BACK TO LEWISTON.

[F]arewell Party Tendered Hal Beach By His Sister Mrs. T. G. Hailey.

A party was given by Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Hailey at the Hailey home on Jo Hill last evening in honor of Mrs. Hailey's brother, Mr. Hal Beach, of Lewiston, Idaho, who has been spending his vacation here. Quite a number of young ladies and gentlemen gathered upon this occasion and passed a pleasant evening in dancing, social games, convention, etc. Ben Burroughs contributed a song as his number on the entertainment program, while Al Waffle did a slight of hand turn that mystified and pleased the onlooker.

In addition to the host and hostess and the guest of honor, the following were present: Misses Flo Halleck, Mabel Nye, Ted Thompson, Mabel Perkins, Ethel Parsons, Jessie Hartman, Esma Sawtelle, Dena Hendley, Fanchon Borie, Nellie Cameron and Evelyn Starkweather; James Welch, Earl Borie, Charles Cameron, Chester Foster, Ralph Wade, Al Waffle, Sol Baum, Ben Burroughs, Ralph Coon, Royal Sawtelle, Will Sturgis and Berkeley Hailey.

Hal Beach left on the O. R. & N. train at 1 o'clock last night, and was escorted to the depot by many young friends, with whom he has become quite a favorite during his visit. He returned home via Umatilla.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and sufferng. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutley cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on Tallman & Co., Druggists, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

WAR BETWEEN STOCKMEN.

The Sheep and Cattle Raisers of the Burnt River Section Cannot Agree.

Pete Miller, of the butcher firm of Carter & Miller, of Baker City, returned home Tuesday from Harney county, where he purchased 1000 head of mutton sheep and drove them over the trail to this city, passing through the upper Burnt river section, says the Democrat.

Mr. Miller got his band of sheep along the route without mishap until he arrived in the vicinity of Hereford. Here he lost about 20 head from eating saltpetre thrown out on the range by cattle owners.

A range battle between cattle and sheep owners is imminent in the Burnt river section, according to Mr. Miller's statement. The Malheur divide is the separating ground of the deadly foes. Sheep men are forced to keep their bands on the Malheur side of the divide and any infraction of the order promulgated by cattle men will precipitate a fight to the death. The sheep men are equally determined to run their bands wheresoever they please and shooting is likely to commence at any moment. Every mother's son of them on both sides ride the range armed to the teeth, and are determined to die if they must in the protection of what seems to them to be their rights.

Brave Men Fall.

Victim to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaive, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is a run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at Tallman & Co.'s drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Councilmen Are Scattered.

The councilmen of Pendleton are scattered to the four winds of heaven, so no meeting could be held last evening. H. F. Johnson is at Bingham springs, a sequestered spot where he is enjoying himself, having lain aside his aldermanic cares; C. A. Frazier is near Echo, on other business; T. B. Wells is out on the ranges south of Pendleton, and only comes to town occasionally. His visit to Pendleton last Saturday was seized upon as a favorable opportunity for a special meeting. Dr. Ed. J. Summerville is looking after his interests in the mining country and in connection with the new town of Lawton, in which, together with a syndicate of Pendleton gentlemen, he is heavily interested. G. A. Hartman is off on a trip away to the south in the vicinity of Desolation lake.

A Good Thing.

Our great-grand mothers' garrets contained the same herbs of all healing found in Karl's Clover Root Tea. They gave our ancestors strength, kept the blood pure, and will do the same for you if you say so. Price 25 cts and 50 cts. Tallman & Co., leading druggists.

B. E. Kenedy's New Venture.

B. E. Kennedy has purchased a half interest in the Pendleton Tribune from E. P. Dodd, and will become business manager of that paper on September 1. Mr. Kennedy is well known throughout Umatilla county, having been agent for several grain and warehouse companies at different times, and will enter upon the business in connection with his new venture with all the abandon of enthusiastic young manhood. Mr. Dodd will continue to hold the editorial reins of the paper.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Wheat is Coming in Slowly and Prices Offered Vary Greatly.

Pendleton, Aug. 16.—Wheat is coming in slowly to the warehouses for different reasons, the principal ones being a scarcity of teams for hauling and delay in harvesting. Horses and wagons are used with the threshing outfits, on headers, etc., so they are not available just now for hauling. The end of the harvesting season is near at hand, which will release the transportation facilities and the warehouses will fill up. Some wheat is coming into the mills, for they have to have it in order to keep grinding, and the result is they are paying more for the cereal than can be paid by exporters under present conditions. Few sales are reported by those buying for export—none of great magnitude. Several pools have been formed by farmers for the purpose of securing a trifle more than could be obtained for small lots, but the deals have failed, the farmers being in such an independent position that they refuse the best offer exporters are willing to quote. Owners of wheat are natural bulls and at present, particularly farmers are confident that prices will advance, consequently are holding, and it is safe to say that many of them would continue to hold, even if they could get an offer of several cents above present prices. There have been sales made during the past week at 47 to 48c, but some of the warehouse men think that it is altogether too high, and refuse to bid against any such prices.

