READING THE HAND.
 Professor Sterling Tells the Characters of Leading Citizens.

Professor Sterling, in charge of the astrology department of the East Oregonian, has already read the palms of a number of them will be published from day to day. Out of the following have been selected for today's issue:

L. Hunziker, Jeweler.
 You are a lucky person and your life is broad and admits the opinions of others, not only without malice but with genuine regard; you are capable of dealing with large and small affairs with equal ease; you are shrewd and silent; your future promises to be of service to the community in which you live; you hold your own views with determination but concede the same right to your fellow men and beings; your future is a bright one and you must not worry as much as you do.

H. Kaufmann, Butcher.
 You will be successful in your present undertakings; you should use more judgment than you do, also you will live north in four years.

D. M. Taylor, Golden Rule Beer Hall.
 You are a sincere and truthful; you possess a generous, broadminded disposition and are not disturbed by trifles.

A. Eklund, Shoe Merchant.
 You are a sensible matter-of-fact individual whose disposition is calm and you have plenty of self-control.

H. L. Carl, Proprietor Barber Shop.
 Your business ability and tenacity of purpose is shown in your hand but the special talent is indicated.

W. G. Gould, Boiler Maker.
 You have a square hand; you have large ideas; you also have a good nature indicated.

D. A. Currey, Barber.
 Your temperament is a sanguine one and you are neat, industrious and have a courageous heart; you will live to good old age.

Call at the East Oregonian office and get the prepared sheet for taking the outlines of the palm.

At any drugstore get 5 cents worth of tannic acid, add a teaspoonful of water, mix well and then apply to both palms, rubbing your palms together so as to have moisture penetrate the lines, etc., thoroughly. Then place your hands on the paper, holding them there steadily and with pressure for two minutes. Keep your hand firm on the sheet, then raise hand gently.

Only use a small amount of the acid mixture on your palms, just enough to moisten the palm. Do not have it break on the palms, because that will make it blur on the impression sheet.

Directions how to remove the stains from the palms: Wash hands in vinegar thoroughly; then use soap as usual.

After impression of hands has been taken return sheet to the East Oregonian office, signed with any name you desire, and same will be read by Professor Sterling, and the reading published in the East Oregonian.

Mail subscribers wanting the sheets will enclose 2c for postage.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years it was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors have been treating it with local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requiring constitutional treatment. Hilly's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses of from one drop to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY, Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by druggists, The Hilly's Family Pills are the best.

Story of a Slave.
 To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by Tallman & Co., druggists.

What a Willamette Valley Newspaper Man Says About It.
 Among those from a distance who attended the Pendleton fair last week was Lucius A. Long of The Argus, published at Hillsboro. Mr. Long returned home and this week's issue of his paper contained the following:

Pendleton, Unatilla county, in a blaze of glory, last Saturday closed a street fair and carnival that would have done credit to a city of fifty thousand. The agricultural exhibits were splendid; the stock pens were filled as only Unatilla county can fill them; the special features were such that Portland visitors openly acknowledged that Portland's fair, in considering the difference in population, was "not in it." Pendleton treated her visitors from abroad with open cordiality and warmer sympathies than ever before now obtain between the business men of Unatilla and the business men of the Willamette. Pendleton sustained her reputation for geniality and princely treatment of those who visited the fair little city. Her men are princes and her women are just as lovely as their Webfoot sisters. Here is to Pendleton and ten thousand in ten years. And this, without the usual "You'll have to hurry!"

DOWN THE INCLINE.
 Two cars loaded with coal start from the bunkers.

Two cars loaded with coal started this morning, ran down the incline at a rapid clip, and ran off the track 100 yards from starting point, the switch being set to accommodate train on the main line. Henry Osterman had charge of the cars and was about to unload them. He had them blocked, but the cars were slightly "over the center, and their weight in some manner unknown to Mr. Osterman, was sufficient to carry them over the block, and away they went.

The westbound passenger train was standing alongside the bunkers at the time, and had it been pulling out at the time, cars ran away, a person with but slight imagination could easily conjure a loss of life and property, for the freight cars ran off the switch and protruded over onto the main line. The passenger train was backed up to the east end of the yards and was then run out westward through the south switches.

Substitute for Coal.
 A good deal of anxiety has been devoted to the question, what will the human race do when coal gives out? Its disappearance will not make the slightest difference, as a chemical substitute has been discovered, which is cheaper and better. The new century is bound to witness many changes, but there is one human benefactor which will remain as firm as the pyramids, and that is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is a cure for all stomach ills. No one has been able to discover anything so effective for indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, liver and kidney troubles as the Bitters. Be sure to give it a trial, and you will be convinced that it is the medicine to strengthen your stomach and restore your appetite.

RECEPTION TO MRS. WADE.
 Tendered Wednesday at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Royal at Olympia.

A pleasant event was the reception given by Mrs. M. G. Royal Wednesday afternoon, to which the club women of the city were invited, says the Morning Olympian, published at Olympia, Wash., with the president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. C. B. Wade, of Pendleton, as the guest of honor.

