GENERAL NEWS.

Daily democrats of Montana nominated Thomas S. Hogan for governor. Ex-President Harrison will deliver two speeches in New York City.

In Connecticut, the elections resulted in a gain for no license, the towns now standing: License, 72; no license, 90, as against license 73, no license 89, in 1899.

"Sir Redvers Buller," says the Daily Mail's correspondent at Pietermaritzburg, "will return to England, I hear, with Lord Roberts, and Lord Kitchener will remain in the chief command in South Africa."

The timber cut in Eastern Maine this season will be the largest in years. The cut in one section, it is estimated, will reach 180,000,000 feet of this, 40,000,000 will go into pulp. The price of manufactured lumber is higher than it was last year.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS.

The only hayrack in Union county is on the Cove farm of Herman Geer. It contains about an acre and a half, and the hay is in flourishing condition.

Fruitgrowers of Grand Ronde valley will meet at La Grande October 5 for the purpose of perfecting organization of the recently formed Fruitgrowers' Association.

The secretary of the interior has approved a patent of 1920 acres in the Oregon City land district, Oregon, to the Willamette Valley & Cascade Mountain Wagon Road company.

Work is going forward on the dam for the La Grande Light & Power company, at Oro Dell. The old dam has been entirely removed. The contractor hopes to have construction completed by November 1.

The middle-of-the-road populist state convention Wednesday did not place a ticket in the field. Resolutions were passed urging all populists to oppose the fusion ticket and support the social democracy.

Sixty carloads of wheat are lying in the farmers' warehouse, says the Lone Post, ready to be shipped, and an enormous pile of grain is stacked along the track. More storerooms will have to be built if cars are not soon forthcoming.

The trouble between Tom Hobbs and some sheepmen from Condon was satisfactorily settled by the sheepmen paying the damage asked. The affair happened near the Middle Fork, and was caused by the sheepmen allowing their flock to run over Mr. Hobbs' ditch.

Grand Ronde's big industry, the beet sugar factory, is now in the height of operation. The slicing of beets began Monday, and the first lot of new sugar of the crop of 1900 was turned out on Wednesday. The factory in all its departments is working with the regularity of a clock, and is working up to its full capacity of 350 tons of beets per day.

Baker City has a good race meet on, and more than 60 head of horses have already arrived from different points in Oregon and Washington to participate in the races. A number of horses from California, on the way to the race meeting at Boise, stopped there. The track is in good condition, and some last time is expected to be made. The races will last for three days.

DALY SUCCEEDS CLARK

Former Elected Treasurer of Democratic Clubs.

BRYAN AT INDIANAPOLIS TODAY

Roosevelt Talks to Nebraska Cowboys—Gets Nettled at the Populists—Democratic Split in Arizona.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 4.—Attracted by Bryan's presence, the crowd at the national democratic club was largely increased today. The democratic candidate arrived at 2:40 o'clock, being met at Lebanon by the state committee. Bourke Cochran arrived at noon from Chicago. At the morning session all the old officers were re-elected, except Senator Clark, of Montana, treasurer. It was announced that he was too busy to continue the work and Marcus Daly was chosen. Speeches were made by Stevenson, son of the candidate for vice-president, and P. E. Dowse, former president of the Commercial Traveler's League.

Resolutions were adopted condemning the war, colonial, Puerto Rican and trust attitudes of the republicans, and pointing out the danger to the country when one man, J. Pierpont Morgan, can settle a strike or permit it to continue.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—Bryan passed through Chicago at 7 o'clock this morning, on route to Indianapolis, but there was no demonstration.

Sheldon, Ill., Oct. 4.—En route to Indianapolis, Bryan was cordially received here. Speaking of the republican claims in the northwest, he said: "When you get out there, they are going carry the west, and when you are in middle country, they expect to make gains at both ends."

Roosevelt and the Cow Puncher.

Valentine, Neb., Oct. 4.—Evory cow puncher in Valentine county lined up here this morning when the Roosevelt train arrived. The governor spoke to them in a happy vein, saying: "Prices of cattle are yet to be fixed, get free silver. We never will get free silver." (Cheers). When the train pulled out, one hundred cowboys on ponies chased the train for nearly a mile, one carrying a banner with "Teddy" inscribed on it.

Bassett, Neb., Oct. 4.—Roosevelt ran into a populist crowd at Atinsworth, where he was interrupted frequently by cries: "Ten to one Bryan carries Nebraska." The governor became nettled, and, in concluding his speech, said you all prosper, consistent with the total wreck of the whole populist outfit in Nebraska." Cheers followed for Bryan, and more cries of "ten to one."

Woolley Talks to Colonists.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 4.—In the heart of the "cottony" country, the populist candidates were welcomed here by three thousand people, who listened to Candidate Woolley's address.