The following conversation is a sample of what can be heard almost any day: Farmer—"I have been offered 47 cents a bushel for my wheat, but refused it."

Scribe—"Would you take 50 cents a bushel for it"

Farmer—"No, not just at present. I am in no hurry to sell with the present outlook."

Wheat in Portland.

Portland, Aug. 16.—The Commercial Review, in its issue of today, says: New-crop wheat is moving slowly this way, but it will be another three weeks before there will be anything like a free movement. Farmers have sold but little so far, although bids are out above the true market value. Private advices from interior points state farmers have very advanced ideas as to selling prices, and show a storng disposition to hold out for more money. Returns of field work generally show reduced yields form the expectations that growers had six weeks ago. Reports from the Valley are discouraging, and the yield will hardly come up to 2,000,000 to 2,500,000 bushels, less than 60 per cent, of a usual crop in that territory. Samples from east of the mountains are very good, from the appearance of the berry, which is large and plump. Trading can hardly be said to have commenced, excepting a few trades made in the interior. The present outlook for higher prices is rather discouraging. Shipowners will not reduce their asking price on tonnage to be had. Exporters are hesitating in paying extreme prices for loading in the future; hence there is a deadlock between the shipowner and exporter, and the farmer will have to pay the heavy carrying charges, especially in view of the steady decline in wheat abroad. Exporters are in no humor to stock up with tonnage. We quote Club Walla Walla, on export basis, 55c; valley, 56c; Bluestem, 58 to 59c—from 1c to 3c higher than has been paid by interior dealers during the week, mostly on speculative account, and some above the price quoted here.

Wheat in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—Although there is no special activity displayed in the wheat market of the leading cities and towns of California, yet the movement has been a steady one, and considerable old and new wheat has been secured by exporters, who now have a fair amount of tonnage at hand to provide for; but as perhaps the greater proportion are September vessels, it will be inferred that there is no urgency for grain and no marked competition amongst buyers. The average shipping grade is steady at $1.05 to $1.07½ per cental for shipping; milling, $1.07½ to $1.10. These figures are above spot value at present freight rates, but exporters who secured tonnage at earlier periods, when freights were lower, seem disposed to sacrifice tonnage profits to get loading stuff for the few vessels to be dispatched this month. At the call-board speculation shows no improvement, and trading is of a listless character. Wheat, however, is steady. Receipts at tidewater warehouses are increasing, and stocks in sight about as large as usual at this time of the season.

Wool in Boston.

Boston, Aug. 16.—The wool market shows a better tone. Wools appear to have become established in price, and there are fewer weak spots in the market. For good lines of territory, fine medium and fine, 16 to 17c; scoured, 50c; staple, 52 to 53c; Idaho fine medium and fine, 16 to 17c; scoured, 50c; staple, 52 to 53c; Australians, scoured basis, spot prices, combining superfine, nominal, 82 to 87c; good, 80 to 82c.

Wool in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—Wool—Spring, Nevada, 11 to 13c; Eastern Oregon, 10 to 14c; Valley Oregon, 16 to 18c. Fall—Mountain lambs, 9 to 10c; Humboldt and Mendocino, 10 to 12c.

Wool in Portland.

Portland, Aug. 16.—Wool—Valley, 12 to 13c for coarse, 15 to 16c for best; Eastern Oregon, 10 to 13c; mohair, 25c per pound.

Skins, Pelts and Hides.

Portland, Aug. 16.—Sheepskins, shearlings, 15 to 20c; short-wool, 25 to 35c; medium-wool, 30 to 50c; long-wool, 60c to $1 each.

Pelts, bearskins, each, as to size, $5 to $15; cubs, each, $1 to $5; badger, each, 50c, wildcat, 25 to 35c; housecat, 5 to 25c; fox, common gray, 40c to $1; do red, $1.75 to $3.50, do cross, $2.50 to $6; lynx, $2 to $4.50; mink, 40c to $1.85.

Dry hides, No. 1, 16 pounds and upward, 14 to 15c; dry kip, No. 1, 5 to 16 pounds, 15c per pound dry calf, No. 1, under 5 pounds, 15 to 16c; dry salted, one-third less than dry flint; salted hides, sound steers, 60 pounds and over, 7 to 8c; do 50 to 60 pounds, 7½c.

