ROOSEVELT WAS INSULTED

Hoodlums Indulge in Some Tough People's Etiquette.

GOV. MOUNT APOLOGIZED FOR IT

Fort Wayne Was the Scene of a Disgraceful Incident of the Campaign Now on in Indiana.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 11.—Gov. Roosevelt closed a long day's work by making three speeches in this city last night, addressing the greatest number of persons in aggregate who have ever gathered in Fort Wayne to listen to a candidate for political honors. Hoodlums attacked Gov. Roosevelt's party. In Calhoun street shortly before the head of the procession reached the rink where the governor was to speak, a party of roughs on the sidewalk threw a shower of stones at Gov. Roosevelt's carriage. One struck the governor on the shoulder and another aimed at him struck Curtis Guild, jr., of Boston in the face. The governor was not hurt and laughed the matter off. The horses were whipped up and got away from the roughs.

MOUNT APOLOGIZED.

Governor of Indiana Attributes Fort Wayne Rowdiness to Some Individual Troughs.

Marion, Ind., Oct. 11.—At the Roosevelt meeting held here this morning, Governor Mount, of this state, apologized for the Fort Wayne rowdiness, saying it was an act of an individual, and not of any organization. He deplored that the state of Indiana had been thus disgraced.

Governor Roosevelt swept the cornfields just northeast from Marion last night, but his voice was not "hunky" this morning. Before daylight, many teams and horsemen began pouring into Marion, which is a strong republican town and a glass center. The governor's train stood on a siding, and the arriving bands of farmers cheered and yelled their welcome. Ten thousand people tried to hear Gov. Roosevelt on the court house square after the big parade.

Influence of General Harrison.

Anderson, Ind., Oct. 11.—At Alexandria, eight thousand people greeted the governor. He is much pleased with the letter issued by General Harrison. Governor Mount claims that it settles the political position of Indiana. At this place, five thousand people turned out, and Governor Roosevelt spoke briefly on the subject of the constitution and the necessity of an honest consideration of their rights.

Perry Heath Receives Roosevelt.

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 11.—The home of Perry Heath, secretary of the republican national committee, gave Gov. Roosevelt the biggest reception of the Indiana tour so far. Several thousand glass workers met him at the depot and escorted him to the platform.

GENERAL HARRISON'S STATEMENT.

Qualified Expansion of Endorsement of the Administration. New York, Oct. 11.—General Harrison's statement made last night was: "I have said to every one who has spoken or written me on the subject that I could not do any more campaign work."

"But, general, it is said that you are altogether in accord with my party."

"Well, I have heard that my silence was imputed by some to that cause. Now the only public utterance I have made in criticism of the policies of the party was contained in an interview consisting of one rather short sentence that I gave to the newspapers while the Puerto Rico bill was pending. It was in substance that I regarded the bill as a grave departure from right principles. I still think so. I don't believe that the legislative power of congress is territorial in absolute, and I believe that the revenue clause relating to duties and imports applies to Puerto Rico."

However, Supports McKinley. "The general reasons I gave in my Carnegie Hall speech in 1896, why Mr. Bryan should not be elected will still be good with me. His election would, I think, throw governmental and business affairs into confusion. We should not aid the election of a president who would immediately, if he could, destroy the gold standard and other things that we value more, under the deceptive suggestion that he has been bound, and that the republican party will, after its defeat still have strength enough to save the temple."

"The economic policies of the republican party have been vindicated by the remarkable and general prosperity that has developed during McKinley's administration, succeeding a period of great depression. A change of administration this fall would almost certainly renew the conditions from which we have so happily escaped."

THE TEN PER CENT INCREASE.

What the Proposal Means to the Striking Miners. Scranton, Pa., Oct. 11.—Now that a convention to consider the 10 per cent increase offer is assured attention is turned to what the companies mean by an increase of 10 per cent to the miner and his helper. The miner works by contract and pays the laborer out of his earnings. As a rule the miner cuts six loads of coal, for which he gets $6.30. Out of this he pays for powder, oil and repair for tools of his helper. The laborer's pay is fixed at so much per day, and in this region it averages about $1.75. After paying the expenses the miner has about $2.30 left for himself. Ten per cent advance gives the miner 63 cents extra per day. The laborer wants his 10 per cent, and as a consequence the miner must be contented with 45 cents, or 7 per cent. But in many instances the miner has three laborers. This means 30 cents must come out of his 63 cents, and the miner finds himself enjoying an advance of only 5 per cent. Just how the operators want this offer interpreted is not known here. The local operators say that the men who framed the offer either did not have in mind that the miner pays the laborer, or else figured the laborer out of consideration altogether, and left it for the miner and laborer to settle among themselves which portion of the 10 per cent the laborer would receive. The laborer, it is thought, will not be content with less than 10 per cent raise and this may cause a hitch when the convention comes together.

