IN THE ENEMY'S COUNTRY

Hanna Has a Warm Reception in South Dakota.

A MAN WHO HAS HORNS

So, Says the Senator, Has He Been Advertised. He Went to Stump in Pettigrew's Balliwick.

Aberdeen, S. D., Oct. 17.—Senator Hanna is surely in Senator Pettigrew's country today. At Redfield, this morning, posters were plastered everywhere that asked Hanna why he did not meet Pettigrew in the joint debate which was proposed the other day by the latter. In the opera house, where Senator Hanna spoke, cowboys distributed printed sheets allying that Hanna's seat in the senate had been purchased.

When the meeting had been called to order it was found that seven hundred people composed the audience, and that the most of them were democrats. The front row was occupied by school boys, wearing large Bryan badges. Senator Hanna said that he considered it an honor to have an audience like this come out so early in the morning to see a fellow advertised as having horns. He denounced Col. Bryan and Ex-Governor Altgeld, for making speeches charging the republicans with corruption.

At Northdale, four hundred people crowded the station. The most pretentious meeting during the morning was at Aberdeen.

TOURING THE EMPIRE STATE.

Col. Bryan Leaves New York City in Good Spirits.

New York, Oct. 17.—When W. J. Bryan came aboard his car "Rambler" at 8:45 o'clock this morning for a trip up the state, he was accompanied by Richard Croker and other democratic state leaders. He was in splendid spirits after last night's hard work. Besides Bryan's car, which was decorated with flags and bunting, the train was composed of Croker's car "Pontiac" and one passenger coach. The train pulled out at 9 o'clock, the first stop being at Yonkers.

Wants Justice and Equity.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Oct. 17.—Mr. Bryan spoke to twelve hundred people here, where he said: "I want to try to teach all classes of society that they must treat each other with justice and equity." At Yonkers five thousand people greeted the candidate.

ROOSEVELT REITERATES.

The Colonel of Rough Riders Refers to State Issues.

Upper Sandusky, O., Oct. 17.—Gov. Roosevelt's speech today was at Delaware, where the students of Wesleyan university gave him a hearty welcome, and three thousand people from 6 o'clock waited for his arrival.

The governor repeated his quadruple allegation of yesterday, that Bryanism is the paramount issue and that it is Crokerism in New York, which means the blackmailing of vice; Albigandism in Illinois, which smacked of anarchy; Pettigrewism in South Dakota, which stands for corruption of the voter and degradation of the flag; Gobelinism in Kentucky, which means suppression of the will of the majority.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Childers and Cardwell Arraigned on a Second Charge.

Childers and Cardwell, who are in jail accused of having stolen 14 head of stock from T. F. Glenn, have been arrested on another charge, that of obtaining money under false pretenses. They were arraigned this morning and asked for further time in which to plead, which was granted. Jack Brigham is the complaining witness. He bought the stock from them and gave them $295. That is the basis of the action.

Important Criminal Cases.

Speculation and interest center not in the civil cases. It is the question asked, "What will be done with those on trial for murder and cattle stealing?" That question will be answered within short time. Mrs. Minnie Crockett will be tried commencing tomorrow, Thursday, morning, for the murder of her husband. Childers and Cardwell will be tried Saturday, October 20, for the stealing of 14 head of cattle from T. F. Glenn of Sumnerville. The cases of Columbia George and Toy-Toy for the murder of Anlu Edna, an Indian woman, will come on for trial Monday morning, that of Columbia George first, to be followed by that of Toy-Toy.

AMIDST SHRIEKS OF BURNING.

Terrible Scenes of a Holocaust in New York Tenement House.

New York, Oct. 17.—Eight lives were lost in a fire in a three-story frame double tenement house at No. 43 Esther street early this morning. The dead are:

Mrs. Sarah Fass, aged 36; Lena Fass, aged 9; Morris Fass, aged 2; Samuel Fass, aged 13; Mrs. Rosa Lewis, aged 30; Mendor Strauss, aged 8; Samuel Strauss, aged 22; Mrs. Anna Horowitz, aged 46.

The house was a ramshackle affair and a regular fire-trap. At 2 o'clock, the janitor was awakened by the crackling of flames in the hallway. After getting out his wife and daughter safely, he turned in an alarm, but the building by this time was burning like tinder.

Incidents at the Catastrophe.

Fass kept a meat-shop on the first floor, and lived on the second. When the police arrived, he was seen standing at the window of the second floor in a cloud of smoke, and yelled: "Get ready to catch the children!" After tossing one out into the arms of the policeman, he attempted to return for the other members of the family, but was cut off by the flames, and was obliged to drop to the ground to save himself.