Eastern Livestock.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Choice steers and Westerns steady, others slow to 10 to 15c lower; good to prime steers, $5.30 to $5.95; poor to medium, $4.60 to $5.25; selected feeders, steady, $4 to $4.75; mixed stockers, $3.25 to $3.90; cows, $2.80 to $4.40; heifers, $3 to $4.90 canners, $2 to $2.75; bulls, strong, $2.75 to $3.60; calves, strong, $5.75 to $6.85; Texas-fed steers, $4.25 to $5; grassers, $3.25 to $4.20; bulls, $2.50 to $3.25.

Hogs—Choice to good, steady to a shade higher; others weak; mixed and butchers', $5 to $5.30; good to choice heavy, $4.95 to $5.30; rough heavy, $4.75 to $4.90; light, $5.05 to $5.27½; bulk of sales, $5 to $5.20.

Sheep—Sheep and lambs generally stronger; good to choice wethers, $4.25 to $4.60; fair to choice mixed, $3.75 to $4.20; Western sheep, $4 to $4.40; Texas sheep, $3 to $4; native lambs, $4.25 to $4.75; Western lambs, $4.75 to $5.65.

SEPARATOR AND WHEAT BURNED.

William Gillette, Claus Lemkie, Steve Hampton and Jack McCarthy Lose.

A fire of considerable proportions Wednesday afternoon destroyed William Gillette's separator and a large amount of wheat for Jack McCarthy, Claus Lempkie, and Steve Hampton. The fire occurred on Mr. McCarthy's place 10 miles northwest of Pendleton, commencing at half past 3 o'clock. The fire started in the separator and not from the engine. The separator and steam power were the property of William Gillette and were at work on a setting of wheat for Mr. McCarthy, and bad about 60 or 75 sacks left to thresh when the trouble commenced. That amount was destroyed and the fire spread to a large pile of sacks of wheat which had already been threshed, the outside sacks of the tiers only being destroyed.

Then the fire spread rapidly to Steve Hampton's stacked wheat and destroyed from 900 to 1000 sacks, and proceeding along burned one setting of wheat for Claus Lempike, 450 to 500 sacks.

From the place where the fire started it cut a path from 150 to 300 yards wide, and stopped only when it reached the ploughed field of Carl Hansen, distant a mile and a quarter from the place of beginning.

In endeavoring to unhitch a team of horses from one of the wagons, during the excitement, Mr. McCarthy burned his right wrist.

Arthur Matthews came at once to Pendleton and notified Mr. Gillette of the accident. He immediately telegraphed to Portland for a new separator and told Mr. Matthews to return and hold the crew and to inform them that he would be running again by next Monday. It will be remembered that Mr. Gillette lost a separator by fire last harvest, it being stored at the time in a shed in north Pendleton. The separator lost yesterday was practically new, having only been used for a short time last season, and was worth $1250, and was insured.

Mr. McCarthy's loss of 200 sacks of wheat is also covered by insurance. It is stated that Steve Hampton's 900 to 1000 sacks was insured, but Claus Lempkie carried no insurance, and is consequently loser of his 450 to 500 sacks.

Mr. Gillette left on the W. & C. R. railway for the Palouse country last evening and expects to return tomorrow.

For Whooping Cough.

"Both my children were taken with whooping cough," writes Mrs. O. E. Dutton, of Danville, Ills. "A small bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar gave such relief that I used a 50 cent bottle, which saved me a doctor's bill." Nothing else so good. Koeppen's Pharmacy.

MILTON WILL EXHIBIT FRUIT.

Spirit of Enthusiasm Exhibited By the People of That Section.

The exhibit of fruit from Milton to be made at the Street Fair and Harvest Carnival here, September 18 to 22, is going to be one of the finest ever seen in this section of the country. A representative of the Fair and Carnival Association visited Milton on Wednesday and found a spirit of such hearty co-operation and such unbounded enthusiasm on the part of the Miltonites, that, instead of having to urge them to make an exhibit, the task became one merely of organization.

Scott Ritchie and James Kirkland, both well known in Pendleton, and two men well fitted to attend to details in connection with the gathering of fruit samples, have very kindly interested themselves in the matter, and propose to see that their section of the county is worthily represented at this place. These two gentlemen have a general reputation for public spirit and enterprise.

That they have interested themselves is sufficient warrant to believe that the results will be far beyond the limits of mere satisfaction.

Orchardists, without exception, are more than willing to contribute their best samples of fruit, and, when the Milton orchardists contribute their best samples of fruit, the people of other sections need not hope to engage in any rivalry successfully.

As an instance of the spirit shown by the prominent fruit men of that region, Sam Miller, mayor of Milton, and an authority upon the raising of fruit, replied to an inquiry as to his intention in the matter as follows:

"Why, certainly, I intend to assist in every way that is within my power. I will not only donate samples of fruit, but I will pack them carefully and in a proper manner, in order that they may be transported to Pendleton in shape to make the best possible showing. I am at your command to aid the enterprise in every way."

The voting for carnival queen has started with considerable enthusiasm, and will be of increasing interest as the days pass.