Democratic Split in Arizona.

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 4.—Governor N. O. Murphy, republican candidate for delegate to congress, and two democratic candidates, M. A. Smith and J. F. Wilson, the present delegate, have begun the campaign in Arizona. The democratic split is likely to result in a republican victory, in which case stashed is expected immediately.

Rathbone's Allegations.

Havama, Oct. 4.—Eighty-four cases of fever were reported today. It is a considerable decrease. Friends of the former Director Rathbone declare that the recent charges are a part of a political trick, and that the administration and Gen. Wood are party to it.

English Election a Standoff.

London, Oct. 4.—The results of yesterday's polling in the parliamentary general elections were less striking than those of Tuesday. Conservative majorities still show increases in numerous contests but in a less marked degree. On the other hand the liberals have gained additional seats, by the whole the indications this morning are that there will not be such change in the complexion of the new parliament. As matters now stand out of the 28 candidates returned the relative strength of the parties is as follows:

Mineralists 212, liberals, including labor members 47, nationalists 29.

Altogether the liberals have gained 10 seats and the conservatives seven.

Wire From Seattle to Skagway.

Seattle, Oct. 4.—The first telegram from Skagway to Seattle, marking an epoch in the history of business between Alaska and the outside world, was received here today.

A special to the Times from Fort Townsend says: The steanship Some City, 10 days from Cape Nome, arrived last evening and before being allowed to proceed to Seattle all of her 350 passengers were compelled to submit to vaccination. This was considered necessary on account of the fact that there has been another outbreak of smallpox at Nome. The vessel had no sickness on board.

President Goes to Washington.

Clinton, O., Oct. 4.—President McKinley will leave on Monday for Washington, remaining there a week or more.

NEW YORK MARKET.

Reported by I. L. Ray & Co., Chicago Board of Trade and New York Stock Exchange Brokers.

October 4.—The wheat market was very dull today within a narrow range. Liverpool closed 3/4 higher, 83-84. New York opened 3/8 higher, 83-84, and held around the opening price until near the close when there was a slump to 83 1/8 closing 83 1/2. Outside news was all bullish, but there was a lack of trading. Stocks higher. Money, 2 per cent.

Close yesterday, 83 3/8. Open today, 83 1/2. Range today, 83 1/8 to 83 1/2. Close today, 83 1/2. December corn, 42 1/2.

NEWTOR'S HERPICIDE, CAL., INC., 100 West 14th Street, New York City.

When I bought this bottle of Herpicide a few months ago, like the majority of such preparations, I thought it would prove a failure, but I am happy to state that it has done even more than I could have expected. My hair is growing rapidly.

EXPEDITION TO MARINDUQUE.

Gen. MacArthur Sends Soldiers to Avenge the Capture of Shields.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Gen. MacArthur at Manila reports the arrival of the transport Strateghy, and also announces an expedition will be sent to Marinduque to avenge the capture of Captain Shields and his company, the Twenty-ninth Infantry. MacArthur says: "First infantry goes to Marinduque on October six on the summer. Gen. Hare is to command the island, with orders to push operations until the insurrection is stamped out, absolutely. He will have twelve full companies of infantry for the purpose. Anderson's first operations developed nothing. No reports have come since October 2."

GERMANY AND THE STATES.

WE ARE NOW IN AGREEMENT WITH THE KAISER.

Chinese Criminals to Be Punished by Their Own Government.

Washington, Oct. 4.—The United States has replied to the second and more moderate Chinese note from the German emperor. It agrees with all the proposals made by the kaiser, and Germany and the United States are now in perfect accord on the Chinese question. The German note, it is learned, accepts the Chinese edicts ordering punishment of Prince Tuan and other high officials, and relinquishes the original position that those men should be turned over to the powers for punishment, agreeing that the effect of having it inflicted by the Chinese themselves would be better than if they were punished by foreigners. The note also proposes that the ministers should take steps to assure themselves that the sentences passed upon criminals are carried into execution.

Washington, Oct. 4.—In sympathy with the German note, instructions were sent to Genoy to report to the state department whether the eight men, including Prince Tuan, are really guilty.

Germans Defeat Boxers.

Shanghai, Oct. 4.—Word is received here of a fierce engagement between the German contingent and two thousand Boxers at Kaokamen. The Germans repulsed the Chinese, killing four hundred. The Germans lost five men.

Train Robber Identified.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Oct. 4.—The train robber killed last night by Messenger Baxter has been identified as Al Peorman, a barber. His suspected pal, giving the name of D. E. Knight, has been captured.

HO FOR WALLA WALLA.

Pendleton Day Attracts a Small Crowd to Go on the Excursion.