Mrs. Royal was ably assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Miss Ethel and Miss Bonney, and Miss Ruth Dunbar. The rooms were prettily decorated, the parlors with clematis and roses, the dining room with sweet peas. Dainty refreshments were served by the young ladies, during the afternoon.

Mrs. Wade is an enthusiastic club worker, and has a wide acquaintance with the club women of this country, east and west. Mrs. Wade will be a guest of the regular meeting of the Women's club next Tuesday.

Prevented a Tragedy.
 Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Tallman & Co.'s drug store.

They Are Beauties.
 E. L. Smith has just received a carload of Columbus and Racine buggies and hacks and has them set up for display. A large crowd was admiring them, and they pronounced them "simply grand." Mr. Smith is giving a very low price on these goods—in fact he gives his customers the benefit of a cash discount and a saving on freight by getting them in car lots.

C. Alger, of Ashland, and Geo. A. Berry, of St. Louis.

A Banquet Tendered.
 The banquet tendered the visitors at the Commercial Club rooms in the evening was a very interesting affair, says the La Grande Chronicle. Covers were laid for a hundred and the menu included the most tempting of earth's bounty, and with brilliant speeches, orchestral selections and genial companionship the feast was most highly enjoyed.

Sir Knight Turner Oliver officiated as toastmaster and the following Sir Knights responded to their respective toasts:
 "The Grand Commander," C. B. Wynn; "Our Guest," W. T. Wright; "The Order," G. H. Burnett; "The Baby," George H. Hill; "Truth," F. A. Moore; "Our Departed Brethren," S. M. Yoram; "The Ladies," J. H. Raley; "Our New Temple," J. M. Church.

Among the ladies visitors were Mrs. L. C. Marshall, Mrs. F. E. Allen, and Miss C. S. Wynn of Albany and Mrs. T. C. Taylor of Pendleton.

GENERAL GOOD TIME.
 A. O. U. W. and Members of Degree of Honor Have a Banquet.

The members of the Ancient Order of United Workmen and Degree of Honor of Pendleton held a memorable session Friday evening, which was attended by nearly 100 persons. After the A. O. U. W. had held their routine meeting the doors were thrown open and the ladies admitted. H. J. Bean started the speaking, and was heartily applauded. M. G. Wilkins, D. G. M. W., of Portland, whose presence was largely responsible for the gathering, then entertained with an excellent address on the merits of the order. The banquet came next, and the supper was pronounced to be on a par with the rest of the program, first-class and plenty of it. H. J. Bean acted as toastmaster. Toasts were responded to by Workmen, Phil McBrien, Jacob Sheuerman, C. P. Davis, W. H. Street, Joe M. Bentley, and Ladies of the Degree of Honor, Mrs. C. P. Davis and Mrs. Emily E. Sloan.

It is admitted on all sides that the affair was well planned and successfully executed and that it did a great deal to make the good features of the two orders better known and more thoroughly appreciated.

PLEASANT SURPRISE PARTY.
 Young People Give a Farewell to Misses Borie and Thompson.

Many of the younger set of Pendleton gathered Friday evening at the home of Mrs. R. G. Thompson, on Water street. It was a surprise party, a farewell to Miss Fanchon Borie and Miss Ted Thompson, who will leave tonight for Portland to enter St. Helen's hall. The evening was spent in a very pleasant manner. The departing two know that their presence will be missed, and that their young companions extend all kinds of wishes for good luck during their school days and a safe and quick return to Pendleton.

Those present were: Misses Ted Thompson, Fanchon Borie, Flo Halllock, Gertrude Sheridan, Leo Sheridan, May Ferguson, Dana Hendley, Emma Sawtelle, Lavelle Moorhouse, Lulu Lasken, Frieda Korsch, Ethel Parsons, Bertha Alexander, Edith Apple, Nell Gamron, Mervin Mars, Moorhouse, Fred Hartman, Fred Earl, Clarence Adams, Oliver Kelsey, Chester Foster, Berkeley Bailey, Earl Borie, Dale Slusher, Lee Drake, Sol Baum.

THOROUGHLY SCOTCH COOLIE.

Henry Gierlich's Dog Jumps From a Second Story Window.
 Henry Gierlich's thoroughbred Scotch collie dog, Hero, jumped through a window in the second story of the East Oregonian building at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, alighted on the edge of the sidewalk and broke its left hind leg in two places. Mr. Gierlich says there is not a better bred dog in the state of Oregon and it was worth $200. The animal is six years old and has been raised by its owner and is a great pet with all members of the family.

Mr. Gierlich had gone up to Wilson & Craig's photograph parlors to see a proof of a picture of himself and his dog. Hero accompanied him. Mr. Gierlich was sent for and left the dog in the room by itself, intending to come back in a few minutes. The dog became excited and wanted to follow its master, so jumped, with disastrous results above stated. Mr. Gierlich took the dog home, and reduced the fractures with the assistance of his son Henry and Frank Stillmont. They claim the animal will be as good as ever in a month's time.
