A few more of those bronze buttons made of the cannon captured from the Spanish at Manila, on May Day, 1898, are still obtainable at the Peoples Warehouse. The proceeds are to be used in erecting a monument at Portland to the members of the Second Oregon who lost their lives in the Philippines. The button makes a pretty souvenir and the money from the sale thereof goes to a worthy cause. Only a few more days remain in which these buttons may be obtained in Pendleton.

Lee Berry was before Recorder Beam this morning, having been taken up by the police for being drunk. The recorder fined him $10. After Mr. Berry had gone to the door with Marshal Hedthman on his way to jail to serve out his sentence, for he had no money, he turned and went back to Mr. Beam, and gave him the grand halting sign of distress used by a certain popular secret society of which the recorder is a member. Mr. Beam ruled that the man wasn't at that time in good standing—with him, at least—so snubbed him.

THE VOTE OF WASHINGTON. Levi Ankeny Gives Some Interesting Data Concerning It.

A careful checking up of all the election precincts of the state shows that 23,000 Washington citizens who voted in 1896 failed to exercise the elective franchise in 1898," said Levi Ankeny the other day. He was discussing the political situation with Charles Sweeney of Spokane, and a newspaper man while on the way home from the recent Republican convention, says the Spokesman-Review. He continued: "These figures are approximate, but correct. The checking up was done carefully from the poll-books and registration books in each individual precinct in the entire state, by men thoroughly well posted. The results of their labors show that of these 23,000 voters about 17,000 could not be classed in the republican column.

Now the question arises: How many of these voters are of the opinion now they were in 1896 and how many of them will vote this year and how many stay at home? That is a matter we do not know the right of. It will be of course in the success of the republican ticket in this state this fall. We in southeastern Washington will do our part, but we must not be over confident. If we do not poll our vote the result may be serious."

Then the conversation became general. Both Mr. Sweeney and Mr. Ankeny asserted that practically all of the silver republicans have gone back to the old party. Mr. Sweeney said: "All have, except a few politicians." It was pointed out that since 1896 there has been a large influx of population into Washington, and the claim was made that this population is mostly republican. "Why, they are all intelligent people," declared Mr. Sweeney, "and must be republicans."

Both the gentlemen said that one of the chief reasons why the state "is becoming Washington" is so much to gain from the protective commerce with the Philippines and cannot support an anti-expansion policy." Throughout the conversation Mr. Sweeney was most emphatic not only concerning the result in Washington, but claiming Idaho, Montana and the nation for McKinley. Mr. Ankeny spoke earnestly of the "danger of over confidence" and of the necessity of active work.

SUTHERLAND IS SANE.

The Date of His Preliminary Examination Has Not Been Fixed.

Walla Walla, Aug. 22.—Ed Sutherland, the alleged assaulter of Miss Emma Kilwell, is still confined in the county jail. No attorney has been appointed to defend him nor has the date of his preliminary examination been fixed.

Those who see him daily and have an opportunity to study his actions say he is not exhibiting insanity, or if he is, he goes about it in an unusually queer way. He responds quickly when ordered to move about in the performance of his daily duties, but seldom speaks. He is very fond of reading the papers, which is another mark of sanity.

Miss Kilwell is rapidly recovering and may be in condition to give testimony by September 1.

Placed Under $5,000 Bonds. The postponed hearing in the case of C. A. Anderson and G. McCormick charged with grand larceny was finished yesterday before Justice Glasgow and the defendants placed under $5000 bonds each to appear at the next term of the superior court.

BUYS A RAILROAD.

The O. R. & N. Company Buys the Ilwaco Railway and Navigation Co's Line.

Portland, Aug. 22.—The Portland Oregonian of yesterday says: "It is considered by many as quite certain that the purchase of the property of the Ilwaco Railway & Navigation company by the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company will be consummated in the near future and that the railroad will be built by the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Co. from Frankfort, a point 90 miles below Portland on the Washington shore, to Ilwaco. This will give the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company control of the seaside travel between Portland and North Beach. Behind this is the prospect of the Oregon Railroad &
