Tomne and his partner, Thomas Allison, were building a raft six miles above Ogilvie, when the former slipped and fell into the river. A swift current carried him down to death despite the efforts of Allison to save him. Tomne was a native of Fairmount, Minn.

As the result of a number of conferences, the Chicago building contractors have decided not to oppose the formation of a new central labor body, provided the various trades engaged in the construction of buildings withdraw from the Trades Council. The one thing the men have held out for is a period of eight weary months is their right to a central organization.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS.

The Oregon Baptist ministerial conference convened today in annual session in Calvary Baptist church, The Dalles.

Portland is the largest city in the Northwest by about ten thousand. She has a population of 90,426; Seattle, about 80,000; Tacoma, about 40,000 and Spokane, 36,848.

The prettiest sight ever witnessed in Astoria was that which greeted the eyes of shipping men, when five merchant ships passed in through the heads at the same time.

The Klamath Indians are reported to be prospering under the new order of things at the reservation. They are building homes and irrigating ditches and are fencing their property.

It is reported that the Sumpter Valley railroad company has concluded to build a first class wagon road from their new town of Whitney across the mountains to Granite, a distance of seven miles.

Hood River's local telephone system now has 53 phones. The system was started less than two years ago, with 13 phones. The Dalles has more than 500 phones in use. There are two companies represented there.

Mrs. Emma Potter, of Sumpter, instituted suit against John Austin, marshal of that city, for defamation of character and false imprisonment. The amount asked for is $5476. The suit grew out of the arrest of Mrs. Potter last summer on a charge of keeping a disorderly house.

The Enterprise Republican Club was organized with the following officers: J. P. Gardner, president; W. P. Samme, first vice president; W. J. Fank, second vice president; Carl Rose, secretary; E. W. Stool, assistant secretary; John W. Rankin, treasurer. Enthusiastic speeches were made by W. P. Samme and F. A. Clarke.

At 3 o'clock Tuesday morning, the fruit dryer owned by C. E. Ghoslon, on the state line road eight miles from Walla Walla, was destroyed by fire, together with all its contents. The fire started from a defective flue, and within a few minutes the building was enveloped in flames. The heat was so intense that it was impossible to save anything in the building, and workmen and neighbors were kept busy in preventing the fire spreading to other buildings. The product of the season's run was destroyed except about seven tons of dried prunes which had been placed near the dryer. The loss was $2500; insurance, $2300.

Rheumatism

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles, aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease.

Mrs. James Keil, of 707 Ninth street, N. E., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "I was in my worst form. The pain was so intense that I became completely prostrated. The attacks were unusually severe, and my condition was regarded as being very bad. I was attended by one of the most able doctors in Washington. He is also a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his prescriptions and I would get well. After having filled twelve times, without receiving the slightest benefit, I decided to continue his treatment any longer. Having heard of S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) I decided, almost in despair however, to give the medicine a trial, and after I had taken a few bottles, the distressing pains have left me, my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health.

The great vegetable purifier and tonic, is the ideal remedy in all rheumatic troubles. There are no crystals or minerals in it to disturb the digestion and lead to ruinous habits.

We have prepared a special book on Rheumatism which every sufferer from this painful disease should read. It is the most complete and interesting book of the kind in existence. It will be sent free to any one desiring it. Write our physicians fully and freely about your case. We make no charge for medical advice.

BRYAN TO MEIKLEJOHN

He Replies to the Assistant War Secretary's Explanation.

A SUCCINCT ARGUMENT GIVEN

Republican Doctrine That "Constitution Does Not Follow the Flag" Supplies Material for a Potent Statement.

Dowagiac, Mich., Oct. 10.—Bryan today received from Assistant Secretary of War Meiklejohn a letter relative to the existence of slavery in the Sulu archipelago. He writes denying the president's responsibility for the conditions described. Bryan sent a reply, saying that "the republican party, with the approval of the administration, has adopted the theory that the constitution does not follow the flag; and that, therefore, the thirteenth amendment does not interfere with slavery in Sulu. The Puerto Rico law asserts the doctrine that the people of Puerto Rico are beyond the protection of the constitution, and can be governed by the arbitrary and unrestrained power of the president and congress. If the constitution itself can not reach the West Indies, how can the thirteenth amendment find its way across the Pacific into Asia. The president repudiates article thirteen of the treaty, giving full protection to the sultan and his subjects in the event of foreign interference. The president, in his letter of acceptance, declares it to be dangerous for the United States to agree to protect a Christian republic in the Philippines. Would not it be wise for him to withdraw his agreement to protect the Mohammedan sultan?"

BRYAN ROUTED FROM BED.

He Was Compelled to Speak at Michigan City, Indiana.

New Buffalo, Mich., Oct. 10.—Bryan began a tour of Michigan today by being routed out of bed at Michigan City, Ind., to speak to several hundred people at the depot, and being introduced by an excited German democrat as "James W. Bryan." The first speech in Michigan was made at Benton Harbor. Twenty-three speeches are scheduled for the next two days, Saginaw being the last of the tour. He speaks there on Thursday night. Thence Bryan goes into Ohio.

ROOSEVELT LOSES HIS TEMPER.

Grows Indignant at Story That He Sneered at Officers.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—Roosevelt passed through Chicago from St. Louis to Indiana this morning. His party picked up several spell-binders here. The principal stops today were at Hammond, Logansport, Lafayette and Fort Wayne. Roosevelt was very indignant at the story that he told a correspondent that the men of the fourth cavalry were all right, but that the officers were incompetent.

The Governor at Hammond.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 10.—The first stop out of Chicago by the Roosevelt train was at Hammond, where the school children shook hands with the candidates, who later spoke from a stand in the public park, telling the big crowd to compare conditions now with those four years ago.

