GENERAL NEWS.

Eleven deaths occurred from heart-failure in New York city on Monday.

The troops have been withdrawn from Akron, Ohio, where an attempt was made to lynch a negro rapist.

An official contradiction has been issued of the rumor of an impending prohibition of the export of Russian cereals.

The forest fires in the Yellowstone National Park have been extinguished. The fire was confined mostly to dead and down timber.

Several persons were injured in the crowded streets in Chicago, during Monday, and one aged veteran was killed. Rev. Norman G. Whitney of Gray Eagle, Minn., a veteran, was killed by being trampled on by a runaway horse.

Brossi, the assassin of King Humbert, ineffectually attempted to commit suicide Sunday. He now refuses food, saying he has no intention to give the bourgeois the satisfaction of seeing him executed. He shows no failure of intellect.

The present epidemic of cholera in India is one of the worst outbreaks on record. The bacilic plague is child's play, compared with it. The natives are dying like flies at the rate of 3000 a week. The epidemic is undoubtedly due to the abolition of the scanty water supply during the famine.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS.

The public schools of Walla Walla open Monday next, the 3d of September.

Floyd Husely, aged 13 years, is in jail at Walla Walla on a charge of burglary.

The Southern Pacific company has resumed work on its railroad shop at Portland, which will cost more than $100,000.

The Pinkham Record

Is a proud and peerless record. It is a record of cure, of constant conquest over obstinate ills of women; ills that deal out despair; suffering that many women think is woman's natural heritage; disorders and displacements that drive out hope.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

cures these troubles of women, and robs menstruation of its terrors.

No woman need be without the safest and surest advice, for Mrs. Pinkham counsels women free of charge. Her address is Lynn, Mass.

Can any woman afford to ignore the medicine and the advice that has cured a million women?

ROYAL

Absolutely Pure BAKING-POWDER

No inferior or impure ingredients are used in Royal for the purpose of cheapening its cost; only the most highly refined and healthful.

Royal Baking Powder imparts that peculiar sweetness, flavor and delicacy noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, rolls, etc., which expert pastry cooks declare is unobtainable by the use of any other leavening agent.

Alum is used in making cheap baking powders. If you want to know the effect of alum upon the tender linings of the stomach, touch a piece to your tongue. You can raise biscuit with alum baking powder, but at what a cost to health!
