolian who did not slaughter Christians. This assurance was given in all good faith, and relieved the apprehensions of those who were there, lest he begin on them. Local Chinaman may be easily excited by calling them Boxers.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK. Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide. Frederick Mannord, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. In 20 days, he says, he had hair all over his head, and on July 2 he writes, and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish. Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroys the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and starts the new growth in weeks. Millions will be spent in politics this year.
