The K. of P. lodge of this city received a letter from Lieut. Kay, of Fort Columbus, N. Y., stating that Chas. La Riviere who used to live in this city, and was in the employ of W. D. Hansford & Co., about five years ago, died at sea in July of this year. He joined the army and was in company "F" Thirteenth infantry. Anyone knowing of the whereabouts of his relatives will confer a favor by informing Geo. Hartman, jr., at the First National Bank in Sumpter Miner: Philip Meacham, of Portland, son of a former state treasurer, was in town Sunday and Monday, negotiating with A. P. Goss relative to taking charge of his bank at Canyon City, the place of Mr. Meacham's birth.

Charles M. Piston, presented the control of the co ing Geo. Hartman, jr., at the First National Bank, in order that the effects of the deceased can be sent to them.

Hold-up in La Grande.

Drew, a stranger in this community, says the Chronicle, was taking a stroll down the railroad track about 11 o'clock this forencon he was met by three tramps going toward Union who commanded him to throw up his hands which he did, when they proceeded to go through his clothing taking from him $5.60 all he had, except $1 that was in an inside pocket which they overlooked. He at once came to town and swore out a warrant for their arrest and at the present writing the officers are out hunting for them. Of late the city has been infested with a class of hobos whose presence could very well be dispensed with.

HOROLULU POLITICS.

Labor Problem in the Islands Becoming

Somewhat Serious. Honolulu, Oct. 2.—By Mail.—The labor problem is taking a very serious form here. The Chinese and Japanese are locking from the islands by the hundreds and on some of the sugar plantations, large portions of the crop will be lost on account of the scarcity of labor with which to handle the cane. The planters are still endeavor-ing to bring negro and Puerto Rican cane. labor bere. For some reason not given the cattle ranges of the North Fork of they don't want white labor. In their micavor to realize big dividends, they by the Rev. L. A. L. Hanna last night during a heated debate which preceded the adjournment of the New Haven Baptist Association, The remark accompanied an attack upon the Newton Theological seminary, near Boston. The statement created consternation among the assembled ministers and when the debate grew particularly warm the meeting was suddenly adjourned.

journed. A resolution was presented asking Board of Trade and New York Stock that all of the churches in the association be asked to take a collection for the Newton Theological seminary It was announced that John D. Rocke feller, who has given the university Chicago $7,000,000, had promised to give the Newton institution $150,000 f a similar amount could be raised in other quarters.

The Rev. L. A. L. Hanna of Shelton opposed the resolution in vigorous language. He said:

"This seminary, and also the Baptist university at Chicago, are beds of heresy. Their instructors lead the pupils from the solid foundation of the old theology to the shifting quick sand of the new so-called scientifi