Today is Pendleton day at the Walla Walla fruit fair, and an excursion was run from here this morning. Owing to the fact that the westbound train was late, the excursion train did not leave until after 10 o'clock. The weather was threatening, which undoubtedly deterred many from going who would otherwise have been pleased to avail themselves of the privilege of fraternizing with the good people of the Garden City. As it was, the crowd was there in some force, and the feeling was that street fare and fruit fairs are good things to draw the two cities together. Indians to the number of 23 were there, six ladies and 17 braves, in charge of Lee Moorhouse and Chief of Indian Police Brisbane, who will parade and give their war dances this afternoon and evening.

Among the excursionists the following were noted: Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Roosevelt, Mrs. N. Berkeley, Mrs. Frank Duprat, Mrs. Zina Gabbart, Mrs. W. D. Fletcher, Miss Bell Cameron, Miss Augusta Moorhouse, Miss Christine Probstler of Weston, Mrs. Nellie Mims, Miss Bess Duncan, Miss Lavette Moorhouse, Marshal John Leavelle, John Hatley, jr., and Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakely.

Spokane's Opening Day.

In opening day of the 1900 Spokane industrial exposition was an unqualified success. The paid admissions were 8020—the greatest ever known at an opening day in the history of the annual fair.

The parade attracted great attention; the arrangement of the tents and for the comfort of the patrons and manner in which the crowds were handled all won approval. The completeness of the exhibit, their scope and arrangement were compared with those of former years, and the verdict was as predicted, that they are bigger and better than ever. The weather was all that could be desired—bright and warm. A continuation of fair weather is predicted. The out-of-town attendance is already large.

THE MINERS STAND PAT

Not a Man Returned to Work This Morning.

THIS STRENGTHENS THE UNION

End of the Strike No One Ventures to Predict, and President Mitchell Maintains His Advantage in the Situation.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 4.—Not a man returned to work this morning in response to the offer of an increase in wages posted a few days ago by the Lackawanna company. This notice specified that the increase would apply only to those who returned today. The attitude of the miners resisting this bait greatly strengthens the confidence of the union. Great crowds gathered around the collieries of the Lackawanna company this morning, expecting to see at least a few men go to work, but none came. Nobly is willing to venture a prediction as to when the strike will end.

HUMOR OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Pendleton Citizens Indulge in Fanciful Wagers on the Result.

As in all previous national campaigns, the present one brings out some peculiar wagers and agreements. Today, two men, a republican and a democrat, shook hands on this agreement, which was witnessed by several reliable persons.

In the event of McKinley's election, T. F. Howard agrees to wear a McKinley badge or button for one year. In the event of Bryan's success, Ed C. Allen agrees to wear a Bryan badge or button for one year. Each associates that he will have the pleasure of attaching a badge to the coat lapel of the other.

One other staunch supporter of one of the national candidates has ordered his barber to cut his hair rather close, for the reason that he has promised not to cut it again for four years if the candidate of his opposing party is successful.

Numerous straighttip bets are being made, the odds favoring McKinley. However, not enough betting has been done to involve any considerable amount of money, though as the sixth of November draws near some of those sportively inclined may be expected to put up some fat rolls.

IT COST HIM SOMETHING.

A Telegram That Made Meyer Abraham Pay the Bills.

Meyer Abraham, a genial traveling man of Portland, is at Hotel Pendleton today. He is like most traveling men in that he is always willing to acknowledge when the job is on him. Once upon a time, on the ferry tug goes, Mr. Abraham missed a train. He telegraphed to a friend in the town to which he was traveling the fact, and asked for him to "take one on him." The friend simply took him at his word, went out and accumulated a pretty little skate, and at each place gave the gentleman back of the bar the high sign and the mystic signal "Charge to Abraham." Mr. Abraham, upon his arrival, settled for about 47 worth of refreshments, liquors, cigars, etc., and took a solemn mental reservation that hereafter when he wished to present a friend with a cigar he would wait and hand him one, and not telegraph to "take one on him."

ELEGANTLY FURNISHED.

M. A. Rader's New Undertaking Parlor, Webb and Main.

M. A. Rader has his new undertaking parlors fitted up luxuriously at Main and Webb street entrance on the latter. The floor is covered with carpet and rug. Of the latter one is made of five black bear skin and another one of an Angora goat skin. A divan and other handsome furniture make it much more cheerful than undertaking parlors frequently are. In addition to the furnishing, the room is large and well lighted. A night bell is also of convenience. Some person is present day and night to attend to the wants of customers. Funerals as a general thing are not very pleasant affairs, but the unpleasant features may be toned down or eliminated when under the direction of M. A. Rader. He has had great experience and his stock is complete.

Notice.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle their accounts.