Fairbanks is Confident.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 10.—In an interview, Senator Fairbank said that he thought Indiana was sure to go for McKinley, as he had been in personal contact with the voters all over the state, and knew whereof he spoke. The senator was also confident of other states, having just returned from the Pacific coast. He said that the people are ready to vote tomorrow their approval of the administration.

W. Scriber; a bay and a sorrel filly, by N. K. West; a sorrel saddle horse, by Glas. Baker; two or three by Jas. Parker, and one or two by J. D. McKennon.

Dispatches from New York indicate the placing by the Imperial German government in this country of an order for 30,000 cavalry, ambulance and artillery horses, together with a practically unlimited commission for high class officers' charges. This order is chiefly for the grade of horses that is now deemed best for mounting infantry for rapid transportation from point to point in war.

MURDERED MAN'S BROTHER.

YOUTSEY LOSES HIS MIND DURING THE TRIAL.

Goebel on the Stand When Defendant Went Mad.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 10.—Youtsey, who caused the sensational scene in court last night, was still in a stupor this morning, and Judge Cantrill passed the case until Thursday.

After the removal of the prisoner from the court room to his cell last night, he became violent. Three men were necessary to restrain him. There is hardly a doubt that the prisoner was suffering from a temporary insanity when he made the outbreak. His physician says he may recover his senses in a day or two.

Some say that when Arthur Goebel took the witness stand, his likeness to the dead man, Governor Goebel, caused the defendant to become frantic from fear. The case will be resumed as soon as Youtsey recovers his understanding.

A Most Dramatic Scene.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 10.—One of the most remarkable scenes ever enacted in a Kentucky court occurred last night in the Youtsey trial, the defendant himself being the chief participant. The court room was crowded and excitement was intense.

When Arthur Goebel was put on the stand, Judge Ben Williams, who for the first time appeared for the prosecution, did the questioning. Arthur Goebel said: "I talked with Youtsey the day he was arrested, late in the afternoon in the jail in Frankfort, in reference to the murder of my brother."

Just at this point Youtsey arose behind his attorneys and in a loud voice said: "It is untrue! It is a lie! I never spoke a word to that man in my life nor he to me!"

Col. Crawford told him to be quiet and sit down and others took hold of him. He would not do so and said: "I will not sit down! I never said a word to that man! It is untrue!"

He was shouting by this time and everyone was on the tip toe of expectation. Youtsey's wife sprang to his side and while endeavoring to make him sit down could be heard saying: "Now you have killed my husband I suppose you are satisfied!"

Then Youtsey hysterically shouted again: "I am innocent. There is no blood on my hands! These men are swearing my life away!" Two or three deputies went over and grabbed him.

He struggled wildly and said: "Let me alone! I will not sit down!" After Youtsey was forced into his seat he shouted again: "Goebel is not dead! All the devils in hell could not kill him." Youtsey then settled back in his chair, closed his eyes and seemed in a state of collapse.

BLOODSHED AT POTSVILLE

Strikers and Non-Union Men Come Together.

TWO KILLED AND MANY WOUNDED

The Miners' Parade at Scranton Was Six Miles Long—Mitchell Says There's No Politics in the Movement.

Potsville, Pa., Oct. 10.—Strikers and non-union men clashed this morning at Cox's Brothers' Onaida colliery, after the former had failed to persuade the non-union men to return home. Sticks and stones were used freely, and then shooting began. Ralph Mills, a coal and iron company officer, was instantly killed. Joseph Lipco, a striker, was shot in the groin. George Kenner, an officer, was shot dead. Superintendent Kudlich was badly beaten with clubs and stones. Many others were hurt, but friends carried them away before their names could be ascertained. The strikers were successful with the workmen, until the police arrived in charge of Superintendent Kudlich. When the train carrying them stopped, firing began, and the officers soon realized that they had run into a hornet's nest. They ceased shooting and defended the mine officials. Troops are to be sent to the scene, which is somewhat isolated.

STRIKE PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION.

Arrival of Mitchell in Scranton—He Made an Important Speech.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 10.—The great feature in the mining situation today is this afternoon's parade. President Mitchell and his staff arrived this morning from Hazelton to take part. He received a great ovation at the depot. This morning it was estimated that twenty-five to thirty thousand men will be in line. President Mitchell will address the multitude at Laurel Hill park, and much weight will be placed on his remarks.

Missionary Money in China.

St. Louis, Oct. 10.—The American board of foreign missions of the Congregational church began the ninety-first annual session here this morning. Special questions caused by the anti-Christian demonstrations in Turkey, and China, and the famine in India are to be discussed. The report of the secretary shows that out of $7,105, spent for foreign mission work this year, China received $25,000, and Spain $17,000.

Trouble Feared at Colville.

Spokane, Oct. 10.—The north half of the Colville Indian reservation was thrown open this noon, and a big rush of settlers followed. Some "sooners" have already erected cabins and are holding their claims with rifles. Trouble is expected. The tract opened is as large as the state of Delaware.

English Election Returns.

London, Oct. 10.—Further election results today show that the conservatives have elected twelve more candidates and the liberals eight. Midlothian, the late W. E. Gladstone's constituency, remains liberal. The balance stands: Conservatives, 350; opposition, 190.

ROYAL—the most celebrated of all the baking powders in the world—celebrated for its great leavening strength and purity. It makes your cakes, biscuit, bread, etc., healthful; it assures you against alum and all forms of adulteration that go with the cheap brands.

Alum baking powders are low priced, as alum costs but two cents a pound; but alum is a corrosive poison and it renders the baking powder dangerous to use in food.
