Louis Rieth arrived on the W. & C. R. train from Spokane at 12 o'clock today.

Mrs. Dr. Frank will leave this evening for her five months' tour of Europe.

T. A. Lienallen, agent of the Western Warehouse company, at Adams, is in Pendleton today.

L. L. Montague and family left on the morning train for Arlington, where they will visit relatives.

Miles Kemler, son of D. Kemler, has returned from Portland, whither he went to have his eyes treated.

The 6-year-old boy of Mrs. Edie Hopper, who resides near the Main street bridge, is quite sick with fever.

Miss Dena Hendley and Miss Emma Sawtelle will spend Sunday with Miss Blanche Horne at her home on Birch creek.

Johnny Scott, of Helix, is in town today. He harvested 10,000 sacks of wheat and has finished hauling it to the warehouses.

Mrs. Clifton Cleaver has returned from a visit of two months with relatives and friends at Eugene and other Willamette valley points.

Miss Belle Murphy has taken a position as stenographer and typewriter in the office of the Northwest Livestock and Woolgrowers' Journal.

J. P. Rowley, a popular young man who has been with the Peoples Warehouse, will leave tonight for Portland, having accepted a position with Meier & Frank.

Miss Maggie Leonard, a teacher in the public schools, who has been spending her vacation with her mother at Denver, Colo., returned to Pendleton this morning.

Miss Daisy Stewart came in from home at Stewart's station Friday evening and left on the delayed train for Portland to resume her position with Oide & King.

The Misses Eleanor and Constance Despain, Miss Babe Hallock and Master Louis Despain have returned from Bingham springs, where they spent the summer.

J. P. McMannis is in Portland superintending the getting out of the first issue of the Northwest Livestock and Woolgrowers' Journal. He expects to be back by the 10th.

"Uncle Dick" Powers, of Weston, has been visiting in Pendleton for a few days, the first time in a long while. He is not accompanied by a chaparral, for he don't need one.

W. J. McConnell, of Moscow, ex-governor and ex-United States senator from Idaho, spent yesterday and a portion of today in Pendleton, on business incident to his present position as special Indian agent.

Mrs. S. C. Cleaver and granddaughter, Etha Snodgrass, spent a couple of days in Pendleton and went on to their home at Baker City this morning. They have been spending the summer in the valley.

George Linsner, the Bear creek rancher, is a visitor in Pendleton today. He says that this has been the best year for stock that he has ever seen in his section. He will feed several carloads of cattle this winter for the markets.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Walker, having enjoyed an outing of several weeks at Lehman springs, returned on this morning's train to their home at Weston. Mrs. Walker is greatly improved in health. She was a sufferer from rheumatism.

Mrs. O. P. Jaycox and children, of Walla Walla, were passengers for home on this morning's express. They have been at Cove, Oregon, where they attended the marriage of Thomas W. Conklin and Edna A. Payne on Tuesday, August 28. Miss Payne is a niece of Mrs. Jaycox.

J. K. Bott, of Helix, is in Pendleton today. He had 450 acres of wheat this year from which he harvested over 7000 sacks. His fall wheat averaged 37 bushels to the acre. He has it all in the warehouse at Helix, fully insured and is waiting for better prices. His farm is three miles southwest of Helix.

Sim Badley, of the firm of Badley & Zahner, and H. L. Hasbrouck, the jeweler, have returned with "fishermen's luck" from their trip to Wallows county. It rained upon them a great deal during their trip and made it unpleasant. It was so wet that even the fish became disgusted and wouldn't bite.

A. L. Swaggart came to Pendleton Friday to pay his taxes, that being the last day prior to the date when they came delinquent. Mr. Swaggart had 110 acres of wheat this year which went 40 bushels to the acre. His farm is three miles north of Athena. As a side issue he raised a huge crop of earload of 61 head a month ago to Swartz & Greulich, of this city at $5.35 a hundred pounds, delivered at Athena.

Glorious News.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering or years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that electric bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It cures liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Tallman & Co., druggists. Guaranteed.

Will Exhibit Hereafter.

Joe Hoch, chairman of the street fair and harvest carnival committee on livestock exhibit, spent Friday night on Butter creek with Cass Rogers, and the two returned to Pendleton this morning. Mr. Hoch obtained a promise from Mr. Rogers that he would have his Herefords on exhibition during the street fair. Mr. Hoch states that he has seen many exhibits of livestock at Eastern agricultural fairs, but has never set his eyes on a finer bunch of Herefords than is possessed by Mr. Rogers.

It Will Do You Good.

A blood purifier and tissue builder is Karl's Clover Root Tea. Sold for half a century on our guarantee. Money refunded if results are not satisfactory. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. Tallman & Co.

Dr. McFaul to Live in Pendleton.

His numerous friends and patrons in Morrow county will regret to learn that Dr. D. J. McFaul has concluded to locate at Pendleton, says the Heppner Times. He will leave for that place sometime next month. The doctor and his estimable wife will be missed largely by the people of Heppner and Morrow county generally, and while they dislike to lose them, all join in wishing these excellent people the greatest possible success and happiness in their new home. However will always extend to them the warm hand of welcome whenever they see fit to drop back for a visit.

Initium Football Team.

The Initium football team has selected Al Waffle as captain and secured the services of Sol Baum as coach. Berkeley Bailey will manage the team. All prospective players are requested to be on the baseball grounds at 9 o'clock Sunday morning to indulge in a gentle warming-up practice. The coach says it is the intention to commence practice in a mild form and after a month or so, when the weather gets right, to buckle down to hard and systematic work, to the end that the name of the Initium football team may be feared, respected and revered.