Mrs. Horowitz was seen approaching a window clad in her nightgown, when a burst of flames surrounded her, and she fell, amid horrible shrieking. Many heroic rescues were made by the firemen and policemen. It is believed the fire was of incendiary origin.

GREAT STRIKE ENDED.

READING COMPANY POSTS NOTICES AGREEING TO DEMANDS.

Miners Won Important Points Accepting Union Recognition.

Philadelphia, Oct. 17.—The conference at Reading has acceded to all demands made by the miners, and the strike will now be declared off.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 17.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon it was semi-officially stated that the coal strike was settled. Later, in Philadelphia, the Reading railway company issued a statement withdrawing the notice posted on the 3d of October, and gives notice that it will suspend the sliding scale and pay the ten per cent advance on September wages until April 1, 1901, and will take up with all mine employees any grievances they may have.

LI HUNG CHANG and Prince Ching Claim it Wasn't Issued.

Shanghai, Oct. 17.—Pekin advices October 15, say that hordes of Boxers are gathering to the north of the capital, displaying unusual activity. The imperial edict which was said to have been issued, ordering the punishment of the high officials, is now said to have been forged. Regarding the authenticity of the edict, Li Hong Chang and Prince Ching make strenuous denials.

JUDGE M'DONALD ARRESTED

Serious Charge Against Whitman County Superior Judge.

TRIES SUBORNATION OF PERJURY

He Alleges the Prosecution Attempted to Induce and Coerce H. P. Harrington, then an inmate of the county jail, awaiting trial on a charge of burglary, to testify that Nessly had been an assistant in the burglary, McDonald promising he would suspend sentence on Harrington if he would help convict Nessly.

Colfax, Wash., Oct. 17.—Judge William McDonald of the superior court of this county, was placed under arrest this afternoon on two warrants charging him with attempted subornation of perjury and he will be brought before Justice Kirkland tomorrow. These complaints were sworn to by J. E. Nessly, traveling correspondent of the Spokesman-Review and reeled that early in 1898 McDonald, while judge of the superior court, endeavored to induce and coerce H. P. Harrington, then an inmate of the county jail, awaiting trial on a charge of burglary, to testify that Nessly had been an assistant in the burglary, McDonald promising he would suspend sentence on Harrington if he would help convict Nessly.

It is charged that McDonald attempted to induce one Win Keech to testify falsely that Nessly had been a member with himself of a cattle and horse stealing band.

DEATH OF W. L. WILSON.

Author Famous Tariff Bill—President Washington and Lee University. Lexington, Va., Oct. 17.—William L. Wilson, president of Washington and Lee university, formerly postmaster-general, died suddenly this morning. He was the author of the Wilson tariff bill, and for years famous as the leader of democratic economic thought in the United States. Mr. Wilson was regarded as perhaps the ablest member of the cabinet of Grover Cleveland, during the latter's incumbency of the presidency.

Short Line Wreck.

Pocatello, Idaho, Oct. 17.—The Oregon Short Line's fast mail was wrecked at Topas, 30 miles east of here, this afternoon by running into the rear end of a freight train standing on the main line. The engine of the passenger train rolled down an embankment and Engineer Beckmann and Fireman George were badly injured. An unknown tramp was killed and another had his leg crushed.

The affairs of the Central Navigation & Construction Co. are still in a chaotic state, and at present there seems to be no immediate hope of a final adjustment. Mr. Mohr has been unable to raise funds with which to satisfy creditors; and it is not likely the company will be ready to do any business this fall.

Does Your Baking Powder Contain Alum?

Prof. Geo. F. Barker, M.D., University of Penn.: "All the constituents of alum remain (from alum baking powders) in the bread, and the alum itself is reproduced to all intents and purposes when the bread is dissolved by the gastric juice in the process of digestion. I regard the use of alum as highly injurious."

Dr. Alonzo Clark: "A substance (alum) which can derange the stomach should not be tolerated in baking powder."

Prof. W. G. Tucker, New York State Chemist: "I believe it (alum) to be decidedly injurious when used as a constituent of food articles."

Prof. S. W. Johnson, Yale College: "I regard their (alum and soluble alumina salts) introduction into baking powders as most dangerous to health."

In view of such testimony as this, every care must be exercised by the housewife to exclude the over and over condemned cheap, alum baking powders from the food.

Baking powders made from cream of tartar, which is highly refined grape acid, are promotive of health, and more efficient. No other kind should be used in leavening food. Royal Baking Powder is the highest example of a pure cream of tartar powder.