STRIKERS ARE FIRM.

Operators' Proposition is Unsatisfactory. No Result on Friday Expected.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 11.—The Wednesday demonstration showed plainly what was the determination of the strikers. Everywhere the statement of President Mitchell, to the effect that the operators' proposition was unsatisfactory, has struck a responsive chord in the breasts of the men of the unions. As the time before Friday's convention shortens, the feeling increases that nothing of a definite nature looking towards a settlement will result from the conference. The leaders, especially Mitchell, are cautious, and would not commit themselves by making a statement.

Organizer Dilcher, however, this morning admitted that the operators' offer, in his opinion, will not be accepted in its present form. Troops left today for Onedia, the scene of yesterday's disturbance.

Some Arizona Mines Sunk.

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 11.—The gigantic smelting works at the United Verde mines at Jerome suddenly sank several feet yesterday, imperiling the lives of three hundred miners, who narrowly escaped.

CHINESE EXPEDITIONS START.

Some More Trouble Occurring in Oriental Affairs.

Shanghai, Oct. 11.—Advice which have just been received from Tien Tsin say that the long contemplated expedition planned to go from there to Pao Ting Fu will leave Tien Tsin today, in compliance with orders issued by Count Walderssee, German general in command of the allied forces. It consists of five thousand troops supplied from the Chinese contingents of the British, Germans, Italians and French. It will connect near Pao Ting Fu with the expedition from Peking under the British general Gascoer. In the expeditions, no Americans, Russians or Japanese are to participate. A large force of Chinese is reported to be in the vicinity of Pao Ting Fu, and fighting is expected to take place in New Chwang.

The Russians have occupied Mukden, the capital of the province of Manchuria, and have captured Tienling, which is situated forty miles north from there.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 11.—The condition of Youtsey this morning was much improved, but not sufficiently to permit the resumption of the trial. The case was therefore continued until Friday.

NEW YORK MARKET.

Reported by J. L. Ray & Co., Chicago Board of Trade and New York Stock Exchange Brokers. Oct. 11.—The wheat market continued its downward course today and closed 1/2 cent lower, 6-2 1/2. Liverpool closed 1/4 cent lower, 8 1/4 to 8 3/8 and after gaining 1-8 more, declined to 80 5/8. Light trade and good weather for fall seeding does not encourage holders and the liquidation the past few days has been heavy. Stocks steady. Money, 3 per cent. Close yesterday, 81 1-8. Open today, 81 1/4 to 81 3-8. Range today, 80 5-8 to 81 1/2. Close today, 80 5-8.

BRYAN WAS INSULTED

Ann Arbor Students Indulge in Some College Etiquette.

NO ONE APOLOGIZED FOR IT

Ann Arbor Was the Scene of a Disgraceful Incident of the Campaign Now on in Michigan.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 11.—When Mr. Bryan began to speak today, his voice was drowned by the yelling of several hundred students of the University of Michigan. They kept up their college cries for fully ten minutes, and it looked for a time as if the Yale incident of 1896 would be repeated. After quiet was restored, one of the boys was arrested, charged with disorderly conduct, and taken to jail. Mr. Bryan resumed his speaking as though nothing had occurred, further than to say that he was glad to talk to boys who were against him with the hope of converting them.

The yelling broke out afresh at this point, and two more boys were arrested and taken to jail followed by a crowd of yelling, jeering classmates.

Men on board the Bryan train say that the prompt action of the chief of police in arresting the leaders of the students alone prevented serious trouble. The chief heard that the attempt would be made to break up the meeting, and distributed his men among the students. When Mr. Bryan finished his speech, he was liberally applauded.

Voters May Take Choice.

Nashville, Mich., Oct. 11.—W. J. Bryan left Grand Rapids at 6:30 o'clock this morning. Today he is scheduled to speak at sixteen meetings. They may be extended to twenty. The first stop was at Hastings at 7:15 o'clock, where the entire town turned out to hear his admonition to take their choice "between the trust domination and an empire on the one side, and no trusts and a pure republic on the other." Bryan will arrive in Toledo early on Friday, and will then begin the Ohio tour.

"Cannot Mistake," Says Bryan.

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 11.—Two thousand persons greeted W. J. Bryan at Charlotte. Seven thousand turned out here. The candidate declares that the difference between the two parties is so great this year that no mistake can be made in voting. Bryan today made four speeches before breakfast.
